SERIES NOTES: This is the sixth meeting all-time between the Orlando Valkyries and the San Diego Mojo, with San Diego leading 3-2.

WHERE TO WATCH

Today's match will be streamed live on YouTube, on Pro Volleyball Federation YouTube channel.

WELCOME TO PROFESSIONAL VOLLEYBALL

The Orlando Valkyries are one of eight teams taking the court this season of Pro Volleyball Federation. Below are a few facts about Orlando and Pro Volleyball Federation.

- Orlando is home to the AAU Junior National Volleyball Championships.
- The Valkyries are the fourth professional team to be based out of Orlando (Orlando Magic, Orlando City Soccer, Orlando Pride)
- Pro Volleyball Federation head coaches have combined for more than 2,500 career victories.
- Orlando was selected to finish second in the Preseason polling, with 41 total points.

TEAM CONNECTIONS

This marks the second time the Valkyries and Mojo have played on the court this season, but there are several connections with the teams.

- Lindsey Vander Weide spent last season with the Mojo
- Valkyries libero Georgia Murphy and setter Hannah Pukis played together at the University of Oregon. Oregon's assistant coach during that time, Tayyiba Haneef-Park, is the head coach of the San Diego Mojo.
- Valkyries middle blocker Natalie Foster and Mojo outside hitter Maya Tabron were teammates at Southern Methodist University during the 2024 campaign.

EXTENSIVE AND EXPANDED NATIONAL BROADCAST SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

With the highly anticipated second season about to begin, Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) has announced the extensive schedule of nationally broadcast matches airing on CBS and FOX Sports outlets.

The action begins with on January 9, when the San Diego Mojo takes on the Orlando Valkyries in the season-opener, airing on FS2. During the first 11 days of the regular season, fans can see head-to-head action in four nationally broadcast matches, showcasing seven of PVF's eight teams.

PVF TELEVISION COVERAGE EXPANDS TO FS1, FS2

Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) has announced its latest television agreement with FS1 and FS2, expanding its television coverage with 12 additional nationally televised matches in 2025.

The deal includes four matches airing on FS1 and eight on FS2, bringing PVF's total national television footprint to over 24 matches across multiple premier linear and over-the-air networks - the most extensive television coverage in professional volleyball. The new agreement supports PVF's mission to enhance exposure for professional volleyball through increased national coverage, which is coming at a pivotal time as the sport continues to experience dramatic growth in popularity.

PVF MAKES HISTORY WITH INAUGURAL ALL-STAR MATCH TO AIR NATIONALLY ON CBS

Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF), the leading professional volleyball league in the United States, has announced its inaugural All-Star Match, set to take place on Saturday, February 22, 2025 at Fishers Event Center. The event will showcase the league's top talent and give fans a unique opportunity to witness the best in professional volleyball.

In a historic first for professional volleyball, CBS Television Network will air the match on its national broadcast outlet. This landmark moment underscores PVF's commitment to elevating the sport and bringing professional women's volleyball to a broader audience.

SPALDING CONTINUES AS OFFICIAL NET EQUIPMENT SUPPLIER

Spalding, a leader in sports equipment innovation, and Pro Volleyball Federation, North America's premier women's professional volleyball league, have announced the extension of their partnership, with Spalding continuing as the league's Official Volleyball Net Equipment Supplier through the next four years into 2027.

Building on the league's successful inaugural season, where Pro Volleyball Federation teams played before nearly 400,000 fans and achieved significant social media growth, Spalding remains committed to enhancing the player and fan experience with its industry-leading Freestanding Volleyball Systems. Since joining forces in 2024, Spalding has supplied the league with its innovative Freestanding Volleyball Systems, which eliminate the need for permanent installations, offering unmatched flexibility and ease of use. This cutting-edge equipment has played an integral role in providing a seamless on-court experience throughout the league's first year.

MATCH PREVIEW

MATCH THREE PREVIEW – VALKYRIES AT MOJO

Looking to avenge their first loss of the season, the Orlando Valkyries [1-1] will take on the San Diego Mojo [1-1] on Thursday, January 16 at 10:05 p.m. ET. The match will take place at Viejas Arena in San Diego, CA, and will be live streamed on YouTube.

This will be the second showdown between the Valkyries and Mojo this season. In their first matchup, Orlando defeated San Diego in their home opener, securing a sweep with set scores of 25-18, 25-18, 25-22. Now, the action shifts to San Diego's home court, where the Mojo will look to replicate the Valkyries' success and even the season series.

Valkyries Players to Watch:

Adora Anae - In their first meeting this season, Anae led the Valkyries with 14 kills, including a stellar .433 hitting percentage and recorded nine digs, just one shy of a double-double. She'll aim to build on that strong performance this Thursday.

Kaz Brown - Brown delivered an impressive performance against the Mojo this season, tallying nine kills on 19 attacks, achieving a .421 hitting percentage, along with one block. As the Mojo head into this matchup, riding the momentum of a 3-1 road win over Columbus, Brown will look to play a pivotal role in disrupting their attack.

Mojo Players to Watch:

Kendra Dahlke – After limited action against the Valkyries, Dahlke made a strong comeback on January 11 against Columbus, recording a double-double, with 17 kills and 17 digs. A dynamic outside hitter from the University of Arizona, Dahlke provides a jolt of energy for the Mojo, who struggled offensively in Orlando, posting a team hitting percentage of .175.

