

Residential Solar Streamline Requirements

Residential Solar Streamline is only for residential projects less than 10KWA A/C without battery storage.

The following is required for Residential Solar Streamline plan check:

1. Solar permit application.
2. Electrical permit application.
3. Min size 11" x 17" plans with current code cycle and systems less than 10 KWA A/C without battery storage (for paper submittal 2 sets are required).
4. Engineered stamp on (Site plan, PV layout, Anchorage spacing, Anchorage details and Manufacturers PV support information).
5. Structural calculations, as needed (for paper submittal 2 sets are required).
6. Residential Photovoltaic Checklist (for paper submittal 2 sets are required).
7. Electronically completed ABC Solar form (Solar America Board for Codes and Standards) (for paper submittal 2 sets are required).
<http://www.solarabcs.org/about/publications/reports/expedited-permit/forms/index.html>
8. Signed Homeowner authorization letter stating, "To install" solar panels. If digital signature validations is required.
9. Letter of Authorization from the contractor, if applicable.

All necessary documents can be located on our city website <https://www.santa-ana.org/departments/building-division/>.