News, Notes & Numbers

- ⇒ The second PVF season gets underway on Thursday, when the San Diego Mojo travel to face the Orlando Valkyries. It will be the first of 12 Pro Volleyball Federation matches on FS1 and FS2 this season.
- ⇒ PVF will welcome its eighth franchise when the Indy Ignite debut on January 11 at home against the Orlando Valkyries at Fisher Events Center. The match is already a sellout.
- ⇒ In addition to the United States, 10 different countries are represented on PVF opening night rosters - Puerto Rico (4 players), Germany (3), Argentina (1), Canada (1), Colombia (1), Croatia (1), Jamaica (1), Serbia (1), South Korea (1) and Thailand (1).
- ⇒ The Atlanta Vibe, led by 2024 PVF MVP Leah Edmond, visits the Omaha Supernovas on Friday in a matchup of the league's top two finishers from a year ago.
- ⇒ Pro Volleyball Federation will play 28 regular season matches this season - with each team facing all other league opponents four times. PVF is the lone professional league in the United States playing a full round-robin schedule.
- ⇒ Nearly 400,000 fans attended Pro Volleyball Federation matches during the inaugural 2024 campaign.

PVF Media Rights Expands for 2025

Pro Volleyball Federation has announced three extensive broadcast agreements in time for the 2025 season.

The league will showcase 12 matches on CBS Sports Network during the regular season. In addition, for the first time in U.S. history, professional women's volleyball will be showcased on the CBS broadcast network when the 2025 PVF All-Star Match airs on network television on February 22.

Two FOX Sports networks - FS1 and FS2 - will carry an additional 12 matches for the first time. In addition, Roku will broadcast 20 more matches during the 2025 campaign. The total of 45 matches for this season increases the league's national television coverage by 350 percent overall from the inaugural season.

Vibe Lead Preseason PVF Poll

The Atlanta Vibe, who posted the best regular season record a year ago, has been tabbed to top the standings again as the second season of Pro Volleyball Federation begins on Jan. 9.

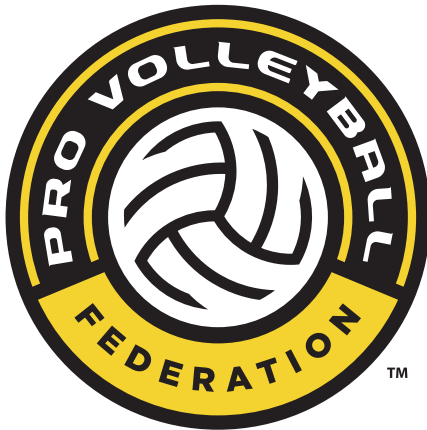

PVF, which has the largest network of franchises in the United States and the most extensive broadcast coverage, saw four teams earn first-place votes. The Vibe had four, followed by the Orlando Valkyries with two and the Omaha Supernovas and Indy Ignite with one apiece.

A total of just seven points separated the top three spots in the voting, reinforcing the competitive balance that is expected as the talented PVF players take the court for the second season.

The Grand Rapids Rise, who advanced to the championship title match last year, were just one point behind Indy to place fifth. The Vegas Thrill were two points behind Indy and selected for sixth, while the San Diego Mojo and Columbus Fury rounded out the poll.

PVF Preseason Selected Order of Finish

Rk.	Team [1st votes]	Points
1.	Atlanta Vibe [4]	43
2.	Orlando Valkyries [2]	41
3.	Omaha Supernovas [1]	36
4.	Indy Ignite [1]	27
5.	Grand Rapids Rise	26
6.	Vegas Thrill	25
7.	San Diego Mojo	14
8.	Columbus Fury	12

Hentz Tops Preseason All-PVF

The second Pro Volleyball Federation Preseason All-League Team was announced Jan. 6, with seven players recognized.

The Atlanta Vibe had two players selected – Leah Edmond and Morgan Hentz. Edmond is the reigning Pro Volleyball Federation MVP after leading the league with 438 points a year ago.

Edmond and Hentz were on the PVF All-League First Team in 2024 as was Omaha's Brooke Nuneviller, who is also a preseason honoree this year. Supernova teammate Reagan Cooper earned preseason accolades after moving to Omaha from the Columbus Fury.

The Valkyries also had a duo selected, as Orlando saw Brittany Abercrombie and Kaz Brown included. San Diego's Ronika Stone rounded out the preseason squad.

PVF Makes History with Inaugural All-Star Match to Air Nationally on CBS

Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF), the leading professional volleyball league in the United States, has announced its inaugural All-Star Match, set to take place on Saturday, February 22, 2025 at Fishers Event Center. The event will showcase the league's top talent and give fans a unique opportunity to witness the best in professional volleyball.

In a historic first for professional volleyball, CBS Television Network will air the match on its national broadcast outlet. This landmark moment underscores PVF's commitment to elevating the sport and bringing professional women's volleyball to a broader audience.

"The All-Star Match will be a defining moment for our league and the sport of volleyball, showcasing the extraordinary talent of the PVF athletes and representing an incredible step forward in increasing visibility for the sport," boasted Jen Spicher, CEO of PVF. "Partnering with CBS to bring the All-Star Match to a national audience underscores our commitment to growing visibility for our athletes and providing unparalleled access to volleyball fans everywhere. We are also beyond excited to partner with CBS Sports on this incredible opportunity and thank them for their unwavering support in helping us continue to raise the profile for professional volleyball."

The match will take place at 1:30 pm ET at Fishers Event Center, home of the league's newest franchise, the Indy Ignite. The All-Star Match will include players from all league teams. The selection process, coaches, and format will be announced soon. Ticket information will also be available in the coming weeks.
