

Do you have

DANCING. MUSIC. or LIVE ENTERTAINMENT at your restaurant or business?

Are you interested in having music, dancing, or live entertainment at your restaurant or business?

Santa Ana has a

NEW ENTERTAINMENT PERMIT

All restaurants or businesses that currently have or wish to offer dancing, music, or live entertainment must apply for and obtain an Entertainment Permit from the City of Santa Ana. Permits are free for one year from September 4, 2013 to September 4, 2014.

look inside the enclosed brochure for more information on how you can apply for and receive the new Entertainment Permit!

Please direct questions to the City of Santa Ana Planning Division. Phone: (714) 647-5804. Email: PlanningDepartment@santa-ana.org. Visit: Mon., Tues., Thurs., & alternating Fri. from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and Weds. from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Web: www.ci.santa-ana.ca.us/pba/planning/default.asp. For further information on the City's recent updates to its alcohol and entertainment policies, please visit the update project's web page at: http://www.ci.santa-ana.ca.us/pba/planning/alcohol_entertainment.asp.

