City Hall should work for us and listen to us. Residents should be welcomed and our elected officials should take our side ... every time.

We need a more transparent City Hall that prioritizes us, the citizens.

I am an experienced business advocate helping create new innovative companies that hire locally in Santa Ana.

My plan for Santa Ana includes:

Enhance our local economy to create new and better jobs for all of our residents.

Make Santa Ana safe from crime and gang violence. We need an appropriately funded police department that prioritizes getting criminals off the streets and making everyone else feel safe.

End homelessness in Santa Ana. Our streets should be less attractive to homeless; addiction and mental health treatment facilities more attractive.

Create more affordable housing options

I am passionate about Santa Ana and love the resilient spirit of our residents and local businesses. Let's work together to bring back our local economy. Let's celebrate Santa Ana's history and diversity and make our City a shining example of progress and economic success for everyone.
