

A large sea turtle, likely a hawksbill, is shown swimming horizontally across the frame. The turtle's carapace is a mix of green and brown, with distinct scutes. Its head is on the left, and its tail is on the right. The background is a vibrant blue ocean with a diverse coral reef visible in the lower half of the image. A white diamond-shaped graphic is centered over the turtle's body, containing the text.

World
Oceans Day
June 8th