MATCH PREVIEW

MATCH SEVEN PREVIEW – VALKYRIES VS SUPERNOVAS

After dropping their third straight to Grand Rapids, Orlando [2-4] returns home to Addition Financial Arena, looking to get back on track against the defending champion Omaha Supernovas [3-2] on Sunday, February 2, at 3:00 p.m. ET. Fans can catch the action streamed live on Pro Volleyball Federation's YouTube channel.

Battle of Efficiency: One of the more interesting matchups in this will be how Orlando's aggressive attack will play against Omaha, who ranks second in the league in opponent efficiency at 19%. With also being top half in the league in blocks per set (2.25) and digs per set (17.20), Omaha's stout defense will be up for a tall task trying to slow down Orlando, who ranks in the top three in numerous categories such as service aces, hitting percentage, points, kills, and kill percentage.

This will be the first meeting between Orlando and Omaha this season, with Omaha leading the all-time series 4-0.

Valkyries Players to Watch:

Natalie Foster (Middle Blocker): The former second round pick continues to shine as one of the best rookies in the league, already ranking second in the league in hitting efficiency (40.3%) and second in service aces with 10. She racked up a new career high with 12 kills as well as five blocks, four digs and a service ace against Grand Rapids.

Courtney Schwan (Outside): Schwan matched her career high of 11 kills Thursday night, providing an offensive spark and playing a pivotal role in helping the Valkyries take set one and three against Grand Rapids. Coming off a match where she finished with a 31% hitting efficiency against the best blocking team in the league, she'll have to have a similar mindset versus another strong defensive team in Omaha.

Supernovas Players to Watch:

Kaitlyn Hord (Middle Blocker): The top blocker in the Pro Volleyball Federation this season, Hord comes into this contest with a big opportunity to add on to her impressive season. Averaging .95 blocks a set and 3.8 per match, Hord will look to have similar success to that of Grand Rapids, who tallied a season-high 18 blocks versus Orlando on Thursday night.

Brooke Nuneviller (Outside Hitter): Nuneviller, Omaha's go-to option, has already racked up 84 kills in 20 sets of play this season. After being awarded PVF All-League First Team in 2024 and named to the Preseason All-League Team, Nuneviller continues to provide a great two-way presence for Omaha, both offensively and defensively, where she averages a double-double (16.8 kills and 14.8 digs) on the year.

San Diego opened the match with the first kill by Regan Pittman. It was a back-and-forth affair between both squads until the Valkyries took their first lead of the match [9-8] with an impressive push to the back right corner by Kaz Brown. The Mojo continued to match the Valkyries aggressiveness, as the score was knotted up at 14 apiece. The Valkyries would pull ahead 19-15, with a 5-1 run. Orlando would go on to dominate the set, winning 25-18 off an Adora Anae kill. Brittany Abercrombie and Kaz Brown each tallied four kills in set one.

Set 2

The Valkyries started set two right where they left off, with Courtney Schwan getting the scoring going. As the two teams went back-and-forth most of set two, Orlando would continue to press on the gas pedal, as their lead grew to 18-12. San Diego, looking to create a spark on offense, just couldn't get anything going, as the final of set two repeated set one, with Orlando winning 25-18. Adora Anae led the charge with seven kills in set two.

Set 3

San Diego took advantage of an Orlando service error, jumping out to an early 4-1 lead. The Mojo showed signs of toughness and grit, eagerly determined to claw their way back in the match. However, after taking a 10-9 lead in the third set, Orlando answered quickly, jumping ahead and never looking back as they take match one against the San Diego Mojo 3-0.

Orlando Valkyries vs Indy Ignite

Saturday, Jan 11 at 7:00 PM ET
Fishers Event Center | Fishers, IN

Orlando	25	19	17	21	1
Indy	13	25	25	25	3

VALKYRIES SUFFER FIRST LOSS TO IGNITE

The Orlando Valkyries [1-1] were unable to spoil Indy Ignite’s [1-0] home opener, falling 3-1 by set scores of 25-13, 19-25, 17-25, 21-25.

Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with 18 total points, registering 17 kills, one block and nine digs in the contest.

