SETTING THE STAGE

- Orlando comes in riding an eight-match win streak; Longest win streak in PVF history.
- After winning three-straight, Columbus has lost their last two to San Diego and Omaha.

PLAYER SPOTLIGHTS

- Pornpun Guedpard (Setter) - After setting a career-high with 55 assists in five sets against Atlanta, Guedpard has Orlando's offense rolling as of late. Ranking second in the league in average assists per set with 11.19, her ability to keep defenses on their toes has been a big reason in what makes this team so hard to slow down.
- Courtney Schwan (Outside Hitter) - After recording her fourth double-double of her career, Schwan has had an integral role for the Valkyries this season. Showing her versatility in the pass and attack game with 10 kills and 13 digs against Atlanta, Schwan has been a reliable piece for Orlando this season.

EXPERIENCED ROSTER FOUNDATION

Valkyries' 14-player roster has six players with three or more years of professional experience, providing a solid foundation for the team.

WORLDWIDE EXPERTISE

Valkyries' roster comprises players with extensive professional experience on the international stage. These athletes have played in various countries, including South Korea, Turkey, Puerto Rico, Greece, France, Thailand, Japan, Indonesia, and Romania.

VALKYRIES DREAM TEAM

There is a seasoned mix of Valkyries players, among them are All-Americans who have competed on the international stage, representing their respective countries.

REPRESENTATION ON THE COURT

The Valkyries boast a geographically diverse roster, featuring players from various regions across the globe and within the United States.

- Multiple players proudly represent the West, including opposite hitters Brittany Abercrombie and Lydia Grote, libero Nalani Iosia, and outside hitters Shannon Scully and Lindsey Vander Weide all from California. Middle blocker Abby Hansen is from Arizona, and setter Hannah Pukis and outside hitter Courtney Schwan are from Washington.
- Making a considerable journey, setter Pornpun Guedpard finds herself roughly 9,400 miles away from her home in Thailand.
- Venturing to the Midwest, our team includes Kaz Brown from Iowa, Norah Sis from Nebraska, and Natalie Foster from Michigan.
- The final trio of athletes- Adora Anae, M'Kaela White and Georgia Murphy - call Hawaii, Maryland, and Texas their respective homes.

EXTENSIVE AND EXPANDED NATIONAL BROADCAST SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

With the highly anticipated second season about to begin, Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) has announced the extensive schedule of nationally broadcast matches airing on CBS and FOX Sports outlets.

The action begins with on January 9, when the San Diego Mojo takes on the Orlando Valkyries in the season-opener, airing on FS2. During the first 11 days of the regular season, fans can see head-to-head action in four nationally broadcast matches, showcasing seven of PVF's eight teams.

PVF TELEVISION COVERAGE EXPANDS TO FS1, FS2

Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) has announced its latest television agreement with FS1 and FS2, expanding its television coverage with 12 additional nationally televised matches in 2025.

The deal includes four matches airing on FS1 and eight on FS2, bringing PVF's total national television footprint to over 24 matches across multiple premier linear and over-the-air networks - the most extensive television coverage in professional volleyball. The new agreement supports PVF's mission to enhance exposure for professional volleyball through increased national coverage, which is coming at a pivotal time as the sport continues to experience dramatic growth in popularity.

PVF MAKES HISTORY WITH INAUGURAL ALL-STAR MATCH TO AIR NATIONALLY ON CBS

Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF), the leading professional volleyball league in the United States, has announced its inaugural All-Star Match, set to take place on Saturday, February 22, 2025 at Fishers Event Center. The event will showcase the league's top talent and give fans a unique opportunity to witness the best in professional volleyball.

In a historic first for professional volleyball, CBS Television Network will air the match on its national broadcast outlet. This landmark moment underscores PVF's commitment to elevating the sport and bringing professional women's volleyball to a broader audience.

SPALDING CONTINUES AS OFFICIAL NET EQUIPMENT SUPPLIER

Spalding, a leader in sports equipment innovation, and Pro Volleyball Federation, North America's premier women's professional volleyball league, have announced the extension of their partnership, with Spalding continuing as the league's Official Volleyball Net Equipment Supplier through the next four years into 2027.

Building on the league's successful inaugural season, where Pro Volleyball Federation teams played before nearly 400,000 fans and achieved significant social media growth, Spalding remains committed to enhancing the player and fan experience with its industry-leading Freestanding Volleyball Systems. Since joining forces in 2024, Spalding has supplied the league with its innovative Freestanding Volleyball Systems, which eliminate the need for permanent installations, offering unmatched flexibility and ease of use. This cutting-edge equipment has played an integral role in providing a seamless on-court experience throughout the league's first year.

