Priority Focus Areas

Recovery from the Pandemic

The need continues to ensure our community has access to COVID-19 education, testing, vaccinations, face masks, and sanitization of public areas.

Direct Assistance Programs

Financial assistance and targeted programs remains a need for both residents and businesses.

Public Health and Safety

There is a substantial need to address quality-of-life issues exacerbated by the pandemic and resources for healthier living.

Critical Infrastructure

Whether it's water, sewer or broadband internet, the pandemic has elevated the need for significant investment in our municipal assets.

City Fiscal Health

Economic activity screeched to a stop in many areas, leading to general revenue loss and leaving certain City funds in the red.

Revive Santa Ana Survey

- Share your ideas about how to help Santa Ana
- Available in English, Spanish and Vietnamese.
- Deadline is May 16
