

EMOTIONAL SURVIVAL FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

WITH DR. KEVIN GILMARTIN

DECADES BEFORE LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER WELLNESS WAS A ROUTINE TOPIC OF CONVERSATION AND CONCERN, DR. KEVIN GILMARTIN WROTE THE BOOK ON IT.

EMPOWER OFFICERS TO THRIVE WITH EMOTIONAL WELLNESS TRAINING

of officers report
having experienced critical stress

of officers report
unresolved
emotional issues

Are your officers fully equipped to deal with critical stress? We can't change the dynamics of the job—but we CAN help officers build resilience and ask for help when needed.

With the unprecedented scrutiny today's officers are facing, combined with a recognition of the pernicious stress often inherent in this work, officer wellness has never been more important—and, at last, recognized as such.

WEDNESDAY JANUARY 11, 2023

LOCATION: CENTERVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT, 155 W. SPRING VALLEY PIKE, CENTERVILLE, OH

TIME: 8AM-4PM

COST: $150 PER ATTENDEE — ADVANCE PAYMENT REQUIRED.

MVRMA WILL INVOICE AFTER REGISTRATION IS RECEIVED.

Register

Emotional Survival for Law Enforcement remains as relevant as ever. But times have changed since this book was first published.

Attendees will learn:

- Elements of emotional survival in light of recent events in law enforcement
- Key principles of emotional survival for police officers
- What's new in the revised edition of Dr. Kevin Gilmartin's classic book—and why
- Practical solutions to increase your chances for emotional survival

DR. KEVIN GILMARTIN

Kevin Gilmartin, Ph.D. is a behavioral scientist specializing in law enforcement and public safety related issues. He spent 20 years with the Pima County (AZ) Sheriff's Department before retiring in 1995. During his tenure, he supervised the Behavioral Sciences Unit and the Hostage Negotiations Team. Dr. Gilmartin is a former recipient of the IACP National Police Officer Service Award for contributions during hostage negotiations. He maintains a consulting relationship with law enforcement agencies nationally and in Canada.

Dr. Gilmartin holds adjunct faculty instructor positions at Cornell University's New York State School of Labor and Industrial Relations, the University of Massachusetts' Police Leadership Institute, and Sam Houston State University's Law Enforcement Management Institute of Texas. He is a guest instructor at the FBI Law Enforcement Academy in Quantico, Virginia and the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) in Glynco, Georgia. He is a faculty member of the FBI Law Enforcement Executive Development Institute, and is retained by several federal law enforcement agency critical response teams. Dr. Gilmartin is a charter member of the IACP Psychological Services Section, and a former vice-president of the Society of Police and Criminal Psychology. He holds a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from the University of Arizona, and has had his works published by the IACP, Department of Justice, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and the FBI.