MATCH PREVIEW

MATCH FIFTEEN PREVIEW – VALKYRIES VS FURY

After setting a new Pro Volleyball Federation record with eight consecutive wins, the Orlando Valkyries (10-4) will look to continue charging ahead as they welcome the Columbus Fury (4-10) to Addition Financial Arena on Sunday night, March 9 at 6:00 p.m. ET. This match will mark the first of three that the Valkyries will play in a week's span. This match will be nationally broadcast on CBS Sports Network.

Keys to the Match:

In their last matchup where Orlando won on the road in four sets, Columbus held Orlando to a .216 hitting percentage, while Orlando held Columbus to .197.

Even though Columbus is 4-10, they have won three of their last five matches, playing much better offensively as of late. Ranking fourth in the league in opponent hitting efficiency, they'll need the defense to step up in order for them to take down Orlando.

Valkyries Players to Watch:

Brittany Abercrombie (Opposite) - The reigning PVF Player of the Week, Abercrombie has been on fire, recording 20+ kills in back-to-back matches. On the year, she ranks first in kills (245) and points (269), as she has been an unstoppable force in the league. The connection she has with Pornpun Guedpard has been phenomenal throughout the year. Look for that to continue Sunday night.

Lindsey Vander Weide (Outside) - Coming off the bench in Saturday's win over Atlanta in five sets, Vander Weide proved to be big for Orlando, putting up seven kills and five digs in front of a roaring home crowd. She has the capability of scoring at an enormous rate, as she notched a PVF high 30 kills last season for the San Diego Mojo.

By the numbers: Orlando is 6-1 on the season when they record over a .300 hitting efficiency.

Fury Players to Watch:

Isabella Rapacz (Opposite) - Averaging 16 kills in her last six matches, Rapacz has helped Columbus' offense immensely. Recording 10 blocks in her last four matches, she'll be a key piece to watch in how successful Columbus is against Orlando.

Raina Terry (Outside) - Another big offensive contributor who can score in bunches, Terry can go off at any point. Recording 22 kills against Indy back on January 18, watch for Columbus to get her going early and often. In the first meeting with Orlando, Terry recorded 10 kills, eight digs and two blocks.

By the numbers: Columbus is 3-3 on the season when they record more than 50 kills in a match.

HEAD COACH AMY PAULY

Amy Pauly is recognized as one of the top up-and-coming coaches in college volleyball and is now the first head coach of the Orlando Pro Volleyball Federation team. Formerly the associate head coach for USC's women's volleyball program, Pauly brings her exceptional recruiting and talent identification skills to Orlando, where she also serves as the Vice President of Volleyball Operations.

Pauly's coaching extends beyond her USC tenure, where she played a crucial role in securing the nation's top-rated recruiting class in 2022. Her national acclaim includes being listed on VolleyballMag.com's 2020 Under 40 Coaching Hotshots and the 2016 American Volleyball Coaches Association 30 Under 30 list. With previous coaching experiences at the University of Alabama-Birmingham and Villanova, Pauly's impressive career began as a graduate assistant at South Carolina in 2010, following a successful playing career at Alabama.

VALKYRIES TAKE DOWN MOJO IN THREE

In their home opener, the Orlando Valkyries [1-0] swept San Diego Mojo [0-1] at Addition Financial Arena on Thursday night. Orlando charged ahead early and carried their momentum to the end of the match.

Adora Anae led both teams with 14 kills, as well as registering two blocks and nine digs in the contest.

Set 1

San Diego opened the match with the first kill by Regan Pittman. It was a back-and-forth affair between both squads until the Valkyries took their first lead of the match (9-8) with an impressive push to the back right corner by Kaz Brown. The Mojo continued to match the Valkyries aggressiveness, as the score was knotted up at 14 apiece. The Valkyries would pull ahead 19-15, with a 5-1 run. Orlando would go on to dominate the set, winning 25-18 off an Adora Anae kill. Brittany Abercrombie and Kaz Brown each tallied four kills in set one.

Set 2

The Valkyries started set two right where they left off, with Courtney Schwan getting the scoring going. As the two teams went back-and-forth most of set two, Orlando would continue to press on the gas pedal, as their lead grew to 18-12. San Diego, looking to create a spark on offense, just couldn't get anything going, as the final of set two repeated set one, with Orlando winning 25-18. Adora Anae led the charge with seven kills in set two.

Set 3

San Diego took advantage of an Orlando service error, jumping out to an early 4-1 lead. The Mojo showed signs of toughness and grit, eagerly determined to claw their way back in the match. However, after taking a 10-9 lead in the third set, Orlando answered quickly, jumping ahead and never looking back as they take match one against the San Diego Mojo 3-0.

Orlando Valkyries vs Indy Ignite

Saturday, Jan 11 at 7:00 PM ET
Fishers Event Center | Fishers, IN

Orlando	25	19	17	21	1
Indy	13	25	25	25	3

VALKYRIES SUFFER FIRST LOSS TO IGNITE

The Orlando Valkyries [1-1] were unable to spoil Indy Ignite's [1-0] home opener, falling 3-1 by set scores of 25-13, 19-25, 17-25, 21-25.

Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with 18 total points, registering 17 kills, one block and nine digs in the contest.

Set 1

Orlando set the tone early in the match, sparked by a powerful kill from Brittany Abercrombie to open the scoring. Indy initially matched the Valkyries' intensity, trading points and even grabbing a brief lead (5-4). However, Orlando soon found their rhythm, embarking on an impressive 17-8 run fueled by exceptional defense that forced the Ignite into committing seven errors. Brittany Abercrombie, who sparked the Valkyries' momentum, continued her dominance with five kills in the set, sealing a 25-13 victory for Orlando in the opener.

Set 2

Building on their strong start in the first set, Brittany Abercrombie once again sparked the Valkyries' offense, helping them race to an early 6-2 lead. However, after a slow start, Indy began to find their rhythm. Led by a dominant stretch from Leketor Member-Meneh, who delivered eight kills, the Ignite seized their first lead of the set at 16-14. Indy maintained their momentum through the remainder of the set, outpacing the Valkyries and closing it out with a 25-19 victory, as Orlando wasn't able to match the Ignite's response. Leketor Member-Meneh led all attackers in set two with eight kills on a .727 hitting percentage.

Set 3

Nina Cajic got set three underway for the Ignite, helping them establish an early 3-1 lead. Both teams battled fiercely in a back-and-forth exchange, with Indy leading 13-10. The Ignite would start to pull away, extending the score to as much as 20-13, fueled by strong defensive play and a key block from Leketor Member-Meneh that limited Orlando's attack to a .095 hitting percentage. Maintaining their momentum, Indy closed out the set decisively with a 25-17 victory. Azhani Tealer recorded nine kills in set three.

Set 4

Facing a 2-1 deficit, Orlando needed to neutralize Indy's outside attack to stay in the match. The Valkyries started set four strong, with Brittany Abercrombie and Courtney Schwan combining for two pivotal blocks. However, Indy answered with a surge of their own, building a 9-4 lead. With their backs against the wall, Orlando regrouped and rallied with a 7-3 run, narrowing the gap to 12-11. Despite the effort, it wasn't enough, as Indy held firm to secure a 25-21 win in set four, and handing Orlando their first loss of the season.

MATCH THREE

Orlando Valkyries at San Diego Mojo

Orlando	25	20	25	25	3
San Diego	23	25	17	15	1

VALKYRIES DEFEAT MOJO IN FOUR

The Orlando Valkyries [2-1] secured their first road win of the season over the San Diego Mojo [1-2] winning 3-1 by set scores of 25-23, 20-25, 25-17, 25-15.

Adora Anae led the Valkyries with 27 kills, setting a new career high. She also had 10 digs and one block, securing her first double-double of the season

Set 1

Adora Anae set the tone early for Orlando, getting the scoring started and taking an early charge with a 8-5 lead. San Diego, looking to even up the season series vs. Orlando, focused their offense on Kendra Dahlke, who missed most of the first matchup. Dahlke would provide a big spark by scoring five of the Mojo's first nine points. Despite San Diego's efforts, Orlando maintained control throughout the first set, never giving up the lead. The Valkyries sealed the set with a 25-23 victory, fueled by standout performances from Courtney Schwan and Adora Anae, who each contributed four kills.

Set 2

Much like in the opening set, Adora Anae provided the spark for the Valkyries as they aimed to make it five consecutive set wins to start the year against San Diego. However, the Mojo were ready for the challenge and responded pulling ahead with a 12-9 lead, after a back-and-forth affair. Despite Orlando's efforts to keep pace, costly errors in the serving game—seven service errors alone in set two—began to take their toll. This opened the door for San Diego to seize momentum with a decisive 5-0 run, ultimately clinching the set 25-20. Maya Tabron shined for the Mojo in set two, leading her team with five kills.

Set 3

The Valkyries aimed to bounce back in set three, while the Mojo looked to build on the momentum they had gained at the end of set two. After being limited to just one kill in the previous set, Brittany Abercrombie came out firing, delivering the first two Valkyries kills and igniting a spark that powered her team to a 15-10 lead. Abercrombie's impact extended beyond her attacks—her dominance at the net, along with Natalie Foster's strong blocking, stifled San Diego's attempts to close the gap. The Valkyries sealed the set with a 10-7 run, capped off by a big block from Natalie Foster. Abercrombie finished the set as the team leader in kills with seven, boasting a stellar .462 hitting percentage

Set 4

Trailing 2-1 in the match, San Diego faced a tough situation as they fought to force a decisive fifth set in front of their home crowd. They came out strong, jumping to an early 3-1 lead. However, Orlando remained relentless, refusing to let the match get to five sets. The Valkyries surged ahead, climbing to an impressive 18-10 lead and maintained their momentum to close out the match with a commanding 3-1 victory over the San Diego Mojo. Adora Anae led the charge for Orlando, recording seven kills in the final set.

