MATCHUP STORYLINES

- Second Meeting, Same Site: San Diego and Omaha meet for the second time this season, with both January matchups taking place in Omaha. The Supernovas swept the season opener and have topped the Mojo in the last two games played at CHI Health Center.
- Home-Court History: Omaha holds a narrow 5-4 edge in the all-time regular-season series and has been difficult to beat at CHI Health Center, where San Diego is 1-4 all time in regular-season play.
- Controlling the Tempo: The matchup features one of the league's top-setting duels, with Omaha's Sydney Hilley leading MLV in assists and assists per set while San Diego's Marlie Monserez ranks among league leaders in assists and efficiency as the Mojo look to dictate pace and offensive balance.
- Backcourt Battle: Defensively, both teams are anchored by elite liberos. Omaha's Morgan Hentz leads the league in total digs, while San Diego's Shara Venegas tops the league in digs per set, setting up extended rallies and serve-serve pressure on both sides.
- Pin Pressure: The match places emphasis on production from the outside, with league-leading scorer Brooke Nuneviller headlining the Supernovas attack against a balanced Mojo pin group led by Grace Loberg, Maya Tabron, and Jovana Brakočević.
- Response Opportunity: After being swept in the season opener, San Diego enters focused on execution and resilience, looking to translate recent individual production and improved efficiency into a stronger result in the second meeting.

SAN DIEGO MOJO OUTLOOK

- Competitive but Searching for Results: San Diego showed resilience and stretches of high-level play in a four-set home loss to Grand Rapids, but continues to seek consistency as it settles into the early season.
- Loberg Stays Hot: Outside hitter Grace Loberg led all scorers with 23 points, recording her second straight double-double with 20 kills and 15 digs while adding a season-high three blocks and hitting .351. She remains one of the most productive all-around players in Major League

- Home-Court Edge Developing: Despite the loss, San Diego has been competitive at Viejas Arena, continuing to build confidence and chemistry in front of the home crowd.
- Building Toward Consistency: With experienced veterans, proven collegiate champions, and emerging contributors, the Mojo remain focused on translating strong individual performances into sustained team results as the season progresses.

OMAHA SUPERNOVAS OUTLOOK

- Even Record, Home Test Ahead: Omaha enters the matchup at 3-3 overall as it returns home to CHI Health Center, looking to stabilize after a stretch of early-season inconsistency. All three of the Supernovas' losses have come at home.
- League-Leading Setter: Setter Sydney Hilley directs one of the league's most efficient offenses, leading Major League Volleyball in total assists (284) and assists per set (11.36).
- Backcourt Anchor: Libero Morgan Hentz leads the league in total digs (96) and ranks second in digs per set (3.84), anchoring Omaha's serve-receive and defensive systems.
- Elite Pin Production: Outside hitter Brooke Nuneviller leads the league in kills (108) and points (115) while ranking second in kills per set (4.32) and fourth in points per set (4.60), serving as the focal point of the Supernovas attack.
- Momentum Shift: Omaha snapped a team-record three-match losing streak with a four-set road win at the Indy Ignite on Saturday.
- Execution Focus: With elite production from the setter position and consistent scoring on the pins, Omaha remains a disciplined and high-tempo opponent, particularly when dictating pace in transition.

MOJO-SUPERNOVAS CONNECTIONS

- Cross-Team Players: Kayla Caffey, a key part of Omaha's roster in 2025, now brings her talents to San Diego, while Leyla Blackwell, who made her San Diego debut last season, heads to Omaha for 2026.
- Collegiate Connection: Mojo middle blocker McKenna Vicini and Supernovas libero Morgan Hentz were teammates at Stanford, including during the Cardinals' 2019 NCAA Championship season, giving them shared history heading into this matchup. Mojo head coach Alisha Childress was an assistant coach for the Cardinal championship team.

- 2025 AVCA All-American honorable mention and All-North Region selection.
- Recorded double-digit kills in 25 matches in 2025.

