News, Notes & Numbers

- ⇒ The rosters are set – as 24 of the best of the best in the United States and the World are set to converge on Indy for the 2025 PVF All-Star Match. The contest is slated for Saturday, February 22 and will be broadcast nationally on CBS.

Every team is represented on the two 12-person rosters, led by the Atlanta Vibe, Orlando Valkyries and Vegas Thrill with four players apiece. The two squads will be led by a duo of volleyball coaching icons – Dave Shondell of Purdue and Georgia Tech's Michelle Collier.

PVF's history-making All-Star match begins at 1:30 pm ET at Fishers Event Center, home of Indy Ignite, PVF's newest franchise.

- ⇒ Orlando's 3-1 win over Columbus on February 12 was the Valkyries' fourth consecutive win, tying them with Vegas for the longest active win streak in PVF. The next win for either team would tie them for the second-long win streak in PVF history (Atlanta Vibe, March 3-21, 2024).
- ⇒ In Orlando's 3-1 win over Indy on Feb. 8, the Valkyries' Natalie Foster tied the PVF all-match record for aces with six. The Orlando middle blocker registered two aces in each of the first three sets against the Ignite. The mark also ties the PVF four-set record for aces in a match. With 19 aces this season, Foster is now tied for fourth on the PVF single season aces list.

Twenty-Four PVF All-Stars Set To Play In Indy On CBS

The rosters are set – as 24 of the best of the best in the United States and the World are set to converge on Indy for the 2025 PVF All-Star Match. The contest is slated for Saturday, February 22 and will be broadcast nationally on CBS.

Every team is represented on the two 12-person rosters, led by the Atlanta Vibe, Orlando Valkyries and Vegas Thrill with four players apiece. The two squads will be led by a duo of volleyball coaching icons – Dave Shondell of Purdue and Georgia Tech's Michelle Collier.

Voting was comprised of several components, led by online fan voting that saw more than 10,000 fans of Pro Volleyball Federation cast ballots. Coaches added votes for their own players and that of other teams, while league volleyball operations staff members spent countless hours crunching numbers and comparing the top vote-getters along with the leading performers from 2025.

Four players who won major awards in the league a year ago are represented – Leah Edmond of Atlanta (MVP, Outside Hitter of the Year), Orlando's Kaz Brown (Middle Blocker of the Year), Atlanta's Morgan Hentz (Libero of the Year) and Alisha Childress of Vegas (Most Inspirational Player).

PVF's history-making All-Star match begins at 1:30 pm ET at Fishers Event Center, home of Indy Ignite, PVF's newest franchise.

PVF Player of the Week

After helping the Orlando Valkyries to two victories, middle blocker Natalie Foster has been named the Pro Volleyball Federation Player of the Week presented by Franklin Sports.

Natalie Foster
Orlando

Foster opened the week with three service aces, five kills and a pair of assists as the Valkyries swept the Atlanta Vibe before turning in a 20-point effort in a 3-1 win over Indy on Saturday. The middle blocker registered a career-high 12 kills against the Ignite and equaled the PVF record for aces in a four-set match with six. Her nine aces on the week upped her season total to 19, which is tied for fourth on the PVF single-season record list. This is her first career PVF weekly honor.

Next up for Foster and the Valkyries is a visit to Columbus on Thursday, February 12 before Orlando hosts Grand Rapids on February 15 in the sixth week of PVF action.

Foster will receive a Kendra Scott Volleyball Pendant Necklace in white mother-of-pearl. The award is part of PVF's recently announced partnership with Kendra Scott to advance a mutually shared goal of empowering girls and young women and supporting organizations with that same mission.

Shondell And Collier To Lead PVF All-Star Squads

Two iconic coaches in the sport of volleyball, Dave Shondell of Purdue and Georgia Tech's Michelle Collier, have been named as the head coaches for the teams at the inaugural PVF All-Star Match.

Shondell has spent 23 seasons at Purdue, compiling 485 career victories and a .675 winning percentage (485-233 overall). He is the all-time winningest coach in school history and the Boilermakers are coming off one of their most successful seasons since the 1980s with a 27-7 mark.

Collier just completed her 11th season at Georgia Tech and boasts a 258-145 career record, including 218 wins during her time with the Yellow Jackets. She has led Tech to postseason play in each of the past five seasons of NCAA play, including an Elite Eight appearance in 2021 – the best finish in program history.

Mojo's Haneef-Park Named to U.S. National Team Coaching Staff

San Diego Mojo head coach Tayyiba Haneef-Park has been named to the U.S. Women's National Team coaching staff, USA Volleyball and head coach Erik Sullivan announced, as the team prepares for the 2028 Los Angeles Olympic Games. Haneef-Park will continue leading the Mojo while serving as an assistant with Team USA.

A three-time Olympian and two-time silver medalist (Beijing 2008, London 2012), Haneef-Park brings first-hand Olympic experience and a winning mentality to her new role. The 2024 Pro Volleyball Federation Coach of the Year, she guided San Diego to the PVF Championship semifinals during the league's inaugural season.

Orlando's Foster, Atlanta's Edmond Among Single-Season Aces Leaders

Orlando's Natalie Foster and Atlanta's Leah Edmond ranks among the top six on the PVF single-season aces list at little over a month into the 2025 campaign. Foster registered six aces in the Valkyries' four-set win over Indy on Feb. 8 to reach 19 aces on the season, which lands in her a tie for fourth all-time in the PVF with the Vibe's Shelly Fanning, who had 19 aces in 2024.
