BY THE NUMBERS

1 Outside hitter Grace Loberg was the first player to score a point in Mojo history, collecting a block on the road against Atlanta on February 1, 2024.

2 Outside hitter Shannon Scully has appeared in both league championship matches, advancing to the final with Grand Rapids in 2024 and winning with Orlando in 2025.

3 Opposite hitter Jovana Brakočević has made three Olympic appearances with Serbia (2008, 2012, 2016).

4 Mojo head coach Alisha Childress has won four NCAA Championships, three at Penn State as a player (2007-09) and one as an assistant coach at Stanford (2019).

7 Middle blocker Taylor Sandbothe has won seven professional championships across four continents.

38 Outside hitter Maya Tabron set a Mojo rookie record with 38 block during the 2025 season.

413 Libero Shara Venegas recorded a franchise-record 413 in 2025, the second-most in league single-season history.

998 Setter Marlie Monserez tallied 998 assists during the 2025 season, the third-most dishes in the league.

2,532 Libero Kate Georgiades collected 2,532 digs during her collegiate career, ranking 22nd all-time in NCAA Division I history.

MATCHUP STORYLINES

- Even Series History: San Diego and Orlando enter the matchup with the all-time series tied 4–4, with five of the eight meetings going the full five sets, including all four matchups in 2024, underscoring the competitive balance between the two clubs despite Orlando's recent edge.
- Home Court Tested: San Diego is 1–3 all-time at home against the Valkyries. Orlando won both matches played in San Diego last season in four sets.
- Recent Momentum Favors Orlando: The Valkyries won three of four meetings in 2025, including the most recent matchup — a four-set victory in San Diego — as part of their championship campaign.
- Champions vs. a New Era: Orlando arrives as the defending league champions and preseason favorites, while San Diego continues to build under first-year head coach Alisha Childress.
- Early-Season Measuring Stick: For San Diego, the matchup provides an early benchmark against the league's top standard, while Orlando looks to maintain momentum following a five-set season-opening win.

SAN DIEGO MOJO OUTLOOK

- A New Era Underway: 2026 marks the first season under head coach Alisha Glass Childress, a U.S. Olympic bronze medalist (2016) and former league All-Star setter. Childress brings championship experience and a player-first perspective as she guides the Mojo through her inaugural head coaching campaign.
- Opening Match Takeaways: San Diego opened the season with a three-set loss at Omaha but showed encouraging individual performances. Grace Loberg, Maya Tabron, Kayla Caffey, and Marlie Monserez each delivered strong performances. Loberg, Tabron and Caffey collected 10 points each. Loberg led the squad with nine kills and 10 digs, while Tabron added three blocks. Setter Marlie Monserez paced San Diego with 24 assists. San Diego first-round pick Hayden Kubik made her professional debut in the third set, recording two kills and an assist.
- Returning Leadership: Shara Venegas enters her third season with the Mojo, anchoring the defense with consistency and veteran presence. Morgan Lewis and Loberg return after competing with the inaugural 2024 team, providing continuity and familiarity within the lineup. Loberg remains a key figure in franchise history as the scorer of the first point in team history.
- All-Star Impact: All-Stars Venegas and Marin Grote continue to supply elite-level play at libero and middle blocker, particularly in high-pressure moments.
- Championship Pedigree: The roster features multiple NCAA champions, including Morgan Perkins (Texas A&M, 2025), Grace Loberg (Wisconsin, 2021), Kayla Caffey (Texas, 2022), McKenna Vicini (Stanford, 2019), and Shannon Scully (USC Beach, 2022).

bringing proven winning experience at the highest collegiate levels.

- Homegrown & Global Talent: California is well represented by Tabron, Scully, Lewis, Grote, and Allison Jacobs, while additional contributors from Texas, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, South Carolina, Iowa, Florida, Puerto Rico, and Serbia add international experience and stylistic diversity.
- Roster Balance: With versatility across positions and a blend of Olympic medalists, international veterans, and emerging collegiate stars, San Diego continues to build toward consistency and cohesion as the season progresses.