NATIONAL TEAM FLAVOR

- San Diego's roster features players with extensive national team credentials, bringing international experience and high-level competition to the court:
 - Shara Venegas: A longtime member of the Puerto Rico National Team (2009–present), Venegas has earned multiple NORCECA and Pan American Cup medals.
 - Jovana Brakočević: Represented Serbia's National Team from 2006–2016, capturing numerous international medals and championships.
 - Maya Tabron: Competes for Team Sweden, participating in the 2025 FIVB Women's World Championship and Golden League.
 - Alisha Childress: U.S. Olympic bronze medalist (2016 Rio Games) and decorated setter with experience both as a player and as an assistant coach.

OLYMPIC REPRESENTATION

- Three members of the San Diego Mojo organization bring Olympic experience to the franchise, reflecting the team's global pedigree and elite competitive background.
- Libero Shara Venegas represented Puerto Rico at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, becoming part of the first Puerto Rico women's volleyball team to compete in the Olympics.
- Opposite Jovana Brakočević is a three-time Olympian (2008 Beijing, 2012 London, 2016 Rio) with Serbia, earning silver at the 2016 Rio Olympics, while also serving as Serbia's captain during her international career.

- Mojo head coach Alisha Childress competed for the United States at the 2016 Rio Olympics, winning a bronze medal, and remains one of the most accomplished setters in U.S. volleyball history.

ALL-LEAGUE & STANDOUT SELECTIONS

- Shara Venegas: The 2025 Most Inspirational Player honoree and an All-Star. Holds the Mojo franchise record for digs in a season (413) and ranks second all-time in league single-season digs. Recorded double-digit digs in 24 of 27 matches in 2025, including 18 of the final 19. Career-high 26 digs vs. Indy (May 3, 2025), the most ever by a Mojo player in a four-set match.
- Marin Grote: An All-Star in 2025; ranks among league leaders in blocking efficiency and hitting percentage. Anchored Grand Rapids' front court during consecutive postseason appearances.
- Marlie Monserez: A two-time All-League selection with Atlanta. Ranked third in the league in assists during the 2025 season. Brings elite experience running high-efficiency professional offenses, controlling tempo, and building chemistry with hitters.
- Championship Pedigree on the Bench: Head coach Alisha Childress also played in the 2025 All-Star Match during her final season as a setter.

HOMEGROWN & GLOBAL TALENT

- San Diego's roster features a mix of local standouts, U.S. talent from across the country, and world-class international players.
- California dominates the lineup with Maya Tabron (Gilroy), Shannon Scully (Huntington Beach), Morgan Lewis (Carlsbad), Marin Grote (Burbank), and Allison Jacobs (Stevenson Ranch) bringing both hometown pride and professional polish.
- The Midwest and beyond contribute elite athletes like Kayla Caffey (Chicago, Ill.), Grace Loberg (Geneva, Ill.), Taylor Sandbothe (Lee's Summit, Mo.), McKenna Vicini (Lexington, Ky.), and Hayden Kubik (West Des Moines, Iowa).
- Southern talent shines with Karis Watson (Rock Hill, S.C.), Kate Georgiades (College Station, Texas), Morgan Perkins (Rosharon, Texas), and Marlie Monserez (Windermere, Fla.).
- International experience anchors the roster through Shara Venegas (Toa Baja, Puerto Rico), a four-time World Championship participant and Olympian, and Jovana Brakočević (Zrenjanin, Serbia), a three-time Olympian and 2016 silver medalist.

MOJO HIGH DRAFT IMPACT

- The Mojo roster features four players drafted by San Diego during the first three years of the league: Morgan Lewis, Maya Tabron, Hayden Kubik, Allison Jacobs.
 - Morgan Lewis | Opposite: Pac-12 standout at Oregon and AVCA All-American who was selected in the third round of the 2023 Draft, Lewis appeared in 20 matches during San Diego's inaugural season, recording 127 kills.
 - Maya Tabron | Outside Hitter: A 2024 Draft pick, Tabron set multiple Mojo rookie records in 2025 (blocks, blocks per set, aces per set). Seven double-doubles and international experience with Team Sweden highlight her all-around game.
 - Hayden Kubik | Outside Hitter: Selected third overall in the 2025

MLV Draft, Kubik led Tennessee in kills, points, and points per set during her final season. Brings explosive scoring, SEC-tested physicality, and emotional fire to the Mojo lineup.

