News & Notes

- ⇒ The 13 matches this season have showcased the even balance of MLV teams. A total of 34 sets (out of 69) have had margins of three points or less (49.3%). There are 66 of 69 sets overall that saw margins in single digits (95.7%).
- ⇒ Major League Volleyball has had some solid attendance in its first three weeks of play, with an average of 4,288 fans in 16 home matches.
- ⇒ Women hold 75 percent of the head coaching positions in MLV, where six of the eight head leaders are female.
- ⇒ Major League Volleyball (MLV) is the longest-running formal professional volleyball league in the United States, playing its third season in 2026.
- ⇒ MLV continues its growth – with Dallas taking the court for the first time this season and teams in Minnesota, Northern California and Washington DC confirmed for the 2027 campaign.
- ⇒ Major League Volleyball invests substantially in its players – scheduled to spend nearly $13 million as a league in total player salaries and benefits in 2026.
- ⇒ Each team has a $1.2 million salary pool for player compensation. In addition, there are further financial bonuses for postseason awards and championship competition.
- ⇒ MLV plays in some of the largest markets in the nation – with all eight teams in 2026 located in the top 45 DMAs in America. Four are in the top 25 and in 2027, Major League Volleyball will add three more ranked in the top 20.
- ⇒ Over the first two seasons, more than 897,000 fans have attended MLV matches, with an average of more than 4,100 fans over the 200+ matches overall.

DID YOU KNOW??

The two most recent MLV expansion teams - Indy and Dallas - each won their first road matches played during their inaugural seasons.

Indy's 22-20 win at Columbus in set five on January 17 was the highest-scoring fifth set in MLV history. It sets records for most points combined, plus most points by the winning and losing teams in the fifth set of any match.