VALKYRIES FALL TO THRILL IN FIVE

The Orlando Valkyries [2-2] fall to the Vegas Thrill [3-1] in five sets, with set scores of 25-22, 23-25, 25-14, 21-25, 12-15.

Brittany Abercrombie had a career night, leading the Valkyries with 33 total points, recording 30 kills, two blocks and eleven digs in the contest

Set 1

After completing a reverse sweep against Omaha at home, Vegas hit the ground running off a back-row attack from Hannah Maddux that helped them jump to an early 6-2 lead. However, Orlando wasted no time responding as Kaz Brown and Hannah Pukis delivered defensively, each of them recording a block during a 4-0 run, tying the score at 6-6. Vegas regained momentum and built a four-point lead at 13-9, but Orlando refused to back down. They clawed their way back into the set eventually taking their first lead 23-22. Orlando would finish on a 10-3 run, winning 25-22. Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with seven kills in set one.

Set 2

After being held to just one kill in the first set, the Valkyries looked to get Adora Anae going early, and she helped get things started. A completely different tone from set one saw the Valkyries get off to a much better start, as both teams went back and forth, with Orlando getting up to as much as a four-point cushion at 17-13. Vegas would give Orlando a taste of their own medicine, as they were able to get hot at the right moment, taking a late lead and winning set two 25-23. Hannah Maddux would lead the Thrill with six kills.

Set 3

Making her first start at setter this season, Hannah Pukis got things started in a big way off a service ace, as the team would build on it to a 5-2 lead. Although the Valkyries started on fire, the Thrill quickly caught up, taking a 10-9 lead. However, after taking the lead, the Thrill would struggle to get anything going. Orlando responded by retaking the lead at 15-14, and would finish on a 10-0 run, cruising to a 25-14 victory. Just like set one, Brittany Abercrombie led all hitters with seven kills in set three.

Set 4

Building off the momentum going up 2-1 in the match, Orlando jumped out to a 4-0 lead, thanks to a pair of rookies providing some energy, a block by Norah Sis and a service ace from Natalie Foster. With Orlando getting up early, Vegas showed incredible resilience, as their backs were against the wall the entire set. They were able to take advantage of the Valkyries missed opportunities, soaring back out in front to a 16-12 lead. From that point on it became the Allison Mayfield and Hannah Maddux show, as Vegas forced a deciding set five with a set score of 25-21. Allison Mayfield would finish with five kills in set four.

Set 5

Set five ended in a wild finish as the Vegas Thrill ultimately won 15-12. Both teams went neck and neck with a score of 8-8. Orlando would call a timeout after Vegas went up by two, trying to slow down the attack and really get the team to respond as it was a race to 15 points. Vegas went on to win the match, improving to 3-1 on the year.

VALKYRIES DROP TOUGH ONE AT HOME TO THRILL

The Orlando Valkyries [2-3] fall 3-1 at home to the Vegas Thrill [4-2] by set scores of 25-15, 23-25, 17-25, 22-25.

Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with 23 total points, collecting 23 kills and eight digs in the contest

Set 1

The Valkyries got off to a scorching 5-0 start, thanks to three blocks, two from Natalie Foster and one from Adora Anae to get things started. The Thrill would quickly call a timeout, trying to stop the momentum and get themselves back in the match. They would do just that, bringing the score to as close as 12-9, with Hannah Maddux grabbing four kills in the process. Even though Vegas fought all the way back to as much as a three-point deficit, they couldn't overcome the slow start, never obtaining the lead once and eventually losing 25-15. Brittany Abercrombie led the way with six kills in set one.

Set 2

Natalie Foster would get things going for Orlando in set two. The Thrill would have a much better start this go around, taking their first lead of the match at 7-6. Both teams would go on offensive tears, battling back and forth all the way until the final point, as the Thrill took the second set 25-23, as the Thrill's leading attacker, Hannah Maddux, grabbed her fourth kill of the set.

Set 3

For the first time in this match, Vegas got things going first thanks to Morgan Stout. As both teams battled back and forth, with the score knotted up at 6-6, the Thrill would go up 12-7, thanks to a 6-1 run, fueled by opportunistic hitting from Hannah Maddux, who notched three kills during the spree. Vegas continued growing its lead, as they ended up winning the set 25-17. Hannah Maddux led the Thrill with six kills.

Set 4

As Orlando had their backs against the wall, Brittany Abercrombie and Adora Anae were determined to force a fifth set, grabbing an 8-6 lead, with Anae and Abercrombie accounting for six of the first eight points. Vegas refused to give up, matching Orlando's intensity and leveling the score at 16-16. A race to 25, either to push the match to five sets or allowing Vegas to steal a road win, saw Vegas capture their first road win of the season by a set score of 25-22. Hannah Maddux achieved another impressive set, finishing with seven kills.

