Part-Time Employee Perks

---

Employees who work part-time for the City of Santa Ana are eligible to take advantage of several perks that offer discounted prices for services and goods which may benefit them and their loved ones. These perks include:

Employee Assistance Program

REACH is completely free to both employees and their immediate family. Counseling and referral services are available to support personal and professional life issues.

Employee Discount Program

Access to FunEx is a completely free perk to find discounts on movie tickets, hotels, theme parks, events, and more.

Pet Care Plan

UnitedPetCare is a pet care discount program that saves money on visits at participating vet clinics/hospitals and discounts on other services/products. Part-time employees will receive access to the City's negotiated discounted rate by enrolling directly with UnitedPetCare.

Rideshare Program

The City's Rideshare program provides incentives for those who carpool, vanpool, bike, walk, and use public transit to travel to/from work.

Technology Discount Program

Employees, contractors, family, and friends are eligible to receive Dell's exclusive discount pricing and offers.

City of Santa Ana Part-Time Employees can access the perks directly and, with the exception of city's Rideshare Program, are not managed by the COSA Benefits Division. Employees should contact the providers directly for more information.

Your REACH EAP Benefit

What is REACH?

REACH is your EAP (employee assistance program) contracted and pre-paid by your employer as a benefit for you and your immediate family. The program provides confidential short-term counseling, assessment and referral for a variety of concerns. Based here in southern California, REACH provides counseling assistance through its professional staff and licensed/certified clinical network.

Why does my employer have REACH?

We all experience personal and work-related stressors at one time or another. Your employer cares that you get the right type of assistance for these problems. REACH has been contracted to confidentially give you immediate assistance and referral that will help towards problem resolution.

What type of assistance is available?

REACH can assist you with all kinds of personal and work-related issues. The most common concerns are:

- Relationships: Family, Marital, Child
- Emotional: Depression, Anxiety, Stress
- Addictions: Substance Abuse, Sex, Internet
- Workplace: Co-worker, Stress,
- Legal: Family, Personal Injury, Criminal
- Financial: Credit, Retirement, Budgeting
- Career: Vocational Guidance
- Elder Care: Retirement, Care Support
- Parenting: Single, Step, Foster, Child Care
- Pet Care: Adoption, loss

Are services confidential?

Yes. Law and professional ethical codes can assure you that all information given to REACH by phone, email, or in session will be afforded the maximum confidentiality. The exception would only be by law where danger to self or others may mandate reporting.

How about Online Services?

Yes. A variety of online tools to build personal and professional skills are available at www.reachline.com (Member PW: reach) Self-Assessment Tools, REACH Online Magazine, EAP & Work-Life Benefit Information, Employee Health & Wellness Tips, and links to other Life Skill Resources are only a click away!

Are services free?

Yes. Your employer prepays all services provided by REACH for you and your dependents. However, if the REACH staff recommends treatment or referral, you will be responsible for any additional expenses. In many cases your health insurance plan may cover part or all of that cost. The REACH staff will discuss cost options with you and will ensure that you get the help you need.

How do I contact REACH?

To make an appointment, talk to a counselor by phone, inquire about our services, call 1-800-273-5273 toll-free. For non-emergency needs, call us during regular business hours: 8am to 5 PM Monday through Friday. For crisis situations, access to a professional counselor is available by phone 24hours, 7 days a week. For non-urgent information, referrals or additional concerns or questions email us at info@reachline.com

Who We Are

City of Santa Ana is a dynamic organization rooted in a rich past and committed to a progressive future. As a municipality, we provide public services to our diverse community.

We are considered the Downtown of Orange County, which makes us attractive to diverse people and businesses who choose to call us home.

Our civic depth is visible in our neighborhoods and our business districts, as well as in our downtown area which houses city, county, judicial, and federal branches of government.

Working for the City of Santa Ana will put you at the center of one of the most important cities in the State of California.

What We Do

As a municipal organization, City of Santa Ana helps the residents and businesses in our city thrive.

The departments within our organization work both visibly and behind the scenes to advance the city's strategic plan and build on the city's historical legacy.

Together, as an organization, we exist to serve. We protect our city. We ensure its safety and livability. We provide enrichment through recreation, public spaces, and cultural events. We encourage business development. We maintain streets and deliver reliable access to utilities. We responsibly steward the city's resources. We serve the public.
