SETTIN 'EM UP

- Setter Nootsara Tomkom is averaging 10.38 assists per set, the third-best mark in the Pro Volleyball Federation, and is one of only four players averaging double-digits.
- Her 810 total assists are third-most in the league and she has had at least 40 assists in a match 12 times this season.
- She also boasts 250 digs during the 2024 campaign.

LEAGUE HONORS

- Nootsara Tomkom earned PVF Player of the Week honors on April 16, the first Mojo player ever to earn the distinction.
- In Week 12 she finished with 122 assists over three matches, including 49 on two occasions (vs. Columbus, vs. Orlando). She averaged 9.4 assists across 13 sets.
- Willow Johnson was named the Player of the Week on 4/30.
- The opposite hitter averaged 20 points and 17.7 kills in three outings. In her home debut against Omaha, she had 14 kills, 15 digs, three blocks and an ace.
- She recorded another double-double versus Vegas, scoring on 22-of-61 swings (.361) to go along with 13 digs and finished the week with 20 points and 17 kills in a win against Orlando.

TEMI TIME

- Temi Thomas-Ailara is averaging a team-leading 3.65 kills per set, the sixth-best mark in the league
- Thomas-Ailara has scored in double figures in 16 of 21 matches, scoring at least 18 points in nine matches, including seven of the last 14.
- She holds franchise records for points in a match (30 vs. Grand Rapids) and kills in a match (27 vs. Columbus).

DOWN BUT NOT OUT

- After starting the season with three straight road losses, the Mojo have won 10 of their last 18, with a 6-5 mark at home and 3-2 road record during the stretch.
- Five of San Diego's 10 wins have taken the full five sets, with four occurring in four sets and one win in coming by way of the sweep.
- The Mojo were swept in three sets in each of those first three road contests, but have fallen in three sets only four times in the last 18 matches since.

FIVE-SET THRILLERS

- The Mojo played in a league-record six consecutive five-set matches in April, going 4-2 in those matches.
- San Diego has played in nine five-set matches, tied with Orlando (2-7).
- Overall, the Mojo are 5-4 in matches that go the full five sets
- San Diego's five five-set wins are tied with Vegas for the most in the league.
