SERIES NOTES: This is the 5th meeting all-time between the Orlando Valkyries and the San Diego Mojo. It will be the first of four contests between the two squads during this season.

WHERE TO WATCH

Today's match will be the first of two that will be nationally broadcast for the Valkyries on FS2 this season. Today's announcer team includes: Paul Sunderland (Play-by-Play) and Holly McPeak (Color Analyst).

WELCOME TO PROFESSIONAL VOLLEYBALL

The Orlando Valkyries are one of eight teams taking the court this season of Pro Volleyball Federation. Below are a few facts about Orlando and Pro Volleyball Federation.

- Orlando is home to the AAU Junior National Volleyball Championships.
- The Valkyries are the fourth professional team to be based out of Orlando (Orlando Magic, Orlando City Soccer, Orlando Pride)
- Pro Volleyball Federation head coaches have combined for more than 2,500 career victories.
- Orlando was selected to finish second in the Preseason polling, with 41 total points.

TEAM CONNECTIONS

This marks the first time the Valkyries and Mojo have played on the court this season, but there are several connections with the teams.

- Lindsey Vander Weide spent last season with the Mojo
- Valkyries libero Georgia Murphy and setter Hannah Pukis played together at the University of Oregon. Oregon's assistant coach during that time, Tayyiba Haneef-Park, is the head coach of the San Diego Mojo.
- Valkyries middle-blocker Natalie Foster and Mojo outside hitter Maya Tabron were teammates at Southern Methodist University, during the 2024 campaign

EXTENSIVE AND EXPANDED NATIONAL BROADCAST SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

With the highly anticipated second season about to begin, Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) has announced the extensive schedule of nationally broadcast matches airing on CBS and FOX Sports outlets.

The action begins with on January 9, when the San Diego Mojo takes on the Orlando Valkyries in the season-opener, airing on FS2. During the first 11 days of the regular season, fans can see head-to-head action in four nationally broadcast matches, showcasing seven of PVF's eight teams.

PVF TELEVISION COVERAGE EXPANDS TO FS1, FS2

Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) has announced its latest television agreement with FS1 and FS2, expanding its television coverage with 12 additional nationally televised matches in 2025.

The deal includes four matches airing on FS1 and eight on FS2, bringing PVF's total national television footprint to over 24 matches across multiple premier linear and over-the-air networks - the most extensive television coverage in professional volleyball. The new agreement supports PVF's mission to enhance exposure for professional volleyball through increased national coverage, which is coming at a pivotal time as the sport continues to experience dramatic growth in popularity.

PVF MAKES HISTORY WITH INAUGURAL ALL-STAR MATCH TO AIR NATIONALLY ON CBS

Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF), the leading professional volleyball league in the United States, has announced its inaugural All-Star Match, set to take place on Saturday, February 22, 2025 at Fishers Event Center. The event will showcase the league's top talent and give fans a unique opportunity to witness the best in professional volleyball.

In a historic first for professional volleyball, CBS Television Network will air the match on its national broadcast outlet. This landmark moment underscores PVF's commitment to elevating the sport and bringing professional women's volleyball to a broader audience.

SPALDING CONTINUES AS OFFICIAL NET EQUIPMENT SUPPLIER

Spalding, a leader in sports equipment innovation, and Pro Volleyball Federation, North America's premier women's professional volleyball league, have announced the extension of their partnership, with Spalding continuing as the league's Official Volleyball Net Equipment Supplier through the next four years into 2027.

Building on the league's successful inaugural season, where Pro Volleyball Federation teams played before nearly 400,000 fans and achieved significant social media growth, Spalding remains committed to enhancing the player and fan experience with its industry-leading Freestanding Volleyball Systems. Since joining forces in 2024, Spalding has supplied the league with its innovative Freestanding Volleyball Systems, which eliminate the need for permanent installations, offering unmatched flexibility and ease of use. This cutting-edge equipment has played an integral role in providing a seamless on-court experience throughout the league's first year.

