

TOWN OF LOOMIS

PROCLAMATION 11 – _____

A PROCLAMATION OF THE TOWN COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF LOOMIS
PROCLAIMING MAY 14, 2011 AS PLACER LAND TRUST DAY

WHEREAS, Placer Land Trust has been working to secure and protect beautiful, valuable, and ecologically important lands and open spaces in Placer County; and

WHEREAS, Placer Land Trust has been a valuable partner in raising community awareness of the value of land, plant, and water conservation; and

WHEREAS, the Placer Nature Center has provided nature and outdoor education to increase the scientific literacy of thousands of Placer County children and families; and

WHEREAS, the Placer Nature Center has been a vital educational resource and partner for school in Loomis and throughout Placer County; and

WHEREAS, the Placer Nature Center has encouraged the cohesiveness of families through its ongoing weekend programs of family nature activities;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Town Council of the Town of Loomis does hereby declare that May 14, 2011 be celebrated as Placer Land Trust Day in recognition of the Trust’s 20 years of service in Placer County and does encourage Loomis citizens to share in the celebration and help support the Trust for the years to come.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Town Council of the Town of Loomis on the 12th day of April 2011, by the following vote:

- AYES:
- NOES:
- ABSTAIN:
- ABSENT:

Mayor

ATTEST:

APPROVED AS TO FORM:

Town Clerk

Town Attorney