WELCOME TO INDY IGNITE PROFESSIONAL VOLLEYBALL

The Indy Ignite are one of eight teams taking the court in the second season of Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) competition. The mission of the Indy Ignite is to pursue victory, empower women and serve our community through the competitive world of pro volleyball. Indy is the only new PVF team in 2025. The other seven teams are the Atlanta Vibe, Columbus Fury, Grand Rapids Rise, Omaha Supernovas, Orlando Valkyries, San Diego Mojo and Vegas Thrill.

IGNITE CAN CLINCH PLAYOFF BERTH WITH VICTORY OVER SAN DIEGO

The path is simple: Win Sunday's match over visiting San Diego and Indy clinches the fourth and final Pro Volleyball Federation playoff position in the first season for the expansion franchise. It's not the only way the Ignite can clinch, but it's the fastest and most direct.

It would also end a five-match losing streak, Indy's longest of the season. Each of those defeats has been narrow – two came in five-setters and Friday's loss to Orlando saw Indy battle into extra points in the final two sets before dropping both. Ignite head coach George Padjen is reminding his team to focus solely on beating the Mojo and to tune out the noise about the postseason.

"I hear people chattering about it – it's the playoffs, it's the playoffs," Padjen said. "But to me, it's just we're playing Sunday. You can't look ahead one day, you can't look ahead one point."

PRO VOLLEYBALL FEDERATION PRIMER/PLAYOFFS INFORMATION

- Each PVF match is a best-of-five sets. In the first four sets, the winner is the first team to 25 points (with at least a two-point advantage); the winner of the fifth set is the first team to 15 points (again with a lead of two or more points).
- There are no line judges; line scoring is done with the use of 22 high-definition cameras placed around the court. Coaches are permitted two call challenges per set, with the challenge referee off site relaying the decision to referees on site.
- Each team plays 28 matches in the regular season, with four matches (two home, two away) against every other team in the league. The four teams with the best records advance to the playoffs to be held May 9-11 at Lee's Family Forum, home of the Vegas Thrill. Tickets to attend the matches are available at axs.com. Both the May 9 semifinals and the May 11 championship match will be telecast by the CBS Sports Network. The championship-winning team earns a $1 million prize.

PLOTTING IGNITE’S PATHS TO PVF PLAYOFFS

The Ignite are on the verge of clinching a PVF postseason berth in their inaugural season. Indy is currently fourth in the standings, with the top four teams at season’s end advancing to the playoffs. Omaha, Atlanta and Orlando have already qualified for the postseason. For Indy to join them, one of the following needs to happen:

- The Ignite win one of their three remaining matches, or
- Grand Rapids and Vegas both lose one more match.

If either of those happen and Indy winds up with an identical record as Grand Rapids, San Diego and/or Vegas at the conclusion of the regular season, the Ignite win the first playoff tiebreaker (match result totals) over all three teams.

CAJIC NAMED TO SERBIAN WOMEN’S NATIONAL TEAM

Ignite outside hitter Nina Cajic (shown above) has been named to the Serbian national women’s team that will compete in the 2025 Volleyball Nations League tournament beginning in June. The native of Subotica, Serbia, ranks second on the Ignite with 187 kills this season and appreciates the national team honor.

“Ever since I started playing volleyball, that’s been the dream of mine, just to get a chance,” Cajic said. “Not even to make the team or to play in the Olympics, just to get a chance to prove myself because in Serbia everyone is so good and so tall. When you grow up and people are telling you you’re too short and you’re not going to play at a high level, you get kind of mad. I just wanted to prove to myself that I can do it, so I’m just very excited for the chance.”

IGNITE SPARKING NATIONAL TV INTEREST

The Indy Ignite are scheduled to make at least a dozen national telecast appearances in 2025. The final two matches of the season will both stream for free on the Roku Channel. Dates and times for those matches are:

- Thursday, May 1 vs. Atlanta, Roku Channel, 7 p.m. ET
- Saturday, May 3 at San Diego, Roku Channel, 9:05 p.m. ET

KEEP BLASTING! IGNITE PACKING A PUNCH

The Ignite boast a potent attack, with the team at the top of PVF in multiple offensive categories. Indy leads the league in kills per set and assists per set, is first in kill percentage and second in points per set.

It’s been a total team effort. Middle blocker Lydia Martyn (shown above) leads the league in kill percentage (48.9%) and is second in kill efficiency (35.7%). Opposite hitter Azhani Tealer (shown above) is third in points scored (431) and kills (365) and tied for fourth in kill percentage (43.3%). Middle blocker Caroline “CC” Crawford is tied for seventh in kill efficiency (30.0%) and eighth in kill percentage (40.7%).

Setter Sydney Hilley has already set the PVF season record for assists (1,180 and counting), and her average of 11.46 assists per set is on pace to become another league standard. Hilley also is tied for ninth in service aces (15) and 10th in digs (275). Libero Elena Murr is fifth in digs (320).

HEAD COACH GEORGE PADJEN

Indy Ignite Head Coach George Padjen joined our inaugural team after a 21-year stint as assistant coach for the highly decorated volleyball program at Concordia University in St. Paul, Minn. Padjen is credited for helping turn the Concordia volleyball program into one of the greatest dynasties in college volleyball.

At Concordia he helped lead the team to nine NCAA championships.

As Indy Ignite's first head coach, Padjen recruited Indy's first players, built its team strategy and prepared the Ignite for success in our inaugural season this year.

"Volleyball is the ultimate team sport. All the pieces have to work in perfect unison, but no two players are alike," said Padjen. "My job is to help each player achieve their individual goals, while fostering an environment for team success. At Indy Ignite, we're working together to find that exact, right formula for victory by building a lasting culture around the principles of hard work and positive attitude."

Padjen also coached at Minnesota Select, one of the premier volleyball clubs in the country. "George brings a player-driven perspective to his coaching style, helping athletes develop their skills and embrace innovation both on and off the court," said Jim Schumacher, co-owner of Indy Ignite. "This entrepreneurial spirit makes him the perfect fit for Indy Ignite, as our team works to optimize the fan experience and bring the best of women's volleyball to Indianapolis."

Beyond coaching, Padjen is also the co-founder of Athlusion—a corporate search firm that connects athletes with career opportunities. Athlusion empowers former athletes to pursue their passions, while helping companies find game-changing hires that understand the value of teamwork. For Padjen, this role is an opportunity to build another winning team and drive innovation in the sports industry.
