CHAPTER 96: RECREATIONAL VEHICLE PARKING, PLACEMENT AND USAGE

Section

96.1	Definition
96.2	Permits Required
96.3	Fees
96.4	Exceptions
96.5	Vehicle Modifications
96.6	Water and sanitary disposal
96.7	Electric or other shared power sources
96.8	Violation/Penalty

§ 96.01 Definition

As used in this chapter, the term "recreational vehicle" means a vacation trailer or other unit with or without motive power which is designed for human occupancy and to be used temporarily for recreational or emergency purposes and has a gross floor space of less than four hundred (400) square feet. The term "recreational vehicle" also includes any self-propelled living quarters.

§ 96.02 Permits Required

- (A) It is unlawful to occupy any recreational vehicle used for sleeping or living purposes on private property within the city for a period of time exceeding fifteen (15) days without first obtaining a permit from the City Manager. It is unlawful to occupy any recreational vehicle used for sleeping or living purposes on public property within the city for any amount of time. For the purposes of this ordinance, public property includes public rights-of-way.
- (B) A permit may be issued by the City Manager to park and use a recreational vehicle for sleeping or living purposes off city streets for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days for purposes of residing in a recreational vehicle on the same premises wherein a dwelling is being constructed and where the applicant has a current building permit for said construction. Prior to issuance of such ninety (90) permit, the applicant shall furnish proof to the City Manager that the recreational vehicle is fully self-contained and presents no health hazard to the community with respect to water, sewer and garbage. Said permit shall be renewable for a period of thirty (30) days.
- (C) A permit may be issued by the City Manager to park and use a recreational vehicle for sleeping or living purposes off city streets for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days for purposes of residing in a recreational vehicle on the same premises when the applicant can provide suitable evidence of hardship necessitating such permit and a definite date when such permit will no longer be necessary.

§ 96.03      Fees

- (A) The fees to be charged by the city for the aforementioned permits shall be established by resolution of the City Council.

§ 96.04      Exceptions

- (A) Recreational vehicles in approved recreational vehicle parks within the city are not affected by the provisions of this chapter.
- (B) The parking of recreational vehicles in the city which are not used for sleeping or living quarters are not regulated by this chapter, but are regulated by the general ordinances of the city regulating vehicular parking when parked on the city streets or alleys.

§ 96.05      Vehicle Modifications

- (A) The removal of the wheels or the placement of a recreational vehicle on posts, footings or permanent or temporary foundation shall not be considered as removing said recreational vehicle from the regulations contained in this chapter.

§ 96.06      Water and Sanitary Disposal

- (A) It is unlawful for any person to connect a recreational vehicle to the septic or water facilities of the city water and sewer system except in accordance with the ordinances of the city.

§ 96.07      Electric or Other Shared Power Sources

- (A) It is unlawful for any person occupying a recreational vehicle within the city for sleeping or living purposes to connect a recreational vehicle to the electrical supply system source of any structure on the property on which the recreational vehicle sits or to the electrical supply system of any other property. The prohibition is not in effect if the said occupied recreational vehicle has been issued a permit under § 96.02.

§ 96.08      Violations / Penalty

- (A) A person violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall:
  - 1. Upon the first conviction thereof, be punishable by a fine not to exceed the sum of one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00);
  - 2. Upon the second or further conviction thereof, be punishable by a fine not to exceed the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00).
- (B) Each day's violation of any provision of this chapter shall constitute a separate offense, punishable as set forth in this section.
- (C) In enforcing the provisions of this chapter, the city may cite the property owner on which the recreational vehicle resides, the occupant of the recreational vehicle, or both.
