This past year, several critical achievements have come to fruition:

- Continued material support for the San Rafael Fire Foundation
- New Fire Station openings and several others approaching completion, including the new Public Safety Center
- Participation in departmental milestones throughout the year, including badge pinning, promotions, retirements, and new firefighter graduation ceremonies.

Other notable contributions by the members of the Fire Commission include:

- Commissioner Leonard “Len” Thompson continued to assist the San Rafael Fire Foundation in planning and carrying out its fundraising activities (including the 2018 Crabfeed). For the past 3 years, Len has served as Fire Chief for the Petaluma Fire Department and for the last year Chief for the Rancho Adobe Fire District. Prior, he served the Los Angeles Fire Department for 35 years in several capacities, culminating in his role as Chief Deputy of Operations and supervising Deputy Chiefs. He established the San Rafael Fire Foundation as a 501(c)(3) in 2014. Due to Len’s responsibilities with Petaluma and Rancho Adobe, he reluctantly stepped down from the San Rafael Fire Commission in June 2019. We honor Len’s commitment and contributions to our community and wish him well as he focuses his much-needed attention to the City of Petaluma. Eli Hill was appointed in October 2019 to complete his unexpired term through March 2021.
- Commissioners Steve Mizroch and Larry Luckham were appointed to the San Rafael Wildfire Advisory Committee under the City Council’s ad hoc Subcommittee for Wildfire Prevention, which includes Mayor Phillips and Councilmember Bushey. The Committee convened its first meeting on June 19, 2019 and has endeavored to review and refine the Wildfire Prevention and Protection Action Plan.
- Commissioner Stan Burford has made several public statements at San Rafael City Council meetings in support of the Wildfire Prevention and Protection Action Plan. He also contributed a new point to the plan: “Prevent potential entrapments by requiring 2 gates in any fence in designated areas” which would help assure that multiple escape routes exist in the most vulnerable areas and provide ease of access for firefighters.
- Larry Luckham continued to photographically document San Rafael Fire Department events on The Photo 50 Project site, including Retirements at Station 52, Move In Day at Station 52, Promotions at Station 52, and Academy

19 Graduations at San Rafael City Hall. Additionally, Larry continues to provide historic photographs and other materials to the new fire stations in order to maintain the history of the Department for this generation and those that will follow.

- Commissioner Tom Weathers is a highly regarded legal expert and he continues to support the Fire Commission and Fire Foundation with his expertise.
- Commissioner Nadine Hade provides fiscal guidance and expertise to the Commission as well as participating in events in support of the San Rafael Fire Department.
- Commissioner David Fonkalsrud provides strategic guidance around public relations and community engagement as well as participating in events in support of the San Rafael Fire Department.
- The proposed parcel tax to fund a $21M annual budget for the Marin Wildfire Prevention Authority, driven by the tireless efforts of Chief Gray, City Manager Schutz, and staff, has navigated approvals across agencies such that the voters will consider it in the March 2020 ballot. At the San Rafael City Council meeting on October 14, 2019, Stan Burford made a public statement of unanimous support by the San Rafael Fire Commission for approval of the resolution.
- In July, David Fonkalsrud, Steve Mizroch, and Americorp volunteers staffed a booth with Quinn Gardner at the Marin County Fair to increase awareness of FireSAFE matters and signed people up for the Marin Alert system.
- With material support of the San Rafael Fire Foundation, the San Rafael Fire Department acquired Fire Boat San Rafael which was christened on November 11, 2019. Additionally, the Fire Foundation has committed to subsidizing the cost of Class A uniforms for San Rafael Fire Department personnel.

In closing, the San Rafael Fire Commission is an advocate for and an asset to the Fire Department primarily because Chief Gray wholeheartedly supports, encourages, and includes the Fire Commission in all Fire Department endeavors. The Fire Commission would like to recognize Chief Gray and Deputy Chief Sinnott for their deep commitment to the Fire Commission. Beyond taking the time to attend every meeting, they inspire the Commission to prioritize the safety of our community both now and in the future.

We will continue to ask the question, "How may we better serve the Fire Department and the City of San Rafael?" We look forward to continuing to support the San Rafael Fire Department and the wider community in the year ahead!
