over two matches while hitting .453. She totaled 34 points for an average of 4.25 points per set.

POSTSEASON PUSH

The Fury are still alive in the race for four place and a spot in the postseason playoff. The last two losses have put Columbus in a position where they need to win out to keep their chance alive.

- ⇒ With two wins over San Diego they could even the season series but the team will also likely need San Diego to lose their match against Orlando while also earning a win over Omaha on May 9.
- ⇒ Reagan Cooper has been a force over the last several matches with three-straight matches hitting .478 or better before a drop off in the match against Omaha on May 4.
- ⇒ During the team's last three-match winning streak, they found consistency and parity with their offense with all of the hitters contributing. Over that stretch, the team won 9 of 11 sets and held opponents to 15 or fewer points in four of their set wins.

STREAK SNAPPED

The Fury finally snapped their six-match losing streak in upset fashion, taking down the first-place Atlanta Vibe on April 19. Columbus dropped the opening set 25-23 before bouncing back to win the next three sets.

- ⇒ Jenaisya Moore stepped into the starting lineup on the road at Vegas and after a solid performance, she made the most of her opportunity starting again against the Vibe. She recorded her first professional double-double with 10 kills and a team-high 15 digs.
- ⇒ Kendall Kipp was electric at home once again as she put down 26 kills, the second-most by a Fury player this season, on an efficient .310 hitting percentage.
- ⇒ The Fury also had their best blocking performance of the year, totaling 15 blocks compared to 11 for the Vibe. It was also the first time Columbus put up double-digit blocks since their win over Atlanta on March 24.

MAKING MOVES

The Fury made one of the biggest transactions of the inaugural Pro Volleyball Federation season, acquiring Tori Stringer from the Atlanta Vibe. Columbus sent their 2025 and 2026 first round picks to Atlanta in exchange for the two-time All-American.

- ⇒ Stringer was an impact player at Louisville and in her time with the Vibe. She had four matches with 35+ assists and a season-high of 47 assists in a four-set loss at Grand Rapids.
- ⇒ Stringer will reunite with head coach Ángel Pérez as she played for him in the Puerto Rican League in 2022, winning a league championship and being named the setter of the year.
- ⇒ Tori will face a familiar foe in her first match with the Fury, going against former Louisville teammate, Claire Chaussee.

The team followed the Stringer transaction with two free agent signings of Bartsch-Hackley and Perović.

- ⇒ Bartsch-Hackley is an Olympic Gold Medalist as a member of the 2020 Olympic team that won the first Olympic gold for the U.S. in women's indoor volleyball. She was named the Best Outside Hitter of the tournament alongside teammate Jordan Larson.
- ⇒ Perović brings over 15 years of international experience with her most recent seasons played in China and Italy. She's won several championships across various leagues with her most decorated season coming in 2018-19 while playing in Hungary.

With the departure of Asjia O'Neal to join the U.S. National Team in preparations for Volleyball Nations League and the 2024 Olympic, the team signed draftee Kendall Kipp who joined the team ahead of their match against San Diego on April 12.

- ⇒ Kipp was a three-time All-American with Stanford and a two-time Pac-12 Player of the Year.
- ⇒ She was part of the 2019 NCAA National Champions at Stanford.
- ⇒ Kipp joined the team after finishing her season in Italy where she played for Il Bisonte Firenze, totaling 147 kills in 12 matches of action.

MID-SEASON SLUMP

After a 4-2 start on the year, the Fury have dropped nine of their last 10 matches, their only win coming at home over Atlanta. The team is currently on a six-match losing skid.

- ⇒ In this stretch the team has seen three new additions to the roster while Asjia O'Neal, Jenna Rosenthal, Ray Santos, and Kaitlyn Hord have all spent time out due to injury or illness.
- ⇒ The team has used six different starting lineups over the eight-match stretch.
- ⇒ In the back-to-back sweeps at the hands of Atlanta and Orlando, the Fury combined for just 10 blocks over the six sets.
- ⇒ The pin hitters have been inconsistent over the stretch with Reagan Cooper putting up three single-digit kill performances, but also going 10-18 in the loss to Atlanta and putting down 17 kills in the loss to Omaha.
- ⇒ Megan Courtney Lush had her best performance of the season with 17 kills of her own in the loss to Omaha.
- ⇒ The team battled it out in five sets at home against San Diego on April 12, but came up short with a few late errors in set five. Kipp debuted in the match with 20 kills and Cooper had a 20-20 match with 22 kills and 23 digs, but it wasn't enough to come away with the win.
- ⇒ The team was without Reagan Cooper in their recent loss on the road at Vegas for another match not at full strength.

ROCKIN' ROOKIES

Columbus has had significant contributions from their rookie class, led by Reagan Cooper. The team also saw great performances from Asjia O'Neal while with the team and have seen a new rookie step up in just her first match, Kendall Kipp.

- ⇒ Kendall Kipp made an immediate impact for the Fury in her debut on April 12. She totaled 20 kills and had a team-high 63 attempts in the match. She also added two blocks on the night.
- ⇒ Cooper has led the team in points and kills in each of the first three contests. She scored 24 points in the team's win over Omaha, the most of any Fury player this season.
- ⇒ O'Neal saw her first action against Orlando and had to knock off a bit of rust on her way to seven points. The rust was gone by the team's home opener where she scored 19 points behind 15 kills and four blocks.
- ⇒ Cooper continues to dominate, especially over the team's four-match win streak. She has now tallied three double-doubles including a 29-kill, 16 dig performance at Orlando. Her 29 kill performance is tied for the most by any player in the league this season (Khat Bell, Vegas).
- ⇒ Both Cooper and O'Neal have earned Player of the Week honors from the league. Cooper after a monster three-match stretch on 2/27 and O'Neal on 3/26 after putting up 30 kills in two matches in her return to the court from injury.
- ⇒ Kipp struggled a bit on the road in Vegas but bounced back to put together a monster performance on the way to an upset win over Atlanta. She totaled 26 kills at a 31% clip while adding 11 digs for her first double-double with the Fury.

ONCE UPON A TIME...

The Fury played their home opener on January 25 and had a 22 day break before getting back in action. They have had the last three weeks to prepare for match number two. The team had a couple of solid performances in their opener despite dropping the match in straight sets to Grand Rapids.

- ⇒ Kaitlyn Hord notched eight kills on an impressive .429 percentage for the match. Her percentage was a match-high for all players with at least 10 attack attempts.
- ⇒ Rookie Reagan Cooper led the team with nine kills in her professional debut.
- ⇒ Ray Santos dished out 20 assists and spread the ball around with five hitters totaling 10-plus attempts.
- ⇒ Valeria León had a team-high 13 digs.

BIG TEN COUNTRY

Columbus lies in the heart of Big Ten country and is home to the Ohio State Buckeyes. The team roster features eight players who spent at least one season at a Big Ten school.

- ⇒ León and Moore are Buckeyes with León ending her Buckeye career as the program's all-time leader in digs and digs per set.
- ⇒ Rainelle Jones spent her collegiate career at Maryland where she led the country in blocks per set (1.71) in 2021.
- ⇒ The roster also features two Penn State alum, Kaitlyn Hord and Courtney Lush. Courtney Lush won two national titles with the Nittany Lions, while Hord garnered three All-American nods while there.
- ⇒ Hord also spent one season at Nebraska, where she led the NCAA in blocks per set (1.63) in 2022.
- ⇒ Before a four-year career at Washington, Samantha Drechsel spent her freshman season at Maryland.
