Memorandum

To: Honorable Members, Executive Committee
Shali Sirkay, Executive Director
Cities Association of Santa Clara County Joint Powers Agency

From: Jannie Quinn and Andrew Shen, Co-General Counsel

Date: April 19, 2024

Re: Bylaws – Process, Requested Changes, and Recommendations

BACKGROUND – PROCESS:

As you may recall, at its February 8th meeting, the Board of Directors (“Board”) voted to designate the Executive Committee as the Bylaws Review Subcommittee.

Subsequently, at its February 23, 2024 meeting, the Executive Committee adopted the following process and timeline to solicit feedback on proposed Bylaws for the Cities Association:

- February 29, 2024: the Executive Committee circulated copies of the former unincorporated Cities Association’s bylaws (with minor comments and edits), as the starting point for the development of new bylaws, to Board members for comment and recommendations. A copy of the former unincorporated association’s bylaws, as circulated on February 29, is included as Attachment 1.
- By April 12, 2024: member cities provided their comments and feedback on the proposed bylaws.
- April 19, 2024: the Executive Committee will begin its review of the feedback provided by the Cities Association member cities.
- April 26, 2024: the Executive Committee will hold its regular meeting to discuss the feedback and develop draft bylaws for the Cities Association Joint Powers Agency.
- April 30, 2024: the Executive Committee will distribute the proposed draft Bylaws and its recommendations to the Board.
- May 9, 2024: the Board will review the proposed Bylaws and consider final approval.

The Executive Committee adopted the above timeline to allow each of the member agencies sufficient time to review and provide their respective input. In addition, the Executive Committee adopted this approach in anticipation that each member agency’s review process may be different, and some may involve review from its City Manager, City Attorney and/or City Councils.

To further the process outlined above, Executive Director Shali Sirkay sent reminders of this timeline on March 21 and April 10, 2024. Executive Director Sirkay also made separate efforts to solicit comments from member agencies' city managers.

BACKGROUND – JOINT POWERS AGREEMENT:

Article 26 of the Cities Association's Joint Powers Agreement ("Agreement") states:

The Board shall adopt Bylaws consistent with this Agreement which shall provide for the administration and management of the Agency. The provisions of the Bylaws, as modified from time to time, shall establish the operating procedures and standards for the Agency.

The foregoing provision confirms that the Bylaws must be consistent with the Agreement itself. Thus, for example, the Bylaws cannot expand the Cities Association's powers (see Articles 6-7 of the Agreement) or change the composition of the Board or the Executive Committee (see Articles 8 and 11). But the Bylaws can specify the organization's procedures and standards, within the framework of the Agreement.

Article 26 also specifies that the Cities Association's Board will adopt Bylaws for the organization. Notably, the unincorporated association's bylaws provided that they would become effective upon the affirmative vote of the legislative bodies of two-thirds of the cities in Santa Clara County. But under Article 26 of the Agreement, city council approval is no longer required. However, as noted above, the current process was adopted to provide a sufficient opportunity for city council input as member agencies find it appropriate.

A copy of the Agreement is included as Attachment 2.

BYLAWS – COMMENTS AND FEEDBACK:

As of April 19, we have been informed of comments and feedback from the following member agencies on the proposed Bylaws:

1. Los Altos
2. Los Altos Hills
3. Morgan Hill
4. Mountain View

5. Palo Alto
6. Santa Clara
7. Sunnyvale

Their comments – except those from Mountain View and Palo Alto – are included as Attachments 3-6.¹ Below is a brief summary of their feedback.

1. Los Altos

Los Altos requested the following changes.

- In Article 5 of the Bylaws (regarding meetings), confirm that a “majority vote” requires a vote from a majority of the Board’s membership, rather than a majority of those Board members present at a given meeting.
- In Article 7 of the Bylaws (regarding finances), clarify that the Cities Association’s Fiscal Year runs from July 1 through June 30 and revise so that the Board must adopt its budget by April instead of June.

2. Los Altos Hills (Attachment 3)

Los Altos Hills provided the following comments.

- With respect to Bylaws Article II (regarding membership), there was a suggestion to include further discussion of Associate Members and their potential membership fees. The Agreement defines “Associate Member” to be any “non-city local agency, located within jurisdictional authority of the County of Santa Clara.” Article 32 of the Agreement goes on to specify that the Bylaws may provide for an Associate Membership fee.
- Regarding Bylaws Article VII, Section 2 (regarding dues), there was a request to include the Cities Association’s methodology for calculating member dues.

