WELCOME TO INDY IGNITE PROFESSIONAL VOLLEYBALL

The Indy Ignite are one of eight teams taking the court in the third season of Major League Volleyball. The mission of the Ignite is to pursue victory, empower women and serve our community through the competitive world of pro volleyball.

Here are some facts about the Ignite and MLV.

- In its inaugural season as an MLV franchise, Indy finished second in the league in 2025. Other returning teams in 2026 are the Atlanta Vibe, Columbus Fury, Grand Rapids Rise, Omaha Supernovas, Orlando Valkyries and San Diego Mojo, with the Dallas Pulse joining as a new franchise.
- The Ignite are one of nine professional sports teams based in Central Indiana, along with the Indianapolis Colts (NFL), Indiana Pacers (NBA), Indiana Fever (WNBA), Noblesville Boom (NBA G League), Indy Fuel (ECHL), Indy Eleven (USL), Indianapolis Indians (IL) and Fishers Freight (IFL). Indianapolis is also home to the NTT IndyCar Series and will play host to the 2026 NCAA Men's Final Four as well as the men's NCAA Division II, Division III and National Invitation Tournament basketball championships in April.

INDY KEEPS CHUGGING ALONG ATOP MLV STANDINGS

The Ignite still reside alone at the pinnacle of the MLV standings with a 6-1 record following Friday night's win over Grand Rapids. Indy has put together a pair of three-match winning streaks sandwiched around its only defeat of the 2026 season. With that victory over the Rise, the Ignite achieved something they weren't able to do in their entire inaugural season of 2025: move their record to five wins above the .500 mark.

MAJOR LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL PRIMER

- Each match is a best-of-five sets. In the first four sets, the winner is the first team to 25 points (with at least a two-point advantage). The winner of the fifth set is the first team to 15 points (by two or more points).
- There are no line judges; line scoring is done with the use of 22 high-definition cameras placed around the court. Coaches are permitted one call challenge per set. If successful, teams retain the challenge to use again later in the set. Challengeable plays are for a block touch, net fault, antenna touch, foot fault, last touch or reaching beyond the net.
- Every team plays 28 regular-season matches, four (two home, two away) against each other team in the league. The four teams with the best records advance to the MLV Championship in May.

IGNITE HAVE THEIR FAIR SHARE OF MOJO GOING THIS WEEK

The Ignite head to San Diego – a venue where they’ve yet to win – for Monday’s match with the Mojo. It’s the first of two matches between the teams in a span of six days, as San Diego returns the favor with a visit Sunday to Indy.

Indy takes its MLV-best 6-1 record into Monday’s meeting. San Diego is 2-6 but is coming off a win Friday against visiting Columbus.

“San Diego is going to be a tough team,” Ignite head coach Lauren Bertolacci says. “They have a couple really nice opposites (Jovana Brakocevic and Morgan Lewis) that are playing good on and off, and they’re rotating through outsides right now. It will be a tough game to prepare tactically, (with San Diego) not having a fixed starting six. But again, we’ve got a lot of depth in our team and taking some load management things into consideration, we’ll put the best lineup on the court and we’ll just go for the win.”

QUICK HOMESTAND FOR IGNITE THIS WEEKEND

Following Monday’s trip to San Diego, the Ignite return to Fishers Event Center for a pair of matches this weekend.

- Friday vs. Orlando, 7 p.m.: Volleytines Night offers fans the chance to see two of the top MLV teams in action on Valentine’s Day eve. Ticketed fans 21 and older may head to the arena’s North Club from 5-6 p.m. for a Volley & Vine wine tasting from Easley Winery, with a variety of wines available to sample.
- Sunday vs. San Diego, 3 p.m.: The Winter Games Celebration Match presented by Team Rehab offers the first 1,000 fans through the doors an exclusive Indy Ignite scarf. Following the match, the Ignite will host a Faith & Family Event presented by Thrivent, where families, groups and community members may gather for a courtside conversation with Ignite athletes sharing their personal faith journeys.