VALKYRIES FALL IN FIVE TO RISE

The Orlando Valkyries [2-4] drop their third loss in a row to the Grand Rapids Rise [3-3] 3-2, by set scores of 26-24, 15-25, 25-17, 18-25, 12-15.

Natalie Foster led the Valkyries with 18 total points, including 12 kills, five blocks, four digs, and one service ace in the contest.

Set 1

After coming off her most impressive match against Vegas, Natalie Foster got things started for Orlando, while the reigning Player of the Week Carli Snyder got the home crowd fired up, with a big swing of her own, and we were off and running in the first set. Both squads came out the gate on fire offensively, trading blows back-and-forth, as each team sported a .310 hitting percentage as Orlando took a 16-14 lead. In such a tight affair with Orlando up 19-18, Courtney Schwan served a pin point accurate ball for an ace, in what would be the momentum push the Valkyries needed, as Brittany Abercrombie dealt the final blow as Orlando takes set one 26-24. Brittany Abercrombie finished with 11 kills

Set 2

Undefeated in all five first sets this season, the Valkyries mission was to continue riding their momentum heading into the second set, getting off to a quick 3-1 start thanks to two kills by Abercrombie and Foster, as well as an ace by Anae. Just like set one, Grand Rapids would match Orlando's energy and would eventually grab their biggest lead of the match 15-10, taking advantage of the Valkyries miscues. After Orlando called a timeout, Grand Rapids cruised all the way to a 25-15 win. Naya Shime, August Raskie, Erika Pritchard, and Carli Snyder all led with three kills.

Set 3

Set three started off similarly to set two, with Orlando up 5-2, followed by a short run from Grand Rapids, that saw them tie the set at 9-9 off a kill by Naya Shime. Natalie Foster, who ranks second in the league in service aces, delivered yet another beautiful jump serve that resulted in a service ace, giving the Valkyries a three-point cushion at 13-10. Riding the hot streak, Orlando would get up to 18-11 and go on to win 25-17. Courtney Schwan led the Valkyries with six kills.

Set 4

Grand Rapids, looking to find a way to force a fifth set at home, got off to an unreal start, with a .400 hitting percentage, as the Rise led 11-10. Carli Snyder, with back-to-back service aces, got the home crowd back into the match, as the Rise fed off their energy, getting up to as much as a 19-11 lead. After a double substitution that saw Hannah Pukis and Lydia Grote come in, Orlando would score four straight from kills by Kaz Brown, Shannon Scully, and Lydia Grote. Even after the short run, the Valkyries were not able to come back from their early deficit, falling 25-18. Erika Pritchard topped the kills leaderboard in set four with five kills.

Set 5

With a race to 15 in set five and both teams tied at 2-2, the Rise went on a 5-1 run, fueled by two kills as well as a block by Erika Pritchard, who had a stellar night with 19 kills on a .348 hitting percentage. Marin Grote also joined in on the fun, with three straight Rise points coming off blocks. Grand Rapids finishes the match with a 15-12 fifth set win, taking the match 3-2.

Orlando Valkyries vs
Omaha Supernovas

Sunday, Feb 2 at 3:00 PM ET

Omaha	22	18	20	0
Orlando	25	25	25	3

VALKYRIES BLANK SUPERNOVAS 3-0

The Orlando Valkyries [3-4] sweep the defending champion Omaha Supernovas [4-3] with set scores of 25-22, 25-18, 25-20.

Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with 19 total points, tallying 16 kills, 12 digs, two blocks and a service ace in the contest.

Set 1

Adora Anae set the tone right from the start as she got things going for Orlando. Fresh off a season-high 11 kills against Grand Rapids, Courtney Schwan picked up right where she left off, delivering back-to-back kills for a 3-2 lead. Schwan wasn't the only one to make their mark early in the match, as Brittany Abercrombie and Adora Anae would take turns scoring for Orlando, asserting an elite force up front, as the Valkyries took a 14-10 lead. Omaha, who is never out of a match, contained the early Orlando momentum and turned it into their favor, tying the set 19-19, with Brooke Nuneviller and Kelsie Payne combining for seven kills. Even with the late charge, the Valkyries stayed composed and finished how they started, taking set one 25-22. Adora Anae recorded nine kills on a .500 hitting efficiency.

Set 2

After taking set one, the Valkyries offense exploded right out the gate, taking a 5-1 lead. The Supernovas, after a slow start, showed signs of getting back into the match, but it was all Valkyries in set two. Known as one of the top offensive teams in the league, Orlando showcased their defensive potential, holding Omaha to a .000 hitting percentage and extending their lead to 15-8. The team's use of a double libero system, Shannon Scully and Nalani Iosia, played huge dividends defensively. Orlando would crank up the offensive intensity, as Brittany Abercrombie recorded five of her seven kills in the last ten points, sealing a 25-18 victory.

