GETTING DISASTER HELP FROM FEMA AND SBA

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

These general conditions must be met for an applicant to be eligible to receive IHP Assistance:

- The applicant must be a U.S. citizen, non-citizen national, or qualified alien. FEMA must be able to verify the applicant's identity.
- The applicant's insurance, or other forms of disaster assistance received, cannot meet their disaster-caused needs. The applicant's necessary expenses and serious needs are directly caused by a declared disaster.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

- SBA disaster loans are the primary source of federal assistance to help pay for disaster repair or replacement costs not fully covered by insurance or other compensation. SBA offers low-interest disaster loans to businesses of all sizes, most private nonprofit organizations, homeowners and renters.
- Businesses of all sizes and most private nonprofit organizations may borrow up to $2 million for property damage. Small businesses, small businesses engaged in aquaculture and most private, nonprofit organizations may also borrow to help meet disaster-caused working capital needs. Business statutory loan limit is $2 million for combined damage and working capital needs.
- Homeowners may borrow up to $200,000 to repair/replace their primary residence. Homeowners and renters may borrow up to $40,000 to repair/replace personal property.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

- ◆ Register with FEMA at www.disasterassistance.gov. Homeowners and renters should submit their SBA disaster loan application, even if they are not sure if they will need or want a loan. If SBA cannot approve your application, in most cases we refer you to FEMA's Other Needs Assistance (ONA) program for possible additional assistance.