¹ During the JPA approval process, we received additional comments from Campbell and Monte Sereno, but they did not reiterate these suggestions when we solicited specific feedback on the Bylaws. Campbell previously asked about potential guidelines that would apply if the Cities Association and one of its members were simultaneously pursuing the same grant funding. And Monte Sereno asked about setting aside a seat on the Executive Committee for a representative from a smaller jurisdiction.

3. Morgan Hill (Attachment 4)

Morgan Hill made several recommendations:

- clarify that the City Managers' Association operates as "advisors" rather than as an advisory committee to the Cities Association (see Bylaws Article VI, Section 2);
- clarify the Legislative Action Committee's role in organizing emergency responses to urgent issues (see Bylaws, Article VI, Section 1.b); and
- confirm that the Bylaws are effective upon approval of the Board itself, rather than upon approval of the legislative bodies of the member agencies (see Bylaws, Article VIII, Section 2).

4. Mountain View

At the time of its approval of the Agreement, the Mountain View City Council recommended that the Bylaws specify how the Cities Association's positions on proposed legislation are communicated, including the following alternatives:

- When the Cities Association takes a position on proposed legislation, it could clarify which member cities support the proposed legislation, which oppose the legislation, and which are not taking a position on the proposed legislation. If a letter is sent from the Cities Association, the letter could include this specific information.
- Alternatively, letters regarding proposed legislation could be sent by groups of cities rather than from the Cities Association, either for or against.

The Bylaws currently address the Legislative Action Committee in Article VI, Section 1.b.

5. Palo Alto

In its October 23, 2023 motion approving the Agreement, the Palo Alto City Council included the following two requests with respect to the prospective Bylaws:

- whether to require a supermajority vote to take positions on legislation (see Bylaws, Article VI, Section 1.b), and

- whether to establish a permanent working committee of staff from member agencies to advise the Board (see Bylaws Article VI, Section 2, regarding the City Manager’s Association’s participation).

6. Santa Clara (Attachment 5)

Santa Clara provided an extensive – and helpful – set of edits to the proposed bylaws. These edits generally suggest improvements to the existing language, additional cross-references, and the removal of certain provisions that are already addressed in the Joint Powers Agreement itself. For example, Bylaws Article I, Sections 3-4 (regarding purposes and powers) may not be needed because these topics are addressed in the Agreement.

More substantive comments address:

- Significant Programs. Article 15 of the Agreement addresses “Significant Programs” – programs requiring $10,000 or more in annual expenditures that require two-thirds Board approval to be initiated. The request is to reconcile provisions that require majority approval of the budget and two-thirds approval of significant programs; for example, does the two-thirds approval requirement apply to significant programs included in the initial budget, or only to significant programs added later on, in subsequent budget amendments? The Bylaws do not currently address significant programs, but they do discuss the budget process in Article VII, Section 1.
- City Selection Committee. One comment highlights the requirements of Government Code Section 50275, which governs city selection committees. Section 50275 requires these committees to adopt rules governing their meetings and the selection of city representatives. Section 50275 goes on to specify that the rules shall include: “the term of office of the chairman and vice chairman of the city selection committee, such term to be not less than one year nor more than four years, the time and place of the committee’s regular meetings, a procedure for nominating and selecting city representatives, and the manner in which voting by the city selection committee shall be conducted.” The draft Bylaws do not currently address all of these procedures.

7. Sunnyvale (Attachment 6)

Sunnyvale submitted comments, consistent with Santa Clara’s, asking that the Bylaws avoid provisions that address issues already subject to the Agreement, in order to avoid confusion and inadvertent conflicts. For example, Article III of the Bylaws addresses alternates even though the Agreement also addresses alternates in Section 8.1.

Prior to the suspension, the President shall contact the Mayor and request that another Council Member be appointed or that reinstatement for the current Member be requested. The suspension shall be approved by the Board of Directors. Promptly following that action by the Board of Directors, the Member may be reinstated by informing the Board of its intent to be reinstated within thirty (30) days and to attend all future meetings either via the Director or Alternate. In the event of a disagreement between the Agency and the withdrawing Member as to whether the withdrawal shall cause the impairment of any contracts, resolutions, indentures, or other obligations of the Agency, the determination shall be made by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. Any Member that withdraws and later seeks reinstatement to the Agency shall provide funds to the Agency, proportionate to their responsibility for the current fiscal year, as if the Member had never left the Agency. Subject: Input RE: JPA Bylaws

Hi Shali,

Below is input from my City Manager and City Attorney regarding the JPA Bylaws.

- Recommend referring to the City Managers group as “advisors” rather than “advisory committee”

Section 4. Ex Officio Members. The Santa Clara County Cities Managers' Association, an advisory committee to the Agency according to the provisions of Article VI, Section 2, and the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors, may each appoint one of its members to serve as an ex officio member of the Board of Directors.

