THE RETURNERS

Megan Lush, Raina Terry and Abby Walker – all Ohio natives – return for another season with the Columbus Fury in 2026. The duo of Terry and Walker were drafted in 2024 and played big roles for the Fury as rookies last season.

Terry made an immediate impact, finishing second on the team with 2.55 kills per set (194 kills) and 3.11 points per set (236) after being selected with the 11th overall pick. Walker led the team in blocks and hitting percentage after being taken with the 32nd overall pick.

Lush, the two-time team captain and 2025 MLV All-Star, had another great all-around season for the Fury in 2025, finishing with 163 kills, 220 digs, 22 blocks and nine service aces.

THE ROOKIES

With a plan of adding "point scorers" to the roster during the 2025 MLV Draft, the Columbus Fury did just that by adding Flormarie Heredia Colon (Miami), Maya Winterhoff (App State) and free agent Akasha Anderson (Purdue). Heredia Colon, an outside hitter from Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, led the NCAA in kills as a senior in 2025 and set the Miami record for career kills. Winterhoff, a middle blocker, led the Sun Belt in hitting percentage for a third-consecutive season in 2025, while Anderson, an outside hitter, was named All-Big Ten Second Team in her final collegiate season.

THE NEWCOMERS

The Columbus Fury signed several high-impact free agents in August, adding more experience and size to the roster. Among those free agents is setter Ashley Evans – an Ohio native – who played last season for Bergamo in the Italian league after being the MLV assists leader during the league's inaugural season in 2024.

Another standout signing is libero Aleksandra Jegdic, who was a member of the 2022 World Championship winning Serbian national team. She is a highly experienced professional, with 15 years of experience across Europe.

Additionally, the Fury added middle blocker Rachel Gomez, setter Audrey Pak and middle blocker Regan Pittman in August. Columbus later signed middle blocker Rainelle Jones, an MLV veteran and Fury fan favorite from the 2024 season, outside hitter Jaelyn Hodge, libero Kamaile Hiapo and opposite Kashauna Williams.

NEW TRAINING FACILITIES FOR 2026 SEASON

The Columbus Fury announced the brand new, state-of-the-art Bob Crane Community Center in Upper Arlington as the team's main training facility for the 2026 season. Located approximately six miles from Nationwide Arena and opened in April 2025, the Bob Crane Community Center was designed with athletes in mind—featuring high-performance training spaces, expansive gymnasiums, and modern amenities that make it an ideal environment for a professional team preparing for a demanding season. Last season's primary practice location, Columbus School for Girls, will still be utilized as the visiting team's practice location during the 2026 season. The Fury will also make some appearances at CSG throughout the season.

CARPIO ADDED TO COACHING STAFF

Noel Carpio, who has collegiate, professional and international coaching experience, joins the Columbus Fury staff as an assistant coach for the 2026 season. The veteran assistant coach most recently served on the San Diego Mojo staff last season and has previously coached at Creighton, Georgetown, Oral Roberts and Arizona as well as with the U.S. Girls U19 National Team.

HEAD COACH ÁNGEL PÉREZ

Ángel Pérez enters his third season as head coach of the Fury in 2026, after signing a multi-year contract extension.

Pérez helped bring professional volleyball to Columbus as the Fury’s first head coach, leading the team during the inaugural season in 2024. The Río Piedras, Puerto Rico native, returned for a second season in 2025 and will continue to build on the foundation he helped create.

“I’m super excited and thrilled to continue on this journey with the Columbus Fury,” Perez said. “I am grateful that the franchise has put its trust in me to continue to build on the foundation we have started.

We are hoping to build a franchise that the city of Columbus is proud of and to continue to provide opportunities for women in professional sports. Again, I am grateful for the trust the organization has put in me and I’m excited to get back in the gym and continue to build.”

An accomplished coach and player, Pérez came to Columbus after leading Las Pinkin de Corozal in Puerto Rico’s Women’s Superior Volleyball League. He led the team to back-to-back championships in 2022 and 2023 and was named the league’s Manager of the Year both seasons.

Pérez is a distinguished former international player and one of the best-ever male players in Puerto Rico history, having played professionally in France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Romania, and Slovenia.

He also represented the Puerto Rico national team beginning in 2006 and later served as team captain from 2013 to 2018. During his time with the national team, he helped lead the team to a sixth-place finish at the 2007 FIVB World Cup, a silver medal at the 2007 NORCECA Championship and bronze at the 2010 Pan-American Cup.

Pérez played one season of college volleyball in the United States at BYU before returning home to play at Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico from 2002-06.

Pérez is married to Zuania Fernandez and the couple have two daughters, Gabriela and Bella.
