STAFF REPORT – Nothing at this time.

GENERAL PUBLIC COMMENTS –

Mike and Judy Coulston – Were curious about the vacant lot next to their home. The original owner planned to build five townhouses and the property is now for sale. Ms. Coulston wanted to know what could be built at this location. Councilmember Hedrick noted that a new owner could build anything with appropriate plans, permits and approval from the City. The property is commercially zoned however an owner could build a residential home at that location. Ms. Coulston asked why there wasn't proper signage at the corner of 52nd and Bennett. Cars that drive east past 52nd and Bennett find the street comes to a dead-end. Drivers become confused and Ms. Coulston is concerned that one day there could be a collision. Ms. Coulston asked the City to consider placing either a Dead End or Not a Through Street sign at the intersection of 52nd and Bennett. Councilmember Hedrick thanked Mr. and Ms. Coulston for their comments and would look into the request for signage at the corner of 52nd and Bennett.
