GRAND RAPIDS RISE MATCH NOTES

VIBE'S KRYPTONITE

The Atlanta Vibe have beaten every team in the Pro Volleyball Federation except the Rise, who have upended the current League leaders twice – once on the road, 3-1, and once at home, 3-2. Two of the three sets the Rise lost were by the minimum of 25-23. Atlanta is 13-1 in sets decided by two points.

Rise opposite hitter Emiliya Dimitrova had the most kills in a single match against the Vibe this season when she powered down 26 on Feb. 18. Marin Grote's season-high mark of seven blocks also came in that match. The Rise set multiple team records on Feb. 18 that haven't been broken, including kills [72], total attacks [196], and digs [86].

CONSTRUCTING A WALL

Mostly due to injuries, the middle of the front row for the Rise has been a constant revolving door. Grand Rapids has had to utilize every middle blocker on its roster to play in key situations. One of the recent additions to the starting lineup has been Holland, Michigan, native Alyssa Jensen (nee Garvelink). After only playing one set through the first six Rise matches, Jensen has now played significant minutes in five out of the last six contests with Kayla Caffey and Nia Grant both spending time on short-term injured reserve.

Jensen has made her presence known defensively with 15 blocks in those five matches, including four blocks in three straight matches. She has been rotating court time with Grote, who has been the lone consistent starter in the middle for the Rise this year. Grote has registered a block in every match so far and leads the team with 40 rejections. Grand Rapids has had more blocks than its opponent over the last three matches and tied its season high with 15 blocks at Vegas on March 26.

BEWARE OF LATE-MATCH SETS

Jumping out to early set leads has been the standard for the Rise this season, while closing out matches has been a challenge at times. Here is how Grand Rapids has fared across the different sets:

- ⇒ First Set: 9-3 with a +45 point differential (304-259)
- ⇒ Second Set: 7-5 with a +5 differential (285-280)
- ⇒ Third Set: 4-8 with a -3 point differential (289-292)
- ⇒ Fourth Set: 5-6 with a -10 point differential (267-277)
- ⇒ Fifth Set: 1-2 with a -5 point differential (36-41)

The Rise had won their last five opening sets before losing the first set to Omaha on March 28. At the halfway mark of the regular season, Grand Rapids has a +32 point differential (1,181-1,149) and is 26-24 across all sets played.

RISING TO THE OCCASION

Dimitrova is averaging 24.5 points over her last four matches. This includes 28 points (23 kills, four blocks and an ace) against Columbus on March 20, and 27 points (23 kills, two blocks and two aces) in Omaha on March 28. Adding in the 30 points scored at Orlando on March 1 and 29 points against Atlanta on Feb. 18, Dimitrova now holds the top four spots for the most points scored by a Rise player in a single match. She currently leads the League in points (5.16) and kills (4.58) per set this year.

The 17-year veteran continues to shine when Grand Rapids needs her the most. Dimitrova has converted the most Rise set points this season, closing out eight different frames. Claire Chaussee is second on the team with four set-point conversions.

ROAD TRIP RECAP

The Rise completed three road matches in nine days with a tightly contested 3-1 loss at Omaha on Thursday. Grand Rapids went 2-1 during the road stretch and is now 3-4 away from home this season. The Rise have one more segment on their schedule at the end of April with three straight away matches. Grand Rapids will play nine total matches in April, more than any other month, with five of them being on the road at five different venues. Between April 11-20, the Rise will play five matches in 10 days and will alternate between playing at home and on the road during those matches.

BROOM GETTING DUSTY

Since sweeping the Fury in the season opener on Jan. 25, the Rise have only played in four and five set matches. Sweeps have been uncommon for the entire League with only 14 happening in the 46 matches played so far (30.4%). There have been 21 four-set matches (45.7%) and 11 five-set matches (23.9%).

The trend has reversed course recently with four out of the previous five League matches finishing in three sets. Grand Rapids and Omaha are the only two teams that have completed a sweep this season and haven't been swept themselves.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE COUNTER

Through 12 Pro Volleyball Federation matches, the Rise have had 24 double-double performances. Chaussee leads the way with 10, followed by Dimitrova with seven, setter Ashley Evans with five, and outside hitter Symone Abbott with two. Grand Rapids has yet to have a player reach a triple-double, with Dimitrova coming the closest on March 20 with 23 kills, 12 digs, and four blocks at Columbus.

MINI MILESTONES TRACKER

The following achievements were accomplished in Omaha:

- ⇒ Sarah Sponcil: 200 digs this season
- ⇒ Claire Chaussee: 10th double-double
- ⇒ Emiliya Dimitrova: Fifth 20-plus kill match
- ⇒ Ashley Evans: 500 assists and 100 digs this season
- ⇒ Dimitrova, Sponcil and Chaussee: 50 sets played

The Grand Rapids Rise on March 13, 2023 introduced Cathy George as the team's head coach and VP of volleyball operations.

The winningest coach in the history of Michigan State University's volleyball program, George led the Spartans for 17 seasons (2005-21) and totaled 35 years as a collegiate head coach, including 11 seasons (1994-2004) at Western Michigan University. Upon her retirement from MSU in January 2022, her 667 career wins (667-457, .593) ranked 15th among active Division I coaches and third in the Big Ten.

George began her DI coaching career at UT-Arlington in 1989, reaching the Final Four in her first season at the helm and winning three Southland Conference titles (1989, 1990 and 1992) in five years. She was the first female head coach to lead a team to the NCAA Division I Final Four. George got her start as a collegiate head coach at the NCAA DII level at North Dakota State University, serving from 1987-88.