- Allison Jacobs | Outside Hitter: Drafted 17th overall after standout careers at Michigan and UCLA, Jacobs posted double-digit kills in 25 matches in 2025. Her six-rotation versatility and high volleyball IQ add scoring depth and strategic flexibility.

NCAA CHAMPIONS ON THE ROSTER

- Morgan Perkins played a starring role in Texas A&M's first-ever NCAA women's volleyball title in 2025, leading a veteran Aggie squad to a championship sweep.
- Kayla Caffey was instrumental in Texas' 2022 NCAA national championship, providing pivotal contributions throughout the Longhorns' title campaign.
- Grace Loberg helped Wisconsin capture its inaugural NCAA national championship in 2021, contributing as a key piece of the Badgers' historic run.
- McKenna Vicini was part of Stanford's 2019 NCAA championship team, helping the Cardinal secure one of the program's most celebrated seasons.
- Shannon Scully translated her collegiate success to the sand, playing a key role in USC's 2022 NCAA Beach Volleyball National Championship and adding versatility to the Mojo roster.
- Coach Alisha Childress won an NCAA title as a player at Penn State (2007–09) and has continued her championship impact as a coach, including her role at Stanford in 2019.

WELCOME TO MAJOR LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL

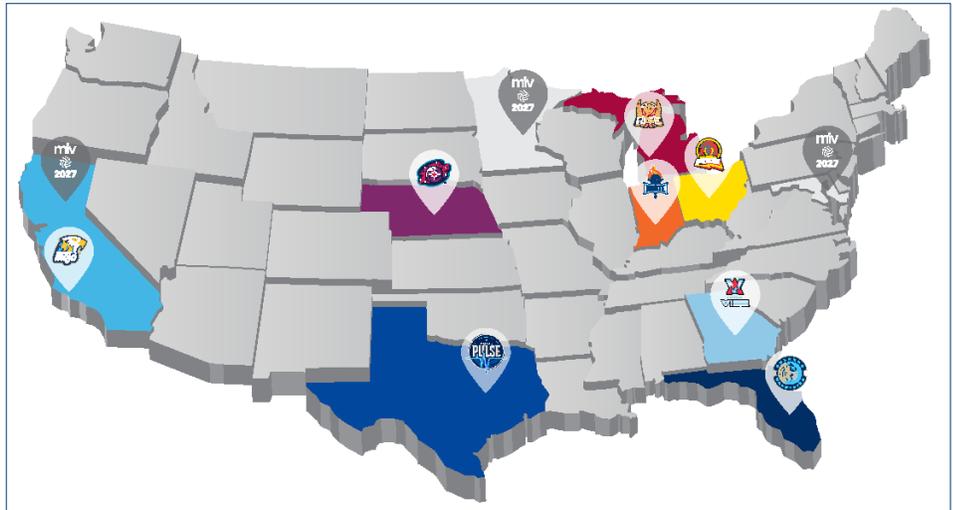

- Major League Volleyball is the premier professional women’s indoor volleyball league in North America, featuring elite American players, Olympians and top international talent.
- Entering its third season, MLV continues to elevate the sport through high-level competition, innovation and nationwide visibility.
- The league is aligned with USA Volleyball and committed to Olympic development, serving as a premier pathway from professional play to the international stage.

EXPANSION AND GROWTH IN MAJOR LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL

- Major League Volleyball’s footprint continues to expand, highlighted by Dallas taking the court for the first time this season and the addition of teams in Minnesota, Northern California and Washington, D.C., confirmed for the 2027 campaign.
- With continued strategic growth, the league is slated to feature 11 teams during the 2027 season, further strengthening its national presence.
- MLV already competes in some of the nation’s largest media markets, with all eight teams in 2026 located within the top 45 designated market areas (DMAs).
- Four current teams are based in top-25 DMAs, and the addition of three new franchises in 2027 will bring Major League Volleyball into three more top-20 markets.