ORLANDO VALKYRIES OUTLOOK

- Defending Champions: The Orlando Valkyries enter the 2026 season as the reigning Major League Volleyball champions and the league's preseason favorite after earning the top spot in the 2026 MLV Preseason Poll. Orlando received five first-place votes and a league-high 46 points, narrowly edging Omaha for the top ranking.
- Championship Continuity: Orlando returns nine players from its 2025 title team, including the entire starting lineup from last season's championship run, providing rare continuity and chemistry for a defending champion.
- Season-Opening Momentum: The Valkyries opened the 2026 campaign with a five-set victory over Grand Rapids, demonstrating early resilience and composure in pressure moments.
- Star Power at the Core: Reigning league MVP and Opposite Hitter of the Year Brittany Abercrombie headlines the roster after being named the lone unanimous selection to the 2026 MLV Preseason All-League Team. Setter Pompun "Chompoo" Guedpard, also a Preseason All-League selection, continues to drive one of the league's most efficient and dynamic offenses.
- Despite returning its championship core, Orlando bolstered its roster with proven additions, including 2025 MLV All-Stars Charitie Luper and Hannah Maddux, 2022 World Championship Best Libero Teodora Pušić, former LOVB Madison standout Paige Reagor, and 2025 second-round pick Naya Shime, adding depth and experience across the lineup.
- Depth & Defensive Excellence: With Pušić anchoring the back row and multiple All-Stars across positions, the Valkyries boast elite defensive balance to complement their high-powered offense.

MOJO-VALKYRIES CONNECTIONS

- Old Friend: San Diego faces Lindsey Vander Weide, Orlando's outside hitter, who played for the Mojo in 2024, bringing a familiar opponent back to Viejas Arena.
- Former Valkyrie in Mojo Blue: Mojo outside hitter Shannon Scully was a key part of Orlando's 2025 championship run before returning home to California and signing with San Diego this offseason, giving the Mojo proven scoring and leadership from the outside.
- Collegiate Teammates: Mojo outside hitter Maya Tabron reunites with former SMU teammates Natalie Foster and Naya Shime of Orlando, while Mojo opposite Morgan Lewis faces former Oregon teammates Hannah Pukis, Georgia Murphy, and Colby Neal, creating familiar matchups across the court.
- Hometown Kids: Two Valkyries players – league MVP Brittany Abercrombie (Carlsbad, CA) and rookie middle blocker Colby Neal – hail from San Diego County, adding a hometown storyline for local fans at Viejas Arena.

NATIONAL TEAM FLAVOR

- San Diego's roster features players with extensive national team credentials, bringing international experience and high-level competition to the court:
  - Shara Venegas: A longtime member of the Puerto Rico National Team (2009–present), Venegas has earned multiple NORCECA and Pan American Cup medals.
  - Jovana Brakočević: Represented Serbia's National Team from 2006–2016, capturing numerous international medals and championships.
  - Maya Tabron: Competes for Team Sweden, participating in the 2025 FIVB Women's World Championship and Golden League.
  - Alisha Childress: U.S. Olympic bronze medalist (2016 Rio Games) and decorated setter with experience both as a player and as an assistant coach.

OLYMPIC REPRESENTATION

- Three members of the San Diego Mojo organization bring Olympic experience to the franchise, reflecting the team's global pedigree and elite competitive background.
- Libero Shara Venegas represented Puerto Rico at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, becoming part of the first Puerto Rico women's volleyball team to compete in the Olympics.
- Opposite Jovana Brakočević is a three-time Olympian (2008 Beijing, 2012 London, 2016 Rio) with Serbia, earning silver at the 2016 Rio Olympics, while also serving as Serbia's captain during her international career.
- Mojo head coach Alisha Childress competed for the United States at the 2016 Rio Olympics, winning a bronze medal, and remains one of the most accomplished setters in U.S. volleyball history.

ALL-LEAGUE & STANDOUT SELECTIONS

- Shara Venegas: The 2025 Most Inspirational Player honoree and an All-Star. Holds the Mojo franchise record for digs in a season (413) and ranks second all-time in league single-season digs. Recorded double-digit digs in 24 of 27 matches in 2025, including 18 of the final 19. Career-high 26 digs vs. Indy (May 3, 2025), the most ever by a Mojo player in a four-set match.
- Marin Grote: An All-Star in 2025; ranks among league leaders in blocking efficiency and hitting percentage. Anchored Grand Rapids' front court during consecutive postseason appearances.
- Marlie Monserez: A two-time All-League selection with Atlanta. Ranked third in the league in assists during the 2025 season. Brings elite experience running high-efficiency professional offenses, controlling tempo, and building chemistry with hitters.
- Championship Pedigree on the Bench: Head coach Alisha Childress also played in the 2025 All-Star Match during her final season as a setter.

