

RUNNING FOR LOCAL OFFICE

Make a difference...

Serve your community!

Provided by the Office of the City Clerk

Dear Potential Candidate,

This brochure was prepared to assist Sonoma electors who are considering running for office. This guide is not all-encompassing; it merely summarizes the basic requirements to establish candidacy.

Candidates, political committees, and anyone interested in elective office should not, therefore, rely solely on this guide, but should seek legal counsel or contact the City Clerk's Office for more detailed information.

There are five elected positions in Sonoma: five Council Members. All of them are elected at large. In 2024, candidates may run for three council seats.

General municipal elections are conducted every even-numbered year and are consolidated with the municipal general election. The candidate with the highest number of votes will be elected.

I trust this brochure will address many of your preliminary questions, but please feel free to contact my office at (707) 933-2216 if you need additional information.

Best wishes,
Rebekah Barr, MMC
City Clerk

Declaring Candidacy

In order to become a candidate, the first step in the process is to file a Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) Form 501 (Declaration of Candidacy) with the City Clerk. The form may be obtained in hard copy from the City Clerk or electronically from FPPC's website at www.fppc.ca.gov.

A candidate must form a campaign committee within 10 days of receiving $2,000 in contributions by filing FPPC Form 410. The form may be obtained from the City Clerk's Office or the FPPC website. The candidate must file the originally signed form with the Secretary of State, and a copy with the City Clerk. The Secretary of State will then issue a campaign committee number for use on campaign literature and future campaign disclosure filings.

All recipient committees that file a Form 410 must pay an annual fee of $50 to the Secretary of State until the committee is terminated.

Filing Nomination Papers

All candidates wishing to be placed on the ballot are required to complete the nomination process. To obtain nomination papers, schedule an appointment to meet with the City Clerk during the nomination period, which is 113 to 88 days prior to the election. Candidates and office holders are required to comply with federal, state and local campaign finance laws, as well as disclose their economic interests. A Few Things to Think About

As a person considering public office, you face an important decision. Public service offers the opportunity to address real community problems and help shape the community's future.

Public service also requires courage and personal sacrifice. You will be asked to make difficult and sometimes unpopular decisions. Your actions will be scrutinized as never before. The law and the public's expectations are likely to affect what you can do or not do to a greater extent than you are used to.

Below are just a few:

- As an elected official, you will be subject to the Political Reform Act, which means you will be required to disclose your personal and business finances. This includes your salary, investments, business interests, property, etc.
- As an elected official, you will be subject to the Ralph M. Brown Act, the open government law of California.
- As an elected official, you will be subject to the California Public Records Act, which means any email, letters, text messages, etc. that you create, receive, or respond to are open for public disclosure.