RECORD INVESTMENT IN PLAYER SALARIES AND BENEFITS

- Major League Volleyball invests substantially in its players – scheduled to spend more than $11 million as a league in total player salaries and benefits in 2026.
- Each team has a $1.2 million salary pool for player compensation. In addition, there are further financial bonuses for postseason awards and championship competition.

DELIVERING STRONG ATTENDANCE AND FULL BROADCAST COVERAGE

- Over the first two seasons, more than 828,000 fans have attended MLV matches, with an average of more than 4,100 fans over the 200 matches overall.
- In the first two campaigns, more than 23 percent of matches throughout the league have seen attendance figures over 5,000.
- Every match in the league has been broadcast the past two seasons and fans will be able to watch the full slate again in 2026.

ORLANDO TO HOST ANNUAL ALL-STAR MATCH

- The 2026 Major League Volleyball All-Star Match will be played Saturday, March 28 at noon ET at Addition Financial Arena, home of the Orlando Valkyries, and will air live on CBS and Paramount+.
- Orlando hosts the league’s marquee event for the first time, as the defending champion Valkyries welcome the league’s top stars to one of the nation’s premier sports and entertainment destinations.

- The All-Star Match returns to CBS network television for the second straight season after last year’s broadcast peaked at 445,000 viewers, underscoring the league’s continued national growth.

MLV UNVEILS RECORD 50-MATCH NATIONAL BROADCAST SCHEDULE

- Major League Volleyball announced a landmark 50-match national broadcast schedule, the most expansive media rollout in league history, highlighted by the MLV Championship airing on ION and the All-Star Match on CBS and Paramount+.
- The season will feature coverage across CBS Sports, Roku Sports Channel, ION, VICE and MLV digital platforms, with opening weekend, weekly marquee matchups, and postseason action showcased on national television.
- For the third consecutive season, every remaining match will also be available on the MLV YouTube Channel and through local broadcast agreements, providing nationwide access and continued growth for professional volleyball in the U.S.

VIEJAS ARENA: WHERE THE ACTION HAPPENS

- Opened in 1997, Viejas Arena provides a 12,414-seat, state-of-the-art venue while keeping fans close to the court for an intimate, high-energy volleyball experience.
- Built directly into a canyon hillside, the arena preserves elements of the original Aztec Bowl, including two sections of concrete bleachers and historic cobblestone walls. The site also features a 10-ton granite boulder commemorating President John F. Kennedy's 1963 commencement address at Aztec Bowl.
- The arena features modern amenities including a $2.3 million Daktronics center-hung scoreboard with live stats, six locker rooms, two team rooms, a green room with three individual dressing rooms, a training room, and a workroom.
- Flexible seating configurations allow the venue to host anywhere from 3,000 to 13,500 fans depending on the event, including 240 ADA-accessible seats and form-fitted bench seating in key sections. A premier on-campus indoor arena, Viejas Arena provides a 12,414-seat, state-of-the-art venue, keeping fans close to the floor for an electric game-day atmosphere.

A PREMIER VENUE FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS AND MAJOR EVENTS

- NCAA Championships: Viejas Arena has hosted multiple marquee collegiate events, including Men's Basketball first and second rounds (2001, 2006, 2014, 2018, 2022, and upcoming 2026), the 2001 Women's Volleyball National Championship, and Women's Basketball first and second rounds (2009).

- Concerts & Entertainment: The arena has welcomed world-class performers, including Cher, Eric Clapton, Britney Spears, John Mayer, The Chainsmokers, Black Eyed Peas, Aerosmith, Billy Joel, and Elton John, offering unforgettable experiences for fans beyond sports.
- Versatile Event Space: From championship matchups to top-tier concerts, Viejas Arena seamlessly blends athletic competition with cultural and entertainment programming, making it one of San Diego's most iconic venues.