HOMEGROWN & GLOBAL TALENT

- San Diego's roster features a mix of local standouts, U.S. talent from across the country, and world-class international players.
- California dominates the lineup with Maya Tabron (Gilroy), Shannon Scully (Huntington Beach), Morgan Lewis (Carlsbad), Marin Grote (Burbank), and Allison Jacobs (Stevenson Ranch) bringing both hometown pride and professional polish.
- The Midwest and beyond contribute elite athletes like Kayla Caffey (Chicago, Ill.), Grace Loberg (Geneva, Ill.), Taylor Sandbothe (Lee's Summit, Mo.), McKenna Vicini (Lexington, Ky.), and Hayden Kubik (West Des Moines, Iowa).
- Southern talent shines with Karis Watson (Rock Hill, S.C.), Kate Georgiades (College Station, Texas), Morgan Perkins (Rosharon, Texas), and Marlie Monserez (Windermere, Fla.).
- International experience anchors the roster through Shara Venegas (Toa Baja, Puerto Rico), a four-time World Championship participant and Olympian, and Jovana Brakočević (Zrenjanin, Serbia), a three-time Olympian and 2016 silver medalist.

VERSATILITY ACROSS THE COURT

- From middle blockers to outside hitters and defensive specialists, San Diego's roster is packed with multi-dimensional athletes.
- Shannon Scully and Morgan Lewis provide six-rotation adaptability, Morgan Perkins and Allison Jacobs deliver attacking firepower with defensive reliability, and McKenna Vicini, Karis Watson, and Taylor Sandbothe anchor the net with elite blocking and front-row presence.

MOJO HIGH DRAFT IMPACT

- The Mojo roster features four players drafted by San Diego during the first three years of the league: Morgan Lewis, Maya Tabron, Hayden Kubik, Allison Jacobs.

- Morgan Lewis | Opposite: Pac-12 standout at Oregon and AVCA All-American who was selected in the third round of the 2023 Draft, Lewis appeared in 20 matches during San Diego's inaugural season, recording 127 kills.

- Maya Tabron | Outside Hitter: A 2024 Draft pick, Tabron set multiple Mojo rookie records in 2025 (blocks, blocks per set, aces per set). Seven double-doubles and international experience with Team Sweden highlight her all-around game.

- Hayden Kubik | Outside Hitter: Selected third overall in the 2025 MLV Draft, Kubik led Tennessee in kills, points, and points per set during her final season. Brings explosive scoring, SEC-tested physicality, and emotional fire to the Mojo lineup.

- Allison Jacobs | Outside Hitter: Drafted 17th overall after standout careers at Michigan and UCLA, Jacobs posted double-digit kills in 25 matches in 2025. Her six-rotation versatility and high volleyball IQ add scoring depth and strategic flexibility.

NCAA CHAMPIONS ON THE ROSTER

- Morgan Perkins played a starring role in Texas A&M's first-ever NCAA women's volleyball title in 2025, leading a veteran Aggie squad to a championship sweep.

- Kayla Caffey was instrumental in Texas' 2022 NCAA national championship, providing pivotal contributions throughout the Longhorns' title campaign.

- Grace Loberg helped Wisconsin capture its inaugural NCAA national championship in 2021, contributing as a key piece of the Badgers' historic run.

- McKenna Vicini was part of Stanford's 2019 NCAA championship team, helping the Cardinal secure one of the program's most celebrated seasons.

- Shannon Scully translated her collegiate success to the sand, playing a key role in USC's 2022 NCAA Beach Volleyball National Championship and adding versatility to the Mojo roster.

- Coach Alisha Childress won an NCAA title as a player at Penn State (2007–09) and has continued her championship impact as a coach, including her role at Stanford in 2019.

MOJO'S DEFENSIVE DYNAMO

- One of the most accomplished liberos in international volleyball, Shara Venegas brings over 15 years of professional and national team experience.

- 2025 Most Inspirational Player and All-Star.

- Holds the Mojo franchise record for digs in a season (413) and ranks second all-time in PVF single-season digs.

