News & Notes

- ⇒ Major League Volleyball (MLV) is the longest-running formal professional volleyball league in the United States, entering its third season in 2026.
- ⇒ MLV continues its growth – with Dallas taking the court for the first time this season and teams in Minnesota, Northern California and Washington DC confirmed for the 2027 campaign.
- ⇒ Major League Volleyball invests substantially in its players – scheduled to spend more than $11 million as a league in total player salaries and benefits in 2026.
- ⇒ Each team has a $1.2 million salary pool for player compensation. In addition, there are further financial bonuses for postseason awards and championship competition.
- ⇒ MLV plays in some of the largest markets in the nation – with all eight teams in 2026 located in the top 45 DMAs in America. Four are in the top 25 and in 2027, Major League Volleyball will add three more ranked in the top 20.
- ⇒ Over the first two seasons, more than 828,000 fans have attended MLV matches, with an average of more than 4,100 fans over the 200 matches overall.
- ⇒ In the first two campaigns, more than 23 percent of matches throughout the league have seen attendance figures over 5,000.
- ⇒ Every match in the league has been broadcast the past two seasons and fans will be able to watch the full slate again in 2026.
