PVF Player of the Week

After helping the Grand Rapids Rise to two victories last week, outside hitter Erika Pritchard has been named the Pro Volleyball Federation Player of the Week presented by Franklin Sports.

Erika Pritchard
Grand Rapids

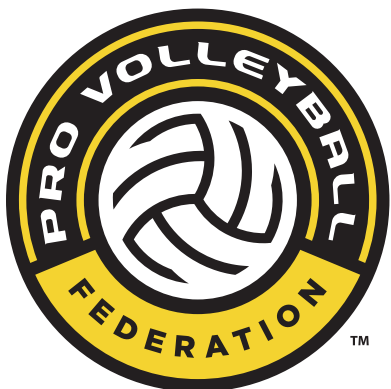

Pritchard finished the week with 41 points (31 kills on a .352 hitting percentage, seven blocks, three aces) across two wins, recording 5.13 points per set. She had a Rise season-high 27 points (21 kills, five blocks, one ace) in the five-set victory over the Orlando Valkyries on Jan. 30. Pritchard followed that up with 14 points (10 kills, two blocks, two aces) in a sweep of the San Diego Mojo on Feb. 2. This is her first career PVF weekly honor.

Pritchard and the Rise will take the court again on Thursday, February 7, visiting Columbus in the fifth week of PVF action.

As part of this recognition, Pritchard will receive a Kendra Scott Volleyball Pendant Necklace in white mother-of-pearl. The award is part of PVF's recently announced partnership with Kendra Scott to advance a mutually shared goal of empowering girls and young women and supporting organizations with that same mission.