- Recorded double-digit digs in 24 of 27 matches in 2025, including 18 of the final 19.

- Career-high 26 digs vs. Indy (May 3, 2025), the most ever by a Mojo player in a four-set match.

OPPOSITE POWERHOUSE

- Jovana Brakočević is a three-time Olympian and 2016 Olympic silver medalist for Serbia.

- Six-time professional MVP with championships in over 10 countries.

- MVP of Champions League and FIVB Club World Championship with VakıfBank.

- Led Serbia to its first European Championship gold in 2011 (MVP, Best Spiker).

ELITE NET PRESENCE

- Taylor Sandbothe, three-time AVCA All-American and 2023 Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame inductee.

- Holds Ohio State records for total blocks and block assists.

- Seven-time professional champion across four continents.

- Ranked among league leaders in aces during LOVB Madison's inaugural season.

SETTING SAVANT

- Marlie Monserez, two-time PVF All-League selection with Atlanta.

- Ranked third in the league in assists in 2025.

- Two-time AVCA All-American at Florida.

- Known for tempo control, offensive balance, and chemistry-building.

TABRON TAKES CHARGE

- Maya Tabron, dual U.S./Swedish citizen, representing Sweden internationally.

- Set multiple Mojo rookie records in 2025 (blocks, blocks per set, aces per set).

- Posted seven double-doubles during 2025 rookie season.

- One of the PVF's most versatile two-way outside hitters.

BLOCKING BOSS

- Marin Grote, two-time All-Pac-12 selection and AVCA All-American at Washington.

- An All-Star in 2025 with Grand Rapids, ranked among league leaders in blocking efficiency.

- Anchored front court during consecutive postseason appearances.

EMERGING OPPOSITE ACE

- Morgan Lewis, AVCA All-American and former Pac-12 standout at Oregon.

- Appeared in 20 matches in San Diego's inaugural season, recording 127 kills.

- Known for composure, efficiency, and disciplined play on the right side.

- Developing into one of the PVF's most reliable young opposites.

RELIABLE RALLY HITTER

- Grace Loberg, NCAA National Champion (2021) and four-year starter at Wisconsin.

- Appeared in 139 collegiate matches, recording over 1,200 career kills.

- Returned to San Diego after competing with Vegas in the 2025 season.

- Known for six-rotation reliability and championship pedigree.

MIDDLE BLOCK MARVEL

- Kayla Caffey is one of the PVF's most explosive and athletic middle blockers.
- Helped Omaha secure the league's top regular-season record in 2025, appearing in 25 matches.

- Ranked top 10 in PVF in service aces, hitting percentage, and kill efficiency.

- Two-time NCAA Championship finalist and 2022 national champion at Texas.

LIBERO LEGEND

- Kate Georgiades, two-time AVCA All-American, one of the most prolific liberos in NCAA history.

- Recorded multiple 20+ dig matches during the PVF season with Columbus.

- Finished collegiate career 22nd all-time in NCAA Division I digs.

SIX-ROTATION STAR

- Shannon Scully, NCAA Beach Volleyball National Champion and AVCA All-American.

- Has appeared in each of the first two league championships, advancing to the final with Grand Rapids in 2024 and winning it all with Orlando in 2025.

- Versatile as a six-rotation outside hitter or libero.

- Combines indoor precision with beach-honed ball control.

HIGH-VOLUME HITTER

- Hayden Kubik, selected third overall in 2025 MLV Draft.

- Led Tennessee in kills, points, and points per set during final season.

VERSATILE VICTORY MACHINE

- Allison Jacobs, outside hitter, drafted 17th overall in the 2025 MLV Draft after standout careers at Michigan and UCLA.

- 2025 AVCA All-American honorable mention and All-North Region selection.

- Recorded double-digit kills in 25 matches in 2025.

WELCOME TO MAJOR LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL

- Major League Volleyball is the premier professional women’s indoor volleyball league in North America, featuring elite American players, Olympians and top international talent.
- Entering its third season, MLV continues to elevate the sport through high-level competition, innovation and nationwide visibility.
- The league is aligned with USA Volleyball and committed to Olympic development, serving as a premier pathway from professional play to the international stage.

