PRO VOLLEYBALL FEDERATION ON TV

Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) has announced the extensive schedule of nationally broadcast matches airing on CBS and FOX Sports outlets for 2025.

During the first 11 days of the regular season, fans can see head-to-head action in four nationally broadcast matches, showcasing seven of PVF's eight teams.

In total, 24 regular season matches are scheduled for CBS, CBS Sports Network, FS1, or FS2. The first All-Star Match in PVF history will also be shown on CBS. The event will be the first professional volleyball match aired on CBS's over-the-air network, marking a significant milestone for the league and the sport.

PVF has been rapidly expanding its network of national broadcast partners, with additional nationally televised matches to be announced in the coming days. With a robust network of broadcasters, PVF is poised to bring more eyes to the sport in 2025 than any other professional volleyball league. Fans can look forward to thrilling matchups on each network.

COLUMBUS FURY ON ROCK ENTERTAINMENT SPORTS NETWORK

The Columbus Fury, a charter member of the Pro Volleyball Federation, have partnered with Rock Entertainment Sports Network (RESN) to showcase several of the club's matches for fans across Ohio.

Ohio's only major professional women's team will have six home matches on RESN — the Buckeye state's premier regional sports network. RESN is a joint venture between Rock Entertainment

Group and Gray Media, owner of WOIO and WUAB in Cleveland and WXIX in Cincinnati.

"Our partnership with Rock Entertainment Sports Network represents an exciting opportunity to bring the energy and passion of Columbus Fury volleyball to even more fans across Ohio," said Dr. David Paitson, CEO of the Columbus Fury. "This collaboration ensures our world-class athletes and thrilling matches are accessible to a wider audience, strengthening our connection to the community and inspiring the next generation of volleyball players."

Columbus' world-class athletes will bring the excitement of professional volleyball to Fury fans in Central Ohio, Cleveland, and Cincinnati. Check your local listing for the Fury's matches on RESN.

Columbus Fury matches featured on RESN:

Friday, January 24 at 7:00 p.m. vs Omaha Supernovas

Sunday, January 26 at 2:00 p.m. vs Grand Rapids Rise

Wednesday, February 12 at 7:00 p.m. vs Orlando Valkyries

Wednesday, March 5 at 7:00 p.m. vs Omaha Supernovas

Friday, March 14 at 7:00 p.m. vs Vegas Thrill

Wednesday, April 16 at 7:00 p.m. vs San Diego Mojo

MEGAN LUSH IS A PVF ALL-STAR

Columbus Fury captain and two-time NCAA national champion Megan Lush has been named to the inaugural Pro Volleyball Federation All-Star Roster, the league announced on Wednesday. Lush joins 23 other all-stars to participate in the inaugural PVF All-Star game in Indianapolis, Indiana on February 22nd.

Every team is represented on the two 12-person rosters, led by the Atlanta Vibe, Orlando Valkyries and Vegas Thrill with four players apiece. The two squads will be led by a duo of volleyball coaching icons — Dave Shondell of Purdue and Georgia Tech's Michelle Collier.

Voting was comprised of several components, led by online fan voting that saw more than 10,000 fans of Pro Volleyball Federation cast ballots. Coaches added votes for their own players and that of other teams, while league volleyball operations staff members spent countless hours crunching numbers and comparing the top vote-getters along with the leading performers from 2025.

"The rosters for this unprecedented match are flat out outstanding," said Pro Volleyball Federation CEO Jen Spicher. "Putting these two teams together was a massive and difficult task based on how many great players there are in this league. To combine that with more than 10,000 fans voting just shows that if you can't be there in person, it's a must-watch event on CBS!"

Four players who won major awards in the league a year ago are represented — Leah Edmond of Atlanta (MVP, Outside Hitter of the Year), Orlando's Kaz Brown (Middle Blocker of the Year), Atlanta's Morgan Hentz (Libero of the Year) and Alisha Childress of Vegas (Most Inspirational Player).

PVF's history-making All-Star match begins at 1:30 pm ET at Fishers Event Center, home of Indy Ignite, PVF's newest franchise. All-Star tickets are available via Ticketmaster or the Fishers Event Center box office. For more information on the PVF All-Star Game and ticket availability visit ProVolleyball.com.

FURY ADD VETERAN IN NOOTSARA TOMKOM

The Columbus Fury is pleased to announce the signing of Nootsara Tomkom, a 16-year veteran in the world of professional volleyball. Tomkom, a native of Bangkok, Thailand, will join the Fury's active roster immediately and will be eligible to participate for the remainder of the 2025 regular season.

Widely regarded as one of the best setters in the world, Tomkom has played professionally since 2007, with stints in Spain, Switzerland, Azerbaijan, Turkey, and Thailand. Most recently, she played for the San Diego Mojo during the 2024 inaugural Pro Volleyball Federation campaign where she ranked third in the league with 932 assists and averaged 10.59 assists per set. She also contributed 270 digs and eight service aces over 88 sets earning her the inaugural PVF Setter of the Year award.

"We are pleased to have Nootsara join our team. Her ability to put our hitters in good positions will make her an effective member of our offense and help achieve all our offensive goals." said Head Coach Ángel Perez.