- Article VI Committees – Section 1b. – there is a placeholder “INSERT VOTING HERE” after “... the Committee would organize emergency responses to urgent issues.” Recommend the bylaws address the purview/scope of the Committee to provide responses on behalf of cities.
- Article VIII – Adoption and Amendments. Section 1.
Remove the bolded since it is our understanding that the Councils are not req'd to approve the bylaws:
These Bylaws shall become effective upon the affirmative vote of the legislative bodies of two-thirds of the Board of Directors.

Thank you so much,

Mark Turner

Hi Kent,

Thank you very much for your email and bringing up the potential for conflict between the JPA and the bylaws. I have copied Jannie Quinn and Andrew Shen, co-legal counsel for CASCC) on this email so they're in the loop as well.

Best,

Subject: RE: Cities Association JPA Bylaws Review Process Update

Shali, thanks for the opportunity to look at an early draft of the JPA Bylaws.

After taking a look at the draft I wanted to bring a significant concern to your attention. I know you've stated that we used the old associations bylaws as a starting point. In some cases the JPA Agreement and the draft Bylaws cover the same topics. This could lead to conflict, particularly since the process to amend the Bylaws and JPA agreement are different.

One specific example. The draft bylaws, Article III, Section 2 Alternates states, "The legislative body of a member City, may in its discretion, select from its members an alternate..." The JPA Agreement, Article 8 – Board of Directors states, "The Legislative body of each Member shall also appoint one alternate Director...."

Covering the same ground in the JPA Agreement and Bylaws will inevitably lead to conflicts like this. I would urge you to avoid conflicts by removing provisions of the Bylaws that are already covered in the JPA agreement. A version 2 of the draft bylaws should be distributed for comment before too much time is spent on the initial draft. The new Bylaws should supplement the JPA Agreement by covering new ground.

Thanks for considering my comments. Please let me know if you would like to discuss it further.

Thanks Kent

Subject: Reminder: Comments on CASCC Bylaws due Apr 12

(Board members on Bcc)

Dear Board Members,

This is a brief reminder to please send your comments to me by April 12, 2024. We are using the former unincorporated Cities Association's bylaws as our starting point. On April 19, 2024, the Executive Committee will review and discuss all the feedback and input received. The Board will also be provided with all the feedback and input received from member agencies.

This is the timeline that the Executive Committee developed for the review process:

Apr 19, 2024: Executive Committee reviews feedback/input and prepares updated draft Bylaws and recommendations.

Apr 30, 2024: Executive Committee provides updated draft Bylaws and recommendations to Board members.

May 9, 2024: Board reviews and discusses updated draft Bylaws and recommendations at Board meeting and considers approving final Bylaws.

We appreciate that each jurisdiction has its own review process; however, please note that there is no requirement that the draft Bylaws be brought to your City Councils for review and deliberation. Please also note that each member agency's Board representative will be expected to have authority to approve the final Bylaws at the May 9, 2024, Board meeting.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,
Shali

REQUEST TO PRESENT TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Return to executive_director@citiesassociation.org at least 2 weeks prior to the Board Meeting for consideration.

NAME OF ORGANIZATION: Santa Clara Valley Water District, Director Jim Beall

Name of Contact Person: Roseryn Bhudsabourg, Valley Water Office of Government Relations

Phone: (408) 630-3099

Email: RBhudsabourg@valleywater.org

Presenters: Director Jim Beall (primary)
Roseryn Bhudsabourg (support)

REQUEST (WHAT WILL BE PRESENTED?):

Information on water conservation tools and resources from Valley Water, including background on our agency's Model Water Efficient New Development Ordinance (MWENDO), which has been revised and updated for the upcoming 2025 building code adoption cycle.

RELEVANCE TO THE CITIES ASSOCIATION:

It is necessary to maximize water efficiency and minimize potable water use in order to help ensure that water supply is capable of reliably satisfying demand while withstanding population growth and drought conditions. Through collective water conservation efforts by municipalities and measures such as MWENDO, cities can be champions for sustainability and environmental stewardship for the communities they serve. The best time to implement some of these strategies is during the design and construction of new developments, which will help minimize the strain such developments place on potable water supplies for their full life and reduce the need for costly alterations after the developments are built.

WHAT ACTION IS REQUESTED OF THE CITIES ASSOCIATION?

Receive the information presented by Valley Water and consider sharing these resources with the appropriate departments and staff.

MATERIALS TO BE SENT TO SUPPORT PRESENTATION:

PowerPoint presentation and other digital informational materials, such as Valley Water's 2024 Water Conservation Campaign Partner Toolkit for cities to use as part of social media outreach.