EXPANSION AND GROWTH IN MAJOR LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL

- Major League Volleyball’s footprint continues to expand, highlighted by Dallas taking the court for the first time this season and the addition of teams in Minnesota, Northern California and Washington, D.C., confirmed for the 2027 campaign.
- With continued strategic growth, the league is slated to feature 11 teams during the 2027 season, further strengthening its national presence.
- MLV already competes in some of the nation’s largest media markets, with all eight teams in 2026 located within the top 45 designated market areas (DMAs).
- Four current teams are based in top-25 DMAs, and the addition of three new franchises in 2027 will bring Major League Volleyball into three more top-20 markets.

RECORD INVESTMENT IN PLAYER SALARIES AND BENEFITS

- Major League Volleyball invests substantially in its players – scheduled to spend more than $11 million as a league in total player salaries and benefits in 2026.
- Each team has a $1.2 million salary pool for player compensation. In addition, there are further financial bonuses for postseason awards and championship competition.

DELIVERING STRONG ATTENDANCE AND FULL BROADCAST COVERAGE

- Over the first two seasons, more than 828,000 fans have attended MLV matches, with an average of more than 4,100 fans over the 200 matches overall.
- In the first two campaigns, more than 23 percent of matches throughout the league have seen attendance figures over 5,000.
- Every match in the league has been broadcast the past two seasons and fans will be able to watch the full slate again in 2026.

ORLANDO TO HOST ANNUAL ALL-STAR MATCH

- The 2026 Major League Volleyball All-Star Match will be played Saturday, March 28 at noon ET at Addition Financial Arena, home of the Orlando Valkyries, and will air live on CBS and Paramount+.
- Orlando hosts the league’s marquee event for the first time, as the defending champion Valkyries welcome the league’s top stars to one of the nation’s premier sports and entertainment destinations.

- The All-Star Match returns to CBS network television for the second straight season after last year’s broadcast peaked at 445,000 viewers, underscoring the league’s continued national growth.

MLV UNVEILS RECORD 50-MATCH NATIONAL BROADCAST SCHEDULE

- Major League Volleyball announced a landmark 50-match national broadcast schedule, the most expansive media rollout in league history, highlighted by the MLV Championship airing on ION and the All-Star Match on CBS and Paramount+.
- The season will feature coverage across CBS Sports, Roku Sports Channel, ION, VICE and MLV digital platforms, with opening weekend, weekly marquee matchups, and postseason action showcased on national television.
- For the third consecutive season, every remaining match will also be available on the MLV YouTube Channel and through local broadcast agreements, providing nationwide access and continued growth for professional volleyball in the U.S.

VIEJAS ARENA: WHERE THE ACTION HAPPENS

- Opened in 1997, Viejas Arena provides a 12,414-seat, state-of-the-art venue while keeping fans close to the court for an intimate, high-energy volleyball experience.
- Built directly into a canyon hillside, the arena preserves elements of the original Aztec Bowl, including two sections of concrete bleachers and historic cobblestone walls. The site also features a 10-ton granite boulder commemorating President John F. Kennedy's 1963 commencement address at Aztec Bowl.
- The arena features modern amenities including a $2.3 million Daktronics center-hung scoreboard with live stats, six locker rooms, two team rooms, a green room with three individual dressing rooms, a training room, and a workroom.
- Flexible seating configurations allow the venue to host anywhere from 3,000 to 13,500 fans depending on the event, including 240 ADA-accessible seats and form-fitted bench seating in key sections. A premier on-campus indoor arena, Viejas Arena provides a 12,414-seat, state-of-the-art venue, keeping fans close to the floor for an electric game-day atmosphere.

A PREMIER VENUE FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS AND MAJOR EVENTS

- NCAA Championships: Viejas Arena has hosted multiple marquee collegiate events, including Men's Basketball first and second rounds (2001, 2006, 2014, 2018, 2022, and upcoming 2026), the 2001 Women's Volleyball National Championship, and Women's Basketball first and second rounds (2009).

- Concerts & Entertainment: The arena has welcomed world-class performers, including Cher, Eric Clapton, Britney Spears, John Mayer, The Chainsmokers, Black Eyed Peas, Aerosmith, Billy Joel, and Elton John, offering unforgettable experiences for fans beyond sports.
- Versatile Event Space: From championship matchups to top-tier concerts, Viejas Arena seamlessly blends athletic competition with cultural and entertainment programming, making it one of San Diego's most iconic venues.