Nootsara has received two royal decorations from former King Bhumibol Adulyadej of Thailand: Commander (Third Class) of the Most Exalted Order of the White Elephant and Companion (Fourth Class) of the Most Admirable Order of the Direkgunabhorn. Her older sister, Nittaya, was her first coach and the inspiration behind her volleyball journey. She lists her father as someone who has made a significant difference in her life. If she were not playing volleyball, Nootsara's passion for food and cooking would have led her to become a chef. Her hobbies include traveling, shopping, and enjoying a variety of cuisines.

"I am very pleased to join the incredible team in Columbus and cannot wait to get started!" said Tomkom.

Nootsara joined the Thailand National Team at the age of 17 and has had an illustrious 20-year international career. She has won 10 Southeast Asian Games and two Asian Championships. Most recently, she was part of the Thailand team roster for the 2023 FIVB Road to Paris Volleyball Qualifier, where she tallied 42 assists over seven matches, including 15 assists in a match against Germany.

HEAD COACH ÁNGEL PÉREZ

Pérez is a distinguished former international player and one of the best-ever male players in Puerto Rico, having played in France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Romania, and Slovenia. He also played on the Puerto Rican men's national team and for the Changos de Naranjito in the Puerto Rican men's pro volleyball league.

Pérez coached the Puerto Rican Women's Superior Volleyball League's Las Pinkin de Corozal to back-to-back league championships and was also named the league's Manager of the Year for the second consecutive year in just his third season as a head coach.

Pérez played one season in the United States at BYU before returning home to play at Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico from 2002-06. Starting in 2006 Pérez played for the Puerto Rican men's national team and spent more than a dozen years representing his Puerto Rico in international play. He was captain of the national team from 2013-18.

NATIONWIDE ARENA

200 W Nationwide Blvd
Columbus, OH 43215
614.380.3879

Located on the corner of Nationwide Boulevard and Front Street in downtown Columbus, Nationwide Arena was built on a piece of property that was the site of the historic Ohio State Penitentiary. The support of naming rights partner Nationwide Insurance paved the way for the city to acquire an NHL expansion team, the Columbus Blue Jackets.

Nationwide Arena opened with back to back SOLD OUT Soul 2 Soul concerts featuring Tim McGraw and Faith Hill. Named one of the best arenas in the NHL, the facility opened to great fanfare in September of 2000 and has since hosted the NHL All-Star Game, regular season and playoff hockey, NCAA championships, local, regional and national conferences and a multitude of concerts and touring events.

Burrow Family Joins Ownership Group Of Columbus Fury

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Professional quarterback Joe Burrow and his parents Jimmy and Robin Burrow have joined the ownership group of Pro Volleyball Federation's Columbus Fury, the team announced.

The Burrows previously joined the League as equity partners soon after its launch in November 2022. Since then, the family has played an integral role in the League's growth and development, including attracting team owners and other Founding Partners.

"We are thrilled to add another layer of involvement in Pro Volleyball Federation with our new role with the Columbus Fury," said Jimmy Burrow, who also serves as Director, Brand Advancement for Pro Volleyball Federation. "Robin and I have made Ohio home, and Joe grew up in Ohio, so being able to be a part of Ohio's Pro Volleyball Federation team is a natural fit for us. We believe in this League and are excited about the future of Pro Volleyball Federation and the Columbus Fury."

Columbus will play its home matches at Nationwide Arena. The Fury open their home schedule on Wednesday, February 21, against the Omaha Supernovas. Season ticket deposits are being accepted now at columbusfury.com.

"I have been watching the growth of Pro Volleyball Federation since my parents and I joined the League, and it has been very impressive to see," said Joe Burrow. "It seems like every day more great news is announced about the League, whether it's the great players who continue to sign with the League, the outstanding coaches who are involved, or the new ownership groups and markets that are added. I am very proud to be a part of it, and I am now excited to say that my family is involved in the Columbus Fury ownership group."

Joe Burrow has already established an amazing legacy early in his career, having advanced the Cincinnati Bengals to a Super Bowl, won a national championship at the collegiate level, and won the Heisman Trophy. Joe spent three years on the Ohio State football team and is an Ohio State University graduate. Joe went on to play football at LSU where he won the Heisman Trophy and a national championship, and where he received his master's degree. Jimmy's Ohio ties also run deep, having served as defensive coordinator for Ohio University from 2005-18.

The Burrows join the ranks of high-profile individuals who have acquired ownership stakes in teams throughout the League. Three-time Olympic gold medalist Kerri Walsh Jennings is part of the ownership group of the San Diego Mojo, while global entertainment superstar Jason Derulo is an owner of the Omaha Supernovas. Dan DeVos (Grand Rapids Rise) and his family own the NBA's Orlando Magic, and the McCarthy Family who own the newly-announced Kansas City Pro Volleyball Federation team are also minority owners in the Kansas City Royals and Sacramento Kings.

PRO VOLLEYBALL FEDERATION

Pro Volleyball Federation is the leading professional volleyball league in the United States. PVF sets the standard for the sport, offering the largest number of franchises, unmatched attendance, extensive broadcast coverage and substantial championship prize money. It combines top-tier talent, including NCAA stars and international athletes, with cutting-edge production and technology to provide fans with an unmatched viewing experience. As a vital link between collegiate volleyball and the professional stage, PVF is dedicated to shaping the future of the sport and increasing visibility for its athletes.