Tickets for these and all Ignite home matches are available at IndyIgniteVB.com, including a Buy One Get One (BOGO) offer where two tickets may be purchased for the price of one.

CHART TOPPERS: IGNITE LEAD MLV IN MULTIPLE STATISTICS

The Ignite hold the best record in Major League Volleyball at 6-1. The strength of that success is fueled by a potent offense that’s at or near the top in nearly every offensive team category.

On a per-set average, Indy paces MLV in points (18.39), kills (14.50), assists (13.36) and service aces (1.32), while also leading the league in kill percentage (40.2) and ranking third in efficiency (24.2).

Defense has played an important role as well. The Ignite are tied for the best opponents’ efficiency in MLV (20.6) and are third in blocks (2.57 per set).

HEAD COACH LAUREN BERTOLACCI

Lauren Bertolacci joins the Indy Ignite as head coach for the 2026 Major League Volleyball season following an extensive and successful career as a player and coach around the world.

The native Australian fashioned a 10-year professional playing career across Europe while also being a member of the Australian National Team from 2005-15. She began her coaching career with the Luzern men's pro team in 2013, helping elevate it to a dominant force in Switzerland's top division. In 2018, Bertolacci became head coach of Viteos NUC, where she led the women's club through seven standout seasons – capturing six national championships, four Swiss Cup titles and guiding the team to a historic appearance in the 2024 CEV Cup final. She concluded her tenure with an impressive 207-37 record, establishing NUC as a force in Europe.

In 2021, Bertolacci was appointed head coach of the Swiss Women's National Team. At the 2023 European Championships, she was the only female head coach and led Switzerland to its best-ever result. In 2025, she guided the team to a Silver League championship and promotion to the prestigious Golden League. Bertolacci has also served in coaching roles with the Australian and Canadian national teams, including a bronze medal finish with Team Canada at the 2021 NORCECA Championship.

Bertolacci says she was intrigued by the opportunity to join the Ignite, with the team fresh off its runner-up finish in the 2025 MLV Championship. After speaking with Indy's upper management, the decision to take the head coaching job was easy.

"From my very first conversations with the Ignite leadership, I felt a strong connection to their vision, values and professionalism," she says. "It's clear this organization is building something special, and I'm excited to join a team that made such a powerful statement in its first season. To be part of pushing the Ignite toward championship contention again in 2026 is a tremendous honor. To be now in what's not quite the ground floor but stepping in maybe even at a better time where things are a little bit more established, I think is really exciting."

PLAYER PROFILE CARA CRESSE

The University of Louisville connection to the Ignite continues this season, with middle blocker Cara Cresse becoming the third former Cardinal on the Indy roster – rejoining former college teammates Anna DeBeer and Elena Scott. It's a Hoosier homecoming as well for Cresse, who starred at Fort Wayne Blackhawk Christian High School before heading to Louisville.

Coming off the best match in her young pro career, when she had nine kills, three aces and a block Friday against Grand Rapids, Cresse reflected on her journey of the past few months since she was drafted in the first round by the Ignite.

On being selected by her home state team: "It feels like a dream come true. I remember when they announced that there would be an Indy team, I really wanted to play there. I wanted to go back closer to home, and here I am. The fact that I ended up here was just kind of perfect and kind of answered my prayers, really."

On being reunited with Louisville teammates DeBeer and Scott: "I never really thought I would play with them again, so being here is awesome. Elena's an awesome libero and Anna's an amazing outside hitter, so I'm really excited to be playing with them again. It's be like old times."

On adjusting from the collegiate to professional levels: "It's obviously a little bit different game. There's a lot of things I've been working on attack wise, like closing the block and just being up on everything. I think it's finally kind of starting to click."

FISHERS EVENT CENTER

11000 Stockdale Street
Fishers, IN 46037

Fishers Event Center is a 7,500 seat ultra-modern event center located 20 minutes northeast of Indianapolis. The facility, which opened in November 2024, is the largest mid-size event center in the region. It is home to three professional teams, the Indy Ignite, Indy Fuel (hockey) and Fishers Freight (indoor football), and plays host to dozens of concerts and other arts performances throughout the year.