Set 3

Coming out of halftime, Omaha responded to the challenge being down 2-0 in the match with a quick 6-2 lead. However, that lead quickly diminished with Orlando going on a 14-7 run and jumping ahead 16-13, sparked by a huge block from Kaz Brown and a service ace by Brittany Abercrombie. Up 18-14, Kaz Brown delivered arguably the biggest play of the game, splitting the block and powering home a massive kill, bringing every fan to their feet in excitement. Orlando finished the set 25-20, sweeping the Omaha Supernovas 3-0. Brittany Abercrombie tallied five kills in set three.

VIBES ARE HIGH, VALKYRIES WITH BACK-TO-BACK SWEEPS

A night to remember: The Orlando Valkyries [4-4] secured their first road sweep in franchise history over the Atlanta Vibe [4-4] with set scores of 25-14, 25-18, 25-23. The Valkyries joined the Omaha Supernovas as the only two teams to secure back-to-back sweeps this season, as well as the third team in Pro Volleyball Federation history to ever secure a back-to-back sweep.

Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with 20 total points, recording 15 kills, two service aces, three blocks and nine digs in the contest.

Set 1

Pro Volleyball Federation's reigning MVP Leah Edmond set the tone for Atlanta as she kicked off the match, but Orlando would go on fire offensively, with a dominant 5-0 run from the likes of Brittany Abercrombie where she had her way in all three phases in blocking, serving and attacking, jumping to a 7-2 lead. The Valkyries early offensive strategy revolved around sharp cut shots from Adora Anae and Courtney Schwan, which proved to be highly effective. Reading Atlanta's defense and understanding how they would rotate, Orlando attacked the opposite half of the court with authority, proving to play a big role in their approach. That early 7-2 advantage would go on to foreshadow the rest of the set, as Orlando rode its momentum to a commanding 25-14 victory. Known for their high-powered offense, Orlando's defense stepped up in a big way, limiting Leah Edmond to just one kill and holding Atlanta to a .000 hitting percentage with four blocks in the set. Brittany Abercrombie led both teams with seven kills.

Set 2

Building on their strong start, Orlando maintained its energy and composure, racing to a 5-2 lead in set two. A Brittany Abercrombie service ace and a Kaz Brown block forced the Vibe to call a timeout, as they searched for a way to ignite their offense. However, Orlando stayed aggressive out of the timeout, as they doubled their lead to 12-4. One of the key factors in their outstanding start was the duo in the middle in Kaz Brown and Natalie Foster, who combined for six kills on an .857 hitting percentage. Controlling the game up front allowed Orlando to operate under structure. Despite Orlando's control, Atlanta found some rhythm, trading points and narrowing the gap to 22-14. Orlando let off the gas pedal a little bit and in turn allowed the Vibe to go on a 4-0 run before calling a timeout. Orlando closed out the set with a Courtney Schwan kill for a 25-18 victory. Adora Anae led the charge with six kills.

Set 3

With their backs against the wall, Atlanta came out swinging in set three, getting out to a 5-2 lead. Orlando's slow start was due to the service errors they had committed. In the first two sets, Orlando committed one service error, whereas set three saw them commit five, playing a huge role in allowing Atlanta to stay ahead 17-15, even with Orlando finding their groove. When Leah Edmond was called for a double contact error, it would open the door for the Valkyries to go on a 4-0 run that was sparked by an emphatic block from Courtney Schwan. Natalie Foster followed that with a huge service ace of her own, giving the Valkyries their first lead of the set at 18-17. As the set got closer to the finish line, the match intensified. At 22-22, Adora Anae took over, delivering back-to-back kills for a 24-22 lead. She would deliver the finishing blow to cap off a statement victory on the road in Atlanta. Brittany Abercrombie finished set three with six kills.

Indy	28	19	21	20	1
Orlando	26	25	25	25	3

VALKYRIES MAKE IT THREE IN A ROW IN WIN OVER IGNITE

The Orlando Valkyries [5-4] notched their third win in a row over the Indy Ignite [4-4] with set scores of 26-28, 25-19, 25-21, 25-20.

In the record books: Middle Blocker Natalie Foster tied a Pro Volleyball Federation record with six service aces in a four-set match.

Natalie Foster led the Valkyries with 20 total points recording six service aces, 12 kills and two blocks in the contest.

Set 1

Looking to continue their strong start to matches this season, Orlando battled evenly with Indy in a tightly contested first set. Neither team could really get out to a sizeable lead, until Orlando briefly pulled ahead 15-12. Just as Orlando was looking to pull away, three passing miscues led to a 4-0 Indy run. Orlando would call timeout looking to regroup and get back to playing their brand of ball. Out of the timeout, Adora Anae took over, delivering three consecutive kills to tie the score to 21-21. The teams traded points down the stretch, but Indy ultimately secured the set with a 28-26 victory. Nina Cajic led all scorers with eight kills.

