PVF Championship Seeding Policies & Procedures

If, following the completion of regular season play, there are ties among the teams in the standings, the following tiebreakers shall be used to determine playoff seeding and/or postseason participation.

The teams with the highest winning percentages will be seeded one through four. If there are any ties among the teams with the four highest winning percentages, the following tiebreakers should be utilized to break all ties:

1. Match points totals. Teams will be assigned point totals during the regular season based on the scores of each match. Points are assigned as follows:
 - a. 3 points for winning a match by the score of 3-0 or 3-1
 - b. 2 points for winning a match by the score of 3-2
 - c. 1 point for losing a match by the score of 2-3
2. Head-to-head results for all matches played amongst the tied teams
3. Sets ratio (Sets won divided by sets lost) for regular season matches only
4. Points ratio (Points won divided by points lost) for regular season matches only
5. Coin toss

In the event the tiebreakers are reduced to a coin toss, each team involved would be permitted to have a representative as part of the coin toss process, which will be held in person with league representatives or via video meeting in a timely manner the same day as the last regular season match is final.

If more than two teams have the same exact winning percentage after the regular season, the tiebreakers shall be used until one team is eliminated, at which point the tiebreaker between the remaining teams reverts to the first tiebreaker and the process continues until one team remains. If one team wins a multiple-team tiebreaker and is seeded, the remaining teams with an identical winning percentage go through the tiebreakers in a similar fashion until there is a single winner among the tied teams.

Viva Las Vegas! PVF Championship Set For Entertainment Capital

Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF), the leading professional volleyball league in the United States, will cap off its 2025 season with the PVF Championship in Las Vegas. The three postseason matches will take place at Lee's Family Forum in Henderson, Nev., home of the Vegas Thrill, with semifinal matches on Friday, May 9 and the Championship "Match for a Million" on Sunday, May 11.

The "Match for A Million" offers the most lucrative prize in American volleyball. The winning team earns a one million dollar bonus to be distributed among its roster players. Two semifinal matches will precede the title match on Friday evening. All three matches will be broadcast nationally on CBS Sports Network, continuing PVF's mission to bring unmatched visibility to its athletes and fans.

"Las Vegas is a destination city and the destination each PVF team fights to reach at the end of our extremely competitive season," touted Jen Spicher, Pro Volleyball Federation CEO. "We've built the most competitive league in the sport, and this championship is the culmination of an incredible season. We are thrilled to give our fans and followers a great reason to travel there to watch our top teams in person as they compete for a million dollars. Whether you're a lifelong fan or new to PVF, Vegas is the place to be."

Lee's Family Forum is a 5,567-seat state-of-the-art arena designed for high-energy competition. Opened in 2022, the venue blends modern amenities with a versatile layout, providing a premium experience for fans and athletes alike. Just minutes from the Las Vegas Strip, it's the perfect setting for the PVF's marquee moment. Tickets to the championship match will be available soon via ProVolleyball.com and the Lee's Family Forum box office.

"Lee's Family Forum has loved being Henderson's home for professional volleyball, and we are thrilled to host the Pro Volleyball Federation's second championship," said Paul Shlisky, SVP & GM of Lee's Family Forum. "Our arena is no stranger to high-intensity, action-packed events, and we can't wait to welcome the league's top teams and passionate fans for an unforgettable championship atmosphere."

"As the proud home of the Vegas Thrill and one of the inaugural cities in Pro Volleyball Federation, we're excited to welcome back elite athletes and passionate volleyball fans from across the country for an unforgettable championship weekend in a city built for world-class events," said Steve Hill, CEO and president of the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority.