Set 1

Orlando set the tone early in the match, sparked by a powerful kill from Brittany Abercrombie to open the scoring. Indy initially matched the Valkyries’ intensity, trading points and even grabbing a brief lead (5-4). However, Orlando soon found their rhythm, embarking on an impressive 17-8 run fueled by exceptional defense that forced the Ignite into committing seven errors. Brittany Abercrombie, who sparked the Valkyries’ momentum, continued her dominance with five kills in the set, sealing a 25-13 victory for Orlando in the opener.

Set 2

Building on their strong start in the first set, Brittany Abercrombie once again sparked the Valkyries’ offense, helping them race to an early 6-2 lead. However, after a slow start, Indy began to find their rhythm. Led by a dominant stretch from Lektor Member-Meneh, who delivered eight kills, the Ignite seized their first lead of the set at 16-14. Indy maintained their momentum through the remainder of the set, outpacing the Valkyries and closing it out with a 25-19 victory, as Orlando wasn’t able to match the Ignite’s response. Lektor Member-Meneh led all attackers in set two with eight kills on a .727 hitting percentage.

Set 3

Nina Cajic got set three underway for the Ignite, helping them establish an early 3-1 lead. Both teams battled fiercely in a back-and-forth exchange, with Indy leading 13-10. The Ignite would start to pull away, extending the score to as much as 20-13, fueled by strong defensive play and a key block from Lektor Member-Meneh that limited Orlando’s attack to a .095 hitting percentage. Maintaining their momentum, Indy closed out the set decisively with a 25-17 victory. Azhani Tealer recorded nine kills in set three.

Set 4

Facing a 2-1 deficit, Orlando needed to neutralize Indy’s outside attack to stay in the match. The Valkyries started set four strong, with Brittany Abercrombie and Courtney Schwan combining for two pivotal blocks. However, Indy answered with a surge of their own, building a 9-4 lead. With their backs against the wall, Orlando regrouped and rallied with a 7-3 run, narrowing the gap to 12-11. Despite the effort, it wasn’t enough, as Indy held firm to secure a 25-21 win in set four, and handing Orlando their first loss of the season.

MATCH THREE

Orlando Valkyries at San Diego Mojo

Thursday, Jan 16 at 10:05 PM ET
 Viejas Arena | San Diego, CA

Orlando	25	20	25	25	3
San Diego	23	25	17	15	1

VALKYRIES DEFEAT MOJO IN FOUR

The Orlando Valkyries [2-1] secured their first road win of the season over the San Diego Mojo [1-2] winning 3-1 by set scores of 25-23, 20-25, 25-17, 25-15.

Adora Anae led the Valkyries with 27 kills, setting a new career high. She also had 10 digs and one block, securing her first double-double of the season

Set 1

Adora Anae set the tone early for Orlando, getting the scoring started and taking an early charge with a 8-5 lead. San Diego, looking to even up the season series vs. Orlando, focused their offense on Kendra Dahlke, who missed most of the first matchup. Dahlke would provide a big spark by scoring five of the Mojo’s first nine points. Despite San Diego’s efforts, Orlando maintained control throughout the first set, never giving up the lead. The Valkyries sealed the set with a 25-23 victory, fueled by standout performances from Courtney Schwan and Adora Anae, who each contributed four kills.

Set 2

Much like in the opening set, Adora Anae provided the spark for the Valkyries as they aimed to make it five consecutive set wins to start the year against San Diego. However, the Mojo were ready for the challenge and responded pulling ahead with a 12-9 lead, after a back-and-forth affair. Despite Orlando’s efforts to keep pace, costly errors in the serving game—seven service errors alone in set two—began to take their toll. This opened the door for San Diego to seize momentum with a decisive 5-0 run, ultimately clinching the set 25-20. Maya Tabron shined for the Mojo in set two, leading her team with five kills.

Set 3

The Valkyries aimed to bounce back in set three, while the Mojo looked to build on the momentum they had gained at the end of set two. After being limited to just one kill in the previous set, Brittany Abercrombie came out firing, delivering the first two Valkyries kills and igniting a spark that powered her team to a 15-10 lead. Abercrombie’s impact extended beyond her attacks—her dominance at the net, along with Natalie Foster’s strong blocking, stifled San Diego’s attempts to close the gap. The Valkyries sealed the set with a 10-7 run, capped off by a big block from Natalie Foster. Abercrombie finished the set as the team leader in kills with seven, boasting a stellar .462 hitting percentage

Set 4

Trailing 2-1 in the match, San Diego faced a tough situation as they fought to force a decisive fifth set in front of their home crowd. They came out strong, jumping to an early 3-1 lead. However, Orlando remained relentless, refusing to let the match get to five sets. The Valkyries surged ahead, climbing to an impressive 18-10 lead and maintained their momentum to close out the match with a commanding 3-1 victory over the San Diego Mojo. Adora Anae led the charge for Orlando, recording seven kills in the final set.