FAN & GAME-DAY EXPERIENCE

- Known for its intimate and energetic environment, Viejas Arena brings fans close to the action for unforgettable volleyball experiences.
- Designed to maximize athlete performance and fan engagement, the arena combines modern amenities, flexible seating, and high-end facilities.
- Continues the tradition of being one of San Diego's most historic and unique event spaces, blending athletic excellence with cultural and entertainment programming.

- Concessions and catering are provided by Aztec Shops, offering both classic sports fare and specialty options. The Mezzanine Level includes a VIP Room for banquets, pre- and post-game functions, and interviews, totaling 2,200 square feet of flexible space.

HISTORY & NAMING RIGHTS

- Constructed on the site of the historic Aztec Bowl (1936–1967), which hosted SDSU football and cultural events.
- Originally known as Cox Arena until 2009, when the Viejas Band of Kumeyaay Indians secured a 10-year naming rights agreement.

QUICK FACTS

- Capacity: 12,414 for volleyball and basketball, expandable to 13,500 for concerts.
- VIP & Hospitality: 2,200 sq. ft. Mezzanine VIP Room, adaptable for events or media use.
- Technology: Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, full broadcast capabilities, and live stats.
- Notable Features: Built into canyon hillside, incorporates historic Aztec Bowl elements, commemorative Kennedy boulder.

ALISHA CHILDRESS

HEAD COACH

The San Diego Mojo tabbed U.S. Olympic bronze medalist and four-time NCAA champion Alisha Glass Childress as the second head coach in franchise history on August 10, 2025. Childress previously served as an assistant coach at Stanford University and with the U.S. Women's National Team. She also served as a coach during the 2025 season with Athletes Unlimited.

Childress joined the Stanford coaching staff in 2019, spending two seasons on the Cardinal sideline and playing a pivotal role in helping guide the program to victory in the 2019 NCAA National Championship.

Before her time on The Farm, Childress served as an assistant coach with the U.S. National Team during the 2018 Pan American Cup, where the U.S. rallied to win gold over host Dominican Republic.

As a player, Childress is regarded as one of the top setters in the world. During her nine-year professional career, she played in the United States, Italy, Turkey, Poland, Puerto Rico and Brazil. Childress spent the 2024 and 2025 seasons with the Vegas Thrill, collecting All-League accolades in 2024 while also earning Most Inspirational Player honors from the league's coaches, and playing in the league's inaugural All-Star Match in 2025.

Childress directed U.S. National Team offensive attacks for six years, helping lead Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio, where she earned Best Setter honors. She was also selected Best Setter of the 2016 NORCECA Olympic Qualification Tournament, guiding the U.S. to gold and an automatic spot in the Rio Games.

A two-time USA Volleyball Indoor Athlete of the Year (2013, 2014), Childress earned gold medals in three consecutive FIVB World Grand Prix Finals (2010, 2011, 2012).

Childress played collegiately at Penn State from 2006–09 for legendary head coach Russ Rose, leading the Nittany Lions to three straight national titles from 2007–09 and posting a 110–2 record during the three-year run. She was a three-time AVCA All-American, three-time All-Big Ten Conference and three-time NCAA Championship All-Tournament selection, and a nominee for the 2009 Honda Volleyball Award.

A four-year starter for the Nittany Lions, she concluded her Penn State career ranked fourth in program history with 5,800 assists and 12.47 assists per set, 13th in hitting percentage at .336 and blocks with 448 and 15th with 465 sets played.

As a prep player, the Leland, Michigan native was a four-year letterwinner at Leland High, earning Michigan Gatorade Player of the Year and Miss Volleyball for the state of Michigan in 2006 after leading the Comets to the 2006 Class D state championship, producing a single-match record of 48 kills in the title match. She was a four-time first-team all-state, all-region and all-conference selection, concluding her high school career as the National and State High School record holder in season aces (296), career aces (937) and career kills (3,584).

A two-sport star, she earned first-team all-state accolades in basketball her junior and senior seasons. Raised in a coaching family, her mother, Laurie Glass, was her high school volleyball coach, and her grandfather, Larry Glass, was her high school basketball coach.

Childress is married to eight-year NBA basketball veteran and Stanford All-American Josh Childress. They have three daughters, Maya, Mina and Amara.