Ronika Stone – In her first two matches this season, the Preseason All-League honoree has already contributed with nine kills and four blocks. Last season, she led the league in hitting percentage (.336) and ranked ninth in blocks per set (.53), solidifying her presence and earning a spot on the All-League Second Team.

HEAD COACH AMY PAULY

Amy Pauly is recognized as one of the top up-and-coming coaches in college volleyball and is now the first head coach of the Orlando Pro Volleyball Federation team. Formerly the associate head coach for USC's women's volleyball program, Pauly brings her exceptional recruiting and talent identification skills to Orlando, where she also serves as the Vice President of Volleyball Operations.

Pauly's coaching extends beyond her USC tenure, where she played a crucial role in securing the nation's top-rated recruiting class in 2022. Her national acclaim includes being listed on VolleyballMag.com's 2020 Under 40 Coaching Hotshots and the 2016 American Volleyball Coaches Association 30 Under 30 list. With previous coaching experiences at the University of Alabama-Birmingham and Villanova, Pauly's impressive career began as a graduate assistant at South Carolina in 2010, following a successful playing career at Alabama.

VALKYRIES TAKE DOWN MOJO IN THREE

In their home opener, the Orlando Valkyries [1-0] swept San Diego Mojo [0-1] at Addition Financial Arena on Thursday night. Orlando charged ahead early and carried their momentum to the end of the match.

Adora Anae led both teams with 14 kills, as well as registering two blocks and nine digs in the contest.

Set 1

San Diego opened the match with the first kill by Regan Pittman. It was a back-and-forth affair between both squads until the Valkyries took their first lead of the match (9-8) with an impressive push to the back right corner by Kaz Brown. The Mojo continued to match the Valkyries aggressiveness, as the score was knotted up at 14 apiece. The Valkyries would pull ahead 19-15, with a 5-1 run. Orlando would go on to dominate the set, winning 25-18 off an Adora Anae kill. Brittany Abercrombie and Kaz Brown each tallied four kills in set one.

Set 2

The Valkyries started set two right where they left off, with Courtney Schwan getting the scoring going. As the two teams went back-and-forth most of set two, Orlando would continue to press on the gas pedal, as their lead grew to 18-12. San Diego, looking to create a spark on offense, just couldn't get anything going, as the final of set two repeated set one, with Orlando winning 25-18. Adora Anae led the charge with seven kills in set two.

Set 3

San Diego took advantage of an Orlando service error, jumping out to an early 4-1 lead. The Mojo showed signs of toughness and grit, eagerly determined to claw their way back in the match. However, after taking a 10-9 lead in the third set, Orlando answered quickly, jumping ahead and never looking back as they take match one against the San Diego Mojo 3-0.

Orlando Valkyries vs Indy Ignite

Saturday, Jan 11 at 7:00 PM ET
Fishers Event Center | Fishers, IN

Orlando	25	19	17	21	1
Indy	13	25	25	25	3

VALKYRIES SUFFER FIRST LOSS TO IGNITE

The Orlando Valkyries [1-1] were unable to spoil Indy Ignite's [1-0] home opener, falling 3-1 by set scores of 25-13, 19-25, 17-25, 21-25.

Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with 18 total points, registering 17 kills, one block and nine digs in the contest.

Set 1

Orlando set the tone early in the match, sparked by a powerful kill from Brittany Abercrombie to open the scoring. Indy initially matched the Valkyries' intensity, trading points and even grabbing a brief lead (5-4). However, Orlando soon found their rhythm, embarking on an impressive 17-8 run fueled by exceptional defense that forced the Ignite into committing seven errors. Brittany Abercrombie, who sparked the Valkyries' momentum, continued her dominance with five kills in the set, sealing a 25-13 victory for Orlando in the opener.

Set 2

Building on their strong start in the first set, Brittany Abercrombie once again sparked the Valkyries' offense, helping them race to an early 6-2 lead. However, after a slow start, Indy began to find their rhythm. Led by a dominant stretch from Leketor Member-Meneh, who delivered eight kills, the Ignite seized their first lead of the set at 16-14. Indy maintained their momentum through the remainder of the set, outpacing the Valkyries and closing it out with a 25-19 victory, as Orlando wasn't able to match the Ignite's response. Leketor Member-Meneh led all attackers in set two with eight kills on a .727 hitting percentage.

Set 3

Nina Cajic got set three underway for the Ignite, helping them establish an early 3-1 lead. Both teams battled fiercely in a back-and-forth exchange, with Indy leading 13-10. The Ignite would start to pull away, extending the score to as much as 20-13, fueled by strong defensive play and a key block from Leketor Member-Meneh that limited Orlando's attack to a .095 hitting percentage. Maintaining their momentum, Indy closed out the set decisively with a 25-17 victory. Azhani Tealer recorded nine kills in set three.

Set 4

Facing a 2-1 deficit, Orlando needed to neutralize Indy's outside attack to stay in the match. The Valkyries started set four strong, with Brittany Abercrombie and Courtney Schwan combining for two pivotal blocks. However, Indy answered with a surge of their own, building a 9-4 lead. With their backs against the wall, Orlando regrouped and rallied with a 7-3 run, narrowing the gap to 12-11. Despite the effort, it wasn't enough, as Indy held firm to secure a 25-21 win in set four, and handing Orlando their first loss of the season.