Orlando Valkyries at Vegas Thrill

Sunday, Jan 19 at 8:00 PM ET
Lee's Family Forum | Henderson, NV

Orlando	25	23	25	21	12	2
Vegas	22	25	14	25	15	3

VALKYRIES FALL TO THRILL IN FIVE

The Orlando Valkyries [2-2] fall to the Vegas Thrill [3-1] in five sets, with set scores of 25-22, 23-25, 25-14, 21-25, 12-15.

Brittany Abercrombie had a career night, leading the Valkyries with 33 total points, recording 30 kills, two blocks and eleven digs in the contest

Set 1

After completing a reverse sweep against Omaha at home, Vegas hit the ground running off a back-row attack from Hannah Maddux that helped them jump to an early 6-2 lead. However, Orlando wasted no time responding as Kaz Brown and Hannah Pukis delivered defensively, each of them recording a block during a 4-0 run, tying the score at 6-6. Vegas regained momentum and built a four-point lead at 13-9, but Orlando refused to back down. They clawed their way back into the set eventually taking their first lead 23-22. Orlando would finish on a 10-3 run, winning 25-22. Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with seven kills in set one.

Set 2

After being held to just one kill in the first set, the Valkyries looked to get Adora Anae going early, and she helped get things started. A completely different tone from set one saw the Valkyries get off to a much better start, as both teams went back and forth, with Orlando getting up to as much as a four-point cushion at 17-13. Vegas would give Orlando a taste of their own medicine, as they were able to get hot at the right moment, taking a late lead and winning set two 25-23. Hannah Maddux would lead the Thrill with six kills.

Set 3

Making her first start at setter this season, Hannah Pukis got things started in a big way off a service ace, as the team would build on it to a 5-2 lead. Although the Valkyries started on fire, the Thrill quickly caught up, taking a 10-9 lead. However, after taking the lead, the Thrill would struggle to get anything going. Orlando responded by retaking the lead at 15-14, and would finish on a 10-0 run, cruising to a 25-14 victory. Just like set one, Brittany Abercrombie led all hitters with seven kills in set three.

Set 4

Building off the momentum going up 2-1 in the match, Orlando jumped out to a 4-0 lead, thanks to a pair of rookies providing some energy, a block by Norah Sis and a service ace from Natalie Foster. With Orlando getting up early, Vegas showed incredible resilience, as their backs were against the wall the entire set. They were able to take advantage of the Valkyries missed opportunities, soaring back out in front to a 16-12 lead. From that point on it became the Allison Mayfield and Hannah Maddux show, as Vegas forced a deciding set five with a set score of 25-21. Allison Mayfield would finish with five kills in set four.

Set 5

Set five ended in a wild finish as the Vegas Thrill ultimately won 15-12. Both teams went neck and neck with a score of 8-8. Orlando would call a timeout after Vegas went up by two, trying to slow down the attack and really get the team to respond as it was a race to 15 points. Vegas went on to win the match, improving to 3-1 on the year.

VALKYRIES FALL TO THRILL IN FIVE

The Orlando Valkyries [2-3] fall 3-1 at home to the Vegas Thrill [4-2] by set scores of 25-15, 23-25, 17-25, 22-25.

Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with 23 total points, collecting 23 kills and eight digs in the contest

Set 1

The Valkyries got off to a scorching 5-0 start, thanks to three blocks, two from Natalie Foster and one from Adora Anae to get things started. The Thrill would quickly call a timeout, trying to stop the momentum and get themselves back in the match. They would do just that, bringing the score to as close as 12-9, with Hannah Maddux grabbing four kills in the process. Even though Vegas fought all the way back to as much as a three-point deficit, they couldn't overcome the slow start, never obtaining the lead once and eventually losing 25-15. Brittany Abercrombie led the way with six kills in set one.

Set 2

Natalie Foster would get things going for Orlando in set two. The Thrill would have a much better start this go around, taking their first lead of the match at 7-6. Both teams would go on offensive tears, battling back and forth all the way until the final point, as the Thrill took the second set 25-23, as the Thrill's leading attacker, Hannah Maddux, grabbed her fourth kill of the set.

