CITY HIGHLIGHTS

WHY SANTA ANA

The City of Santa Ana has established itself as the county's powerbase and is often referred to as Downtown Orange County. Santa Ana is 27-square miles, ethnically diverse with a population of over 308,000, an eclectic food, retail and arts scene, surrounded by five major freeways, train station, airport, and soon an electric railway system. Santa Ana has distinctive housing choices, energetic nightlife, and cultural amenities like the Discovery Cube Orange County, Bowers Museum, Artist's Village, the Santa Ana Zoo at Prentice Park, and so much more. Business is booming in Santa Ana with over 22,000 businesses who employ over 150,000 people. Santa Ana is the corporate headquarters of several large companies and is seeking businesses like yours to join in the success.

HOTEL DISTRICT

Santa Ana's hotel district can accommodate your travel for leisure, business, corporate, education or sporting events. The hotel districts are accommodating and competitively priced from affordable to chic. Santa Ana is a welcoming city that is centrally located in Southern California and within a short driving distance from the airport, mountains, beaches, Disneyland, Angel Stadium, and hundreds of wonderful eateries.

AIRPORT LOCATION

The John Wayne Airport is conveniently located and a quick 6.5 mile drive from Santa Ana's Regional Transportation Center and offers stress-free airline travel and connections to multiple transportation options, including free parking.

TRAVEL SANTA ANA

Travel Santa Ana, founded in 2021, is the official Destination Marketing Organization (DMO) for Santa Ana and is dedicated to promoting the city as a desirable Orange County destination for business, leisure, meetings, sports, and group travel. The Santa Ana Tourism Marketing District is comprised of 17 hotels/motels with 70 rooms or more within the City's boundaries. Directory, points of interests, mural info, and photo gallery are available at www.travelsantaana.com.
