FARMERS MARKET grows into BIG SUCCESS IT'LL BE BACK!

On Oct. 12 and again on Nov. 2, local farmers and artisans came together to provide a bounty of goods to eager customers. There were 30 vendors at the Oct. 12 market and 49 at the Nov. 2 market, according to Lynne Dodson, volunteer and member of the farmers' market committee. Customers got to browse the vendor booths, take a look at scarecrows entered in an annual contest, listen to a local musician, and much more.

The farmers' markets in the fall were a pilot program to gauge community interest and support. Based on the success in attendance and sales, there will definitely be spring-time farmers' market dates! Watch for more information in the next few months.
