

Sonoma Valley Community Resources

during the

Coronavirus Public Health Emergency

By Phone

Online

Sonoma Valley Hospital Screening Hotline:

(707) 935-5440

If you are feeling ill and experiencing symptoms such as fever, cough or shortness of breath, and you are concerned you may have COVID-19 (coronavirus), call Sonoma Valley Hospital's screening hotline (8:00 AM - 8:00 PM, seven days a week).

2-1-1 Sonoma County:

dial 2-1-1 or 800-325-9604

Connect to information about critical health and human services and assistance programs 24/hours a day with bilingual Call Specialists. You can also text your zip code to 898211 for assistance.

Food Connections Hotline:

(707) 523-7903

Call Redwood Empire Food Bank to find food assistance nearby.

Sonoma County Mental Health Crisis Hotline:

(707) 576-8181

Legal Aid Sonoma County

(707) 542-1290

California Rural Legal Assistance

(707) 528-9941

For tenant support and eviction questions.

SoCoEmergency.org

Official Sonoma County website for centralized information and resources about the coronavirus emergency, including information about financial assistance programs.

SonomaCity.org/coronavirus-resources

Links and information on resources to support Sonoma Valley residents.

SonomaCity.org/food-calendar

Calendar of recurring food distribution events in Sonoma Valley. Food assistance through Redwood Empire Food Bank can also be found at getfood.refb.org.

211sonoma.org

A comprehensive information and referral service for assistance in Sonoma County.

covid19.ca.gov

covid19.ca.gov/get-financial-help

Information from the State including unemployment insurance, paid family leave, and disability insurance, as well as executive orders on relief from financial institutions and residential evictions.

SonomaValleyHospital.org

SVCHC.org

Updates on testing and services from our local hospital and the Sonoma Valley Community Health Center.

Local non-profit organizations supporting basic needs (food, tenant/rental assistance, etc.) include:

Vintage House

(707) 996-0311

VintageHouse.org

La Luz Center

(707) 938-5131

LaLuzCenter.org

Friends In Sonoma Helping

(707) 996-0111

FriendsInSonomaHelping.org

Sonoma Overnight Support

(707) 939-6777

SonomaOvernightSupport.org

City of Sonoma

SonomaCity.org

The City's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) is active, working in coordination with Sonoma County and Sonoma Valley health providers. The City has suspended non-essential operations. Services are operating with limited staff by phone and email during regular business hours.

Emergency: Dial 9-1-1

Police Department non-emergency: (707) 996-3601

Fire Department non-emergency: (707) 996-2102

Public Works: (707) 938-3332

24-hour non-emergency dispatch: (707) 996-3601

For all other services, call (707) 938-3681 or email cityhall@sonomacity.org.

The City is implementing new procedures for public meetings to be conducted by teleconference during the Shelter-in-Place order. Meetings will be live streamed and public comment will be taken by email. Learn more at sonomacity.org.

Business & Employee Resources

SonomaEDB.org

Centralized resources for businesses in Sonoma County, including information on federal stimulus programs.

Find coronavirus emergency resources at:

sonomaedb.org/Business-Assistance/Coronavirus-Business-Resources

Employment/HR Guidance for Businesses and Employees:

labor.ca.gov/coronavirus2019

Business Funding & Assistance:

sba.gov/coronavirus

covid19.ca.gov/business-and-employers/#top

Key Contacts for Local Business Owners:

Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce:

info@sonomachamber.org

Sonoma Valley Visitors Bureau:

info@sonomavalley.com

Sonoma Valley Vintners & Growers:

info@sonomavalleywine.com

How You Can Help

Donate

Support local organizations providing help with food security and other basic needs in Sonoma Valley.

Learn more at:

SonomaCity.org/food-security

Volunteer

Help with food distribution and other volunteer needs in our community.

Learn more at:

SonomaValleyVolunteers.org

Support Local Businesses

Local restaurants and businesses are offering delivery and take-out of food and other essential services.

Learn more at:

SonomaToGo.com