

City of San Rafael
In Recognition of National Preparedness Month 2024

- WHEREAS, in San Rafael, our community is susceptible to human-caused and natural disasters, including earthquakes, wildland fires, floods, pandemics, and other large-scale emergencies we cannot predict; and
- WHEREAS, recent events, including drought, wildfires, and a pandemic, have emphasized environmental, structural, and social vulnerabilities; and
- WHEREAS, when large-scale emergencies occur, Professional First Responders and Disaster Workers will be overwhelmed and need the support of prepared and trained residents; and
- WHEREAS, government agencies and disaster organizations cannot bear the sole responsibility to prepare for and respond to disasters; and
- WHEREAS, working in partnership with our community members, Community Emergency Response Teams (CERT), Neighborhood Response Groups (NRGs), community organizations, and others, we can minimize injuries and the loss of lives, reduce the impact to property and the natural environment, and more quickly help our community find a new normal, post-emergency; and
- WHEREAS, as a culturally diverse City committed to being inclusive and accessible while providing its people with tools to prepare themselves and their loved ones, San Rafael will join the nation in emphasizing this year's theme, "Empowering Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander (AANHPI) communities to act today to prepare for future risks and disasters"; and
- WHEREAS, the City of San Rafael and partner organizations will design and provide a variety of customized trainings, resources, and outreach to encourage residents and staff of different backgrounds and cultures to take steps to be better prepared for all emergencies and disasters; and
- WHEREAS, the time, energy, and effort that residents, business owners, and San Rafael employees invest in preparing now will create more resilient communities that can better prevent, navigate, and recover from a disaster.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kate Colin, Mayor of San Rafael, do hereby proclaim the month of September 2024 as
and in doing so, urge all residents and community members to take emergency preparation steps to increase our community's resiliency to large scale emergencies or disasters.

Kate Colin