Set 2

After leading the Valkyries in kills during the first set, Adora Anae set the tone early in set two. After dropping their first opening set of the season, Orlando would respond, jumping out to a 5-2 lead after a service error by Leketor Member-Meneh. Indy would trim the deficit to 11-9, but Orlando answered with 3-0 run of their own, highlighted by a service error, a smart push by Kaz Brown, and a perfectly placed ace to the back right corner by Natalie Foster as they extended their lead to 14-9, causing Indy to call timeout. Orlando continued to ride the momentum as Courtney Schwan delivered a powerful block, and Foster added another ace as Indy used their second timeout as Orlando's lead grew to seven. The Valkyries would close out set two with a 25-19 win. Kaz Brown led Orlando with four kills.

Set 3

After a second set victory, the Valkyries would go on a roll, getting up to a 6-1 lead, where the most dynamic duo of middle blockers in the league in Natalie Foster and Kaz Brown went to work, as Foster nabbed two service aces and Brown delivering a thunderous block that got the entire crowd out of its seats. Sporting a .500 hitting percentage up 10-3, the Orlando offense was hitting on all cylinders. Not only was the hitting on point, but the serving game played a massive role, as Kaz Brown delivered back-to-back aces to extend the Valkyries lead to 16-8. Orlando would go on to win set three 25-21. Kaz Brown would lead the Valkyries with five kills on a .625 hitting percentage.

Set 4

To avoid a dreaded fifth set, Orlando emphasized starting off set four strong by taking a 4-2 lead. Indy never backed down, as they relied on Azhani Tealer, who notched up to six kills with the set tied 13-13. One of the most impressive moments of the night saw Leketor Member-Meneh deliver two powerful swings, both dug by Nalani Iosia, led to a massive point, putting the Valkyries up 19-16. The Valkyries would push through, taking set three 25-20. Brittany Abercrombie led set four with four kills for Orlando.

VALKYRIES STAY HOT, WIN FOURTH IN A ROW

The Orlando Valkyries [6-4] secure their fourth win in a row, taking down the Columbus Fury [1-8] 3-1 with set scores of 15-25, 26-24, 25-18 and 25-20.

Brittany Abercrombie led the Valkyries with 15 total points, tallying 15 kills, two blocks and 10 digs in the contest

Set 1

Facing her former team, Wilma Rivera set the tone early with a service ace. Columbus came out strong defensively, jumping out to a 10-5 lead and really giving Orlando's high flying offense fits, holding them to a .000 hitting percentage. The Fury maintained their defensive dominance, leading 17-13 while outpacing Orlando in digs, 20-12. Columbus would go on to close the set with an 8-2 run, securing a statement 25-15 victory. Raina Terry grabbed seven kills in the opening set.

Set 2

After falling behind 3-1 early, Orlando quickly turned it around with three consecutive points, with kills from Pornpun Guedpard and Courtney Schwan, along with a Kaz Brown block to take a 4-3 lead. The teams continued exchanging points, with Columbus up 16-14. The Valkyries would go on a 4-0 run, that started with a quick kill from reigning PVF Player of the Week Natalie Foster, followed by three consecutive Columbus errors, allowing Orlando to gain momentum late in the set. Holding a 24-21 advantage, Fury would make a late charge, coming out of a timeout and tying the score at 24-24. However, Orlando would respond, and claim set two 26-24 off an Adora Anae cut shot. Natalie Foster finished with six kills on a .714 hitting percentage.

Set 3

After a strong finish in set two, Orlando carried that momentum into the third, playing with more energy. With the score tied 6-6, the Valkyries caught fire, going on a 13-6 run, pulling ahead 19-12. During the run, Pornpun Guedpard would look to get everyone involved, as Brittany Abercrombie, Courtney Schwan, Adora Anae, and Kaz Brown each registering multiple kills. With their offense back to clicking on all cylinders with a .371 hitting percentage, Orlando secured its second consecutive set win, closing out the set 25-18. Brittany Abercrombie led the way with seven kills.

Set 4

Up two sets to one, the Valkyries climbed to a 9-6 lead. Much like the previous set, Orlando had their way, stringing together an 11-6 run to extend their lead to 20-12. Holding Columbus to a .105 hitting percentage and hitting .357 played a big part in grabbing their lead. With the Valkyries' offense firing efficiently and their defense playing much better during their recent win streak, Orlando continues to show just how difficult they are to stop once they gain momentum. The Valkyries would take set four 25-20. Brittany Abercrombie finished set four with six kills.

FLYIN' HIGH: VALKS WIN FIFTH IN A ROW

The Orlando Valkyries keep on cruising, winning their fifth in a row against the Grand Rapids Rise in three sets, with set scores of 25-18, 25-23, 26-24.

The victory pushed the Valkyries to a franchise-best five wins in a row, catapulting them into third place, and having the most points (23) among all teams in the league.

"I'm really proud with how we've been playing because we've had a really tough stretch of teams in February," head coach Amy Pauly stated after a fifth consecutive win. "For us to continue to take the floor and get a sweep tonight, shows how hard working this group of athletes is."

