Highlights

Senior Highlights

In this highlight on our lovely seniors, we're excited to introduce Sandy. Fresh from her time at The Cleveland Heights Parks & Rec Department, she's just the person we need. Sandy's been calling Streetsboro home for the last five years and stumbled into our community when she and a friend decided to check out our Line Dance Class. Sandy can't stop talking about how pretty our new Community Building is, and she's thrilled to be back helping folks out. Most days, you'll spot her at the front desk, where she'll be the one answering phones and signing folks up, all while lending a hand with our many fun events. Big cheers to Sandy for joining us – we're super glad to have her on board!

2024 Solar Eclipse Highlights

On an early Monday morning, as Streetsboro hosted the Total Eclipse in the Park, a surprise visit from a group of seniors from the Washington DC area added an unexpected twist. Our own Theresa Summers, the ever-energetic activities coordinator, seized the opportunity to conduct brief interviews with them. Liz, one of the seniors, shared that after considering the weather and what the location had to offer, they chose Streetsboro as their prime spot for eclipse viewing. Liz and her friend Debbie were really taken by the park and our brand-new community building, looking forward to sharing the eclipse experience with our welcoming community. Eric chimed in, reminiscing about their over 30-year friendship and their children growing up together, and how they were all eager to make new memories in Streetsboro.

The eclipse event ended on a high note, with Debbie reaching out to Theresa to express their group's appreciation for the fun-filled day. They were particularly touched by the warm reception and kindness from both the staff and the Streetsboro locals, making them feel right at home. Debbie's message encapsulated their sentiments perfectly: "What a great community!"

Dave and Mary, hailing from Winston-Salem, NC, are having a wonderful time at a nearby spot, loving the neighborhood vibes. The superb weather complements the festival perfectly, making it a delightful spot. They're looking forward to exploring Cleveland after the eclipse.