MATCH PREVIEW

MATCH ONE PREVIEW – VALKYRIES VS MOJO

The Orlando Valkyries will kick off the second season of Pro Volleyball Federation, as they take on the San Diego Mojo on Thursday, January 9 at 7 p.m. The match will take place at Addition Financial Arena and will be nationally broadcast on FS2. Tickets for the game are still available, and fans can visit the Orlando Valkyries website for additional information.

Last season, these two teams met four times, with San Diego winning three out of four matches. All four matches went on in five sets. Orlando is coming off an 8-16 record, while San Diego finished with a 13-12 record in 2024.

Valkyries Players to Watch:

Brittany Abercrombie joins the Valkyries with seven years of professional experience, making stops in Poland, Germany, Puerto Rico, Turkey and South Korea. Throughout her professional career, she was crowned champion of Athletes Unlimited Pro Volleyball league in 2024, as well as a member of the Puerto Rican National Team from 2021-23. At the University of Southern California, she earned two-time All-Pac-12, two-time AVCA All-Pacific South Region, and named an AVCA All-American in 2017.

Kaz Brown returns for her second season in Orlando, looking to build on a strong performance from 2024, where she was named Middle Blocker of the Year and awarded a spot on the All-League second team. Throughout her 2024 campaign, Brown finished second in the league with 68 blocks and second in hitting percentage at .333. Prior to Orlando, she played five years of professional volleyball in Germany, Ukraine, France, and Greece. Before her professional career, Brown played at the University of Kentucky where she holds the career record for total blocks, solo blocks, and block assists. She also earned three-time All-SEC and Three-time AVCA All-Region honors.

Pornpun Guedpard signed with Orlando this offseason, bringing nine years of professional experience. A veteran Setter from Nakhon Phanom, Thailand, Guedpard has made stops in Thailand, Indonesia, Japan, Romania, and South Korea. She is the captain of the Thailand National Team and ranked as high as the world's top setter in the Volleyball Nations League (VNL) in 2022.

MATCH PREVIEW

MATCH ONE PREVIEW – VALKYRIES VS MOJO

Mojo Players to Watch:

Ronika Stone enters her second year with San Diego looking to continue to dominate as one of the top Middle Blockers in the league. Stone led the league with a .336 hitting percentage and tied for eighth in service aces with 13. She led the Mojo with 96 sets played in 2024 and was named to the All-League second team. Prior to her time in San Diego, she has played professionally in Puerto Rico and France. Stone played at the University of Oregon, where she was a three-time All-Pac-12 first team recipient and is one of two players in University of Oregon history to rank into the top ten for blocks and points.

Shara Venegas is a key piece returning for San Diego, as she had a strong 2024 campaign as a libero, where she recorded 345 digs, ranking fourth in the league. Venegas comes with more than 12 years of professional experience playing in Puerto Rico, where she became a seven-time champion. She was also part of the Puerto Rico Olympic team in 2016 in Rio.

Rainelle Jones comes back to San Diego after registering 85 kills, 35 blocks and 28 digs in 69 sets in 2024. Jones played professionally in the Italian Serie A1 league in 2022. She played collegiately at the University of Maryland, where she led the NCAA in blocks per set in 2021 (1.73) and 2022 (1.59). She finished her collegiate career ranking third all-time in Big Ten history in block assists and fifth in total blocks.

HEAD COACH AMY PAULY

Amy Pauly is recognized as one of the top up-and-coming coaches in college volleyball and is now the first head coach of the Orlando Pro Volleyball Federation team. Formerly the associate head coach for USC's women's volleyball program, Pauly brings her exceptional recruiting and talent identification skills to Orlando, where she also serves as the Vice President of Volleyball Operations.

Pauly's coaching extends beyond her USC tenure, where she played a crucial role in securing the nation's top-rated recruiting class in 2022. Her national acclaim includes being listed on VolleyballMag.com's 2020 Under 40 Coaching Hotshots and the 2016 American Volleyball Coaches Association 30 Under 30 list. With previous coaching experiences at the University of Alabama-Birmingham and Villanova, Pauly's impressive career began as a graduate assistant at South Carolina in 2010, following a successful playing career at Alabama.