The Valkyries tied a Pro Volleyball Federation season high with seven blocks in the third set, out blocking Grand Rapids 11-9.

Late in the third set, down 14-12, Orlando looked for some fresh legs off the bench, turning to Norah Sis and Lydia Grote, who were key contributors that provided a lot of energy, helping the Valkyries more than what the stat-sheet shows and eventually taking set three 26-24.

"It's fun," Valkyries outside hitter Norah Sis said. "We talked about an identity in our team being really strong off the bench. We know we have people who can come in and contribute and I know that every single person trusts in each other."

After starting the season 2-4, the Valkyries have been rolling, and a huge part has been the play of Brittany Abercrombie. She has moved into first in kills with 180, rattling off 10 straight matches with 12+ kills.

"We have great players all-around at every position," Abercrombie stated. "Defense is becoming part of our identity, and offense is something we are naturally good at. I think it's a special team."

ORLANDO HITS THE JACKPOT; SWEEPS VEGAS FOR SIXTH STRAIGHT VICTORY

The hottest team in Pro Volleyball Federation, the Orlando Valkyries, make it six in a row after sweeping the Vegas Thrill, with set scores of 25-15, 25-21, 25-17.

After dropping the first two contests against Vegas earlier this season, the Valkyries were determined to continue their winning ways, showing just how special they can be when all facets work together.

“We’re a different team than the last time we played,” head coach Amy Pauly stated. “We continue to diversify our offense; we’ve seen our block and defense improve every time we take the floor. They have really taken ownership of who they are as a team, and it’s really been a mentality shift that the team has taken.”

For the Valkyries sixth straight win, they recorded their best hitting efficiency of the season at .347. It marks the second longest win streak in league history, with the Atlanta Vibe winning seven in a row last year.

“We have really high expectations for ourselves,” Kaz Brown said. “We kind of want to be the pacesetters of this league, not run our race on someone else’s pace. The way we do that is to continue to improve in practices, score points from the service line, and then our passing tonight was tremendous. When we do that, we’re able to do a lot offensively.”

The Valkyries are back in action on Thursday, February 27, against the Omaha Supernovas at 8 p.m. ET at Chi Health Center in Omaha, Nebraska.

MAJOR LEAGUE W AS VALKYRIES WIN SEVENTH IN A ROW

The Orlando Valkyries have tied the all-time PVF record with seven consecutive victories, sweeping Omaha on the road by set scores of 26-24, 25-18, 26-24. It marks the second time this season that Orlando swept Omaha.

After tonight's sweep, Orlando now sits at the top of the PVF in first place with a 9-4 record, with Omaha now in second at 8-4. The last time Orlando lost was back on January 30, going the entire month without a single loss.

Despite this impressive win streak, Amy Pauly has constantly reminded her team that there's still plenty left in the tank. "Keep going. Don't get comfortable. Don't start thinking things will get easier, it's only going to get harder for us. I think they have been laser focused and really determined to make a statement as a whole."

Tonight marks the first time in history Omaha has been swept at home and a big reason why was due to a career night from Valkyries opposite Brittany Abercrombie.

"I think it's huge for us," Brittany Abercrombie stated. "I think it's a big statement and that we're here to stay and we're here to fight. People are going to have to earn their matches and fight for every point against us."

Abercrombie set a new PVF record with 24 kills in a three-set match, surpassing Leah Edmond's 22 kill performance she set against San Diego on March 2, 2024.

VALKS KEEP ON VIBIN WITH THEIR 8TH WIN IN A ROW

After a nail-biting win over the Atlanta Vibe (6-8) in five sets, the Orlando Valkyries (10-4) push their win streak to eight, setting the record for consecutive wins in Pro Volleyball Federation history. It also marks the Valkyries as the first team to win 10 matches, a testament to how special the season has been.

Orlando jumped out to an early 2-0 lead, looking to grab their seventh sweep of the season. Atlanta would crawl themselves back into it, winning the next two and forcing a deciding fifth set. Down 4-0 in the fifth set, Orlando turned to Lindsey Vander Weide and Abby Hansen off the bench, as they provided a jolt of energy that saw the Valkyries storm back, eventually taking the fifth set 15-13.

“The people that you guys aren’t seeing on the floor every night are the people that are making the team better,” head coach Amy Pauly stated, proud of the depth her team provides and how everyone stays focused. “If it wasn’t for them challenging us in practice every single day, we wouldn’t be improving.”

Not only have the Valkyries been red hot as of late, but the fans showed up and showed out for a big night, as the whole team really fed off the energy the crowd gave. In one of the best crowds of the season, it made all the difference in a match like this one.

“When we were on the sideline in the beginning of it and looking toward the crowd, they’re getting us excited and that gets us ready to go. There’s no better feeling than that,” Abby Hansen said.
