Proclamation Honoring Mrs. Loree Millican Cole

WHEREAS, Loree Millican Cole is being honored by her family and friends in celebration of her 100TH birthday; and,

WHEREAS, She was born in 1918 to Tom and Kate Millican, married Spencer Cole and enjoyed life with him for over 60 years, working alongside him as partner in their restaurant and grocery store; and

WHEREAS, She is the mother of five children, grandmother of eighteen grandchildren, and Great Grandmother to a host of great grandchildren and great great grandchildren, thereby influencing generations to come for the Kingdom of her Lord; and

WHEREAS, She has endeared herself to her family, church and community by acts of kindness and Christian love, earning her the title Momma Cole; and

WHEREAS, Momma Cole began serving the Lord around the age of six, loving Jesus for over ninety years, and continues to serve God's purpose in her generation as prayer warrior, encourager and friend; and

WHEREAS, Momma Cole recognizes that "life and death are in the power of the tongue" and has chosen to speak health, blessing and goodness to all, and has shown herself to be an example of the Virtuous Woman described in Proverb 31 as one "whose price is far above rubies" by faithfulness to her God, and now her children, family, and friends rise up and call her blessed.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, as her son, and by the virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Munford, Tennessee, do hereby proclaim August 20, 2018 as Momma Cole Day and encourage all our citizens to join with me in celebration of Momma Cole's 100th birthday and express to her best wishes and continued excellent health until Jesus calls her home.
