

1 HOUR 2 GET READY

San Rafael Disaster Preparedness

Learn what you can do in one hour to be more disaster ready and help create a more resilient community.

WHAT

Quinn Gardner, City of San Rafael's Emergency Manager, will talk through what you need to know and do now. Whether you own or rent, what you do now can help you survive the next wildfire, earthquake or flood.

TOPICS

- + Understanding Emergency Management
- + How to support city responders
- + Ways to minimize damage and injury
- + How to stay informed
- + Make a plan
- + How and when to shelter in place
- + Evacuation
- + Go-Bags and disaster kits
- + Working together as a community
- + How to learn more and get involved

The presentation is one hour and focuses on things you can do with one hour of time to Get Ready! Q&A will follow as time allows.

OVERWHELMED?

Feeling overwhelmed because you haven't done anything to prepare? Don't. Come to the event, and commit to spending one hour to get prepared. Every step you take is one step closer to being prepared.

September is National Disaster Preparedness Month