Set 3

For the first time in this match, Vegas got things going first thanks to Morgan Stout. As both teams battled back and forth, with the score knotted up at 6-6, the Thrill would go up 12-7, thanks to a 6-1 run, fueled by opportunistic hitting from Hannah Maddux, who notched three kills during the spree. Vegas continued growing its lead, as they ended up winning the set 25-17. Hannah Maddux led the Thrill with six kills.

Set 4

As Orlando had their backs against the wall, Brittany Abercrombie and Adora Anae were determined to force a fifth set, grabbing an 8-6 lead, with Anae and Abercrombie accounting for six of the first eight points. Vegas refused to give up, matching Orlando's intensity and leveling the score at 16-16. A race to 25, either to push the match to five sets or allowing Vegas to steal a road win, saw Vegas capture their first road win of the season by a set score of 25-22. Hannah Maddux achieved another impressive set, finishing with seven kills.

Orlando Valkyries at Grand Rapids Rise

Thursday, Jan 30 at 7:00 PM ET
Van Andel Arena | Grand Rapids, MI

Orlando	26	15	25	18	12	2
Grand Rapids	24	25	17	25	15	3

VALKYRIES FALL IN FIVE TO RISE

The Orlando Valkyries [2-4] drop their third loss in a row to the Grand Rapids Rise [3-3] 3-2, by set scores of 26-24, 15-25, 25-17, 18-25, 12-15.

Natalie Foster led the Valkyries with 18 total points, including 12 kills, five blocks, four digs, and one service ace in the contest.

Set 1

After coming off her most impressive match against Vegas, Natalie Foster got things started for Orlando, while the reigning Player of the Week Carli Snyder got the home crowd fired up, with a big swing of her own, and we were off and running in the first set. Both squads came out the gate on fire offensively, trading blows back-and-forth, as each team sported a .310 hitting percentage as Orlando took a 16-14 lead. In such a tight affair with Orlando up 19-18, Courtney Schwan served a pin point accurate ball for an ace, in what would be the momentum push the Valkyries needed, as Brittany Abercrombie dealt the final blow as Orlando takes set one 26-24. Brittany Abercrombie finished with 11 kills

Set 2

Undefeated in all five first sets this season, the Valkyries mission was to continue riding their momentum heading into the second set, getting off to a quick 3-1 start thanks to two kills by Abercrombie and Foster, as well as an ace by Anae. Just like set one, Grand Rapids would match Orlando's energy and would eventually grab their biggest lead of the match 15-10, taking advantage of the Valkyries miscues. After Orlando called a timeout, Grand Rapids cruised all the way to a 25-15 win. Naya Shime, August Raskie, Erika Pritchard, and Carli Snyder all led with three kills.

Set 3

Set three started off similarly to set two, with Orlando up 5-2, followed by a short run from Grand Rapids, that saw them tie the set at 9-9 off a kill by Naya Shime. Natalie Foster, who ranks second in the league in service aces, delivered yet another beautiful jump serve that resulted in a service ace, giving the Valkyries a three-point cushion at 13-10. Riding the hot streak, Orlando would get up to 18-11 and go on to win 25-17. Courtney Schwan led the Valkyries with six kills.

Set 4

Grand Rapids, looking to find a way to force a fifth set at home, got off to an unreal start, with a .400 hitting percentage, as the Rise led 11-10. Carli Snyder, with back-to-back service aces, got the home crowd back into the match, as the Rise fed off their energy, getting up to as much as a 19-11 lead. After a double substitution that saw Hannah Pukis and Lydia Grote come in, Orlando would score four straight from kills by Kaz Brown, Shannon Scully, and Lydia Grote. Even after the short run, the Valkyries were not able to come back from their early deficit, falling 25-18. Erika Pritchard topped the kills leaderboard in set four with five kills.

Set 5

With a race to 15 in set five and both teams tied at 2-2, the Rise went on a 5-1 run, fueled by two kills as well as a block by Erika Pritchard, who had a stellar night with 19 kills on a .348 hitting percentage. Marin Grote also joined in on the fun, with three straight Rise points coming off blocks. Grand Rapids finishes the match with a 15-12 fifth set win, taking the match 3-2.