FAN & GAME-DAY EXPERIENCE

- Known for its intimate and energetic environment, Viejas Arena brings fans close to the action for unforgettable volleyball experiences.
- Designed to maximize athlete performance and fan engagement, the arena combines modern amenities, flexible seating, and high-end facilities.
- Continues the tradition of being one of San Diego's most historic and unique event spaces, blending athletic excellence with cultural and entertainment programming.

- Concessions and catering are provided by Aztec Shops, offering both classic sports fare and specialty options. The Mezzanine Level includes a VIP Room for banquets, pre- and post-game functions, and interviews, totaling 2,200 square feet of flexible space.

HISTORY & NAMING RIGHTS

- Constructed on the site of the historic Aztec Bowl (1936–1967), which hosted SDSU football and cultural events.
- Originally known as Cox Arena until 2009, when the Viejas Band of Kumeyaay Indians secured a 10-year naming rights agreement.

QUICK FACTS

- Capacity: 12,414 for volleyball and basketball, expandable to 13,500 for concerts.
- VIP & Hospitality: 2,200 sq. ft. Mezzanine VIP Room, adaptable for events or media use.
- Technology: Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, full broadcast capabilities, and live stats.
- Notable Features: Built into canyon hillside, incorporates historic Aztec Bowl elements, commemorative Kennedy boulder.

ALISHA CHILDRESS

HEAD COACH

The San Diego Mojo tabbed U.S. Olympic bronze medalist and four-time NCAA champion Alisha Glass Childress as the second head coach in franchise history on August 10, 2025. Childress previously served as an assistant coach at Stanford University and with the U.S. Women's National Team. She also served as a coach during the 2025 season with Athletes Unlimited.

Childress joined the Stanford coaching staff in 2019, spending two seasons on the Cardinal sideline and playing a pivotal role in helping guide the program to victory in the 2019 NCAA National Championship.

Before her time on The Farm, Childress served as an assistant coach with the U.S. National Team during the 2018 Pan American Cup, where the U.S. rallied to win gold over host Dominican Republic.

As a player, Childress is regarded as one of the top setters in the world. During her nine-year professional career, she played in the United States, Italy, Turkey, Poland, Puerto Rico and Brazil. Childress spent the 2024 and 2025 seasons with the Vegas Thrill, collecting All-League accolades in 2024 while also earning Most Inspirational Player honors from the league's coaches, and playing in the league's inaugural All-Star Match in 2025.

Childress directed U.S. National Team offensive attacks for six years, helping lead Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio, where she earned Best Setter honors. She was also selected Best Setter of the 2016 NORCECA Olympic Qualification Tournament, guiding the U.S. to gold and an automatic spot in the Rio Games.

A two-time USA Volleyball Indoor Athlete of the Year (2013, 2014), Childress earned gold medals in three consecutive FIVB World Grand Prix Finals (2010, 2011, 2012).

Childress played collegiately at Penn State from 2006–09 for legendary head coach Russ Rose, leading the Nittany Lions to three straight national titles from 2007–09 and posting a 110–2 record during the three-year run. She was a three-time AVCA All-American, three-time All-Big Ten Conference and three-time NCAA Championship All-Tournament selection, and a nominee for the 2009 Honda Volleyball Award.

A four-year starter for the Nittany Lions, she concluded her Penn State career ranked fourth in program history with 5,800 assists and 12.47 assists per set, 13th in hitting percentage at .336 and blocks with 448 and 15th with 465 sets played.

As a prep player, the Leland, Michigan native was a four-year letterwinner at Leland High, earning Michigan Gatorade Player of the Year and Miss Volleyball for the state of Michigan in 2006 after leading the Comets to the 2006 Class D state championship, producing a single-match record of 48 kills in the title match. She was a four-time first-team all-state, all-region and all-conference selection, concluding her high school career as the National and State High School record holder in season aces (296), career aces (937) and career kills (3,584).

A two-sport star, she earned first-team all-state accolades in basketball her junior and senior seasons. Raised in a coaching family, her mother, Laurie Glass, was her high school volleyball coach, and her grandfather, Larry Glass, was her high school basketball coach.

Childress is married to eight-year NBA basketball veteran and Stanford All-American Josh Childress. They have three daughters, Maya, Mina and Amara.
