CATHY GEORGE

RISE HEAD COACH & VP OF VOLLEYBALL OPERATIONS

On March 13, 2023, the Grand Rapids Rise announced Cathy George as the team's head coach and director of volleyball operations. Six months later, she transitioned to the role of VP of volleyball operations. In her 36th season as a head coach, George guided the Rise to the Pro Volleyball Federation championship match in the franchise's inaugural 2024 season.

The winningest coach in the history of Michigan State's volleyball program, George led the Spartans for 17 seasons (2005-21). Upon her retirement from MSU in January 2022, her 667 career wins ranked 15th among active Division I coaches and third in the Big Ten. George totaled 35 years as a collegiate head coach altogether, including 11 seasons (1994-2004) at Western Michigan where she won the regular season and postseason MAC titles in 2000.

George began her DI coaching career at UT-Arlington in 1989, reaching the Final Four in her first season at the helm and claiming three Southland Conference titles (1989, 1990, 1992) in five years. She was the first female head coach to lead a team to the NCAA Division I Final Four. George started as a collegiate head coach at North Dakota State, serving two seasons from 1987-88. The Bison went 87-11 and reached the 1988 NCAA Division II semifinals.
