PRESS RELEASE

Port Orchard Missing Person

Port Orchard police search for woman missing since Saturday.

Port Orchard, WA. May 25th, 2020

On Saturday, May 23rd, 2020, Sheila M. Wegner was visiting the City of Port Orchard with family when she chose to run into the woods in the area of Bay St. and Port Orchard Blvd. Officers from the Port Orchard Police Department immediately searched the woods without locating Ms. Wegner.

On Sunday, May 24th, 2020, officers from the Port Orchard Police Department and deputies from the Kitsap County Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue searched several areas on foot and with K9 tracking teams. Unfortunately, Ms. Wegner was still not located.

It remains unknown why Ms. Wegner went missing but police do not believe there is foul play involved or any risk to the community.

Ms. Wegner is fifty-four years old, 5'04, 100 pounds, with brown eyes and long grey/brown hair. She was last seen wearing a blue jacket and long pants.

If members of the public have any information regarding her current location, or any additional information that may assist police with contacting Ms. Wegner, please call 911 or (360) 308-5400 and reference case number D20-001132.

For Immediate Release 12:00 p.m. PST, May 25th, 2020
