Per applicable ORS, In order for the vehicle to be released, the following must be met.

Claimant must produce "Proof of Ownership", which means the title in the claimant's name or the vehicle's state registration in the claimant's name. Claimant must provide photo identification when claiming the vehicle. (Releasing deputy must take photo of "Proof of Ownership" and of the Owner's ID.)

Claimant must produce "Proof of Liability Insurance", which must include designation of the insurance company, insurance agent, and policy number, date of expiration and identification of the vehicle. (Specifically covering the vehicle in impound.) Releasing deputy must take a photocopy of "Proof of Insurance".

Vehicle can only be released to a current, valid, licensed driver or it must be towed from the impound lot. (Releasing deputy must take a photocopy of Driver's License).

Claimant must pay a $25.00 administrative / recovery fee, payable to Sherman County Sheriff's Office and any and all appropriate towing, storage and any other fees in regards to the impoundment of the vehicle, which are due and payable at the time the vehicle is to be picked up from the impound lot.

NOTICE:

The above listed vehicle is subject to all storage and towing charges incurred; a lien will be attached to the vehicle and its contents. Failure to settle these financial responsibilities will result in the vehicle being sold to satisfy the costs of towing and storage fees.
