Leaf Blower Request for Extension 2025

Rye Brook's seasonal gas leaf blower ban began on May 1, 2024 and is in effect annually between May 1st to September 30th.

Chapter 158, Section 2.1 (E) of the Village Code allows property owners that maintain five (5) or more contiguous acres to request that the Village Board consider a full or partial exemption and/or extension of the seasonal leaf blower ban due to special circumstances which are heard by Village Board of Trustees.

If you are interested in reapplying for an extension or exemption, please answer the questions below and submit this completed request form (and any supporting documentation) to Greg Rivera, Assistant to the Village Administrator, at grivera@ryebrookny.gov.

Please note that the Village Board of Trustees may request additional documents to help make a determination on this application for further extension or exemption.

Name of Property Owner(s) or Authorized Representative Making Request:	Contact Information (phone number, email address):
Address of Property. If multiple adjacent properties are maintained, also include the Section, Block & Lot numbers for each lot seeking an exemption:	Name and address of Current Landscaper (if work is not performed by the property owner):

Please describe your request in detail including why the seasonal gas leaf blower ban continues to cause a temporary undue burden or hardship for the property owner(s), and/or why it may continue to have an adverse effect on public health and safety. Please include any supporting documentation that would be helpful in considering this request:

Please detail any updated plans and an updated proposed timetable to come into compliance with the legislation:

Please describe any efforts made to date and commitment to implement and/or maintain the outdoor property in a more environmentally conscious way in the future:

If you have any questions about the legislation or this form, please contact Greg Rivera, Assistant to the Village Administrator, at grivera@ryebrookny.gov or (914) 939-0077.
