RISE-MOJO CONNECTIONS: Notable shared history between the two teams:

- » A trio of Mojo players previously played for the Rise: Martin Grote (2024-25), Shannon Scully (2024), and Kayla Caffey (2024). Grote holds the Rise franchise record for most sets played (154) and blocks (95). Scully won the league's championship last season with the Orlando Valkyries;
- » Rise setter Saige Ka'aha'aina-Torres and Caffey won the 2022 NCAA National Championship with Texas;
- » Rise opposite hitter Lauren Jardine-Clark and Mojo outside hitter Grace Loberg won the 2021 NCAA National Championship with Wisconsin. They also played together last year with the Vegas Thrill, alongside Rise players Allison Mayfield and Berkeley Oblad and Vegas first-year head coach Alisha Childress and setter Carly Graham.

GRAND RAPIDS RISE MATCH NOTES

RINSE AND REPEAT?

Grand Rapids looks to halt a four-match losing streak by recreating its success against San Diego after a 3-1 win in the first meeting between the teams on Jan. 23. In that match, the Rise hit .277 offensively and opened with a dramatic 31-29 first-set win. The victory marked the Rise's third straight win over the Mojo, and three of Grand Rapids' five wins against San Diego have come via sweeps – the most against any MLV opponent.

STARTS FOR SHELTON

Rise rookie and fourth overall pick in the 2025 MLV Draft, Alexis Shelton made her first professional start Friday, Feb. 6, against the Indy Ignite. She stepped into the lineup for outside hitter Paige Briggs-Romine, who had started the previous 24 matches for the Rise before being sidelined by illness.

Making her second appearance of the season, Shelton recorded her first pro block in the opening set. The former Oklahoma Sooner finished with a team-high 14 points on 11 kills, two blocks, and her first ace. Shelton followed that performance with another team-high effort Sunday, Feb. 8, against the Pulse, totaling 15 points on 13 kills and two aces.

WELCOME BACK TO VAN ANDEL

Middle blocker Marin Grote returns to Van Andel Arena for the first time as a visiting player after playing her first two seasons with the Rise. Grote is tied for second in the league with 10 aces and has totaled 87 points this season with 62 kills and 15 blocks.

Outside hitter/libero Shannon Scully and middle blocker Kayla Caffey will also face their former team. Caffey has recorded 39 points this season (29 kills, six blocks, four aces) and did not play in the first meeting between the two teams. Scully has posted 18 points (14 kills, four blocks) in 12 sets played.

DEFENDING HOME COURT

The Rise look to get back to .500 at home this season (1-2) and all-time (14-15). Grand Rapids all-time record by match length inside Van Andel Arena:

- » Three-set matches: 5-2 (.714);
- » Four-set matches: 3-9 (.250);
- » Five-set matches: 6-4 (.600).

San Diego is the last MLV team to be winless on the road this season at 0-4, with losses at Omaha twice (0-3, 2-3), Dallas (1-3), and Atlanta (1-3).

CHASING HISTORY

Rise outside hitter and team captain Carli Snyder tallied 13 kills on Sunday, moving into second place in team history with 404 career kills. She passed former opposite hitter Emiliya Dimitrova and is closing in on inaugural season standout Claire Chaussee (429). Snyder also holds the Rise franchise records for most points (487), aces (37), and attack attempts (1,330).

Snyder leads the Rise this season with 99 points and 89 kills, despite missing the Feb. 1 match against Omaha due to injury. It was the first match of her Grand Rapids career she had missed after starting the previous 33 contests. Snyder is currently second in team history in sets played (139), chasing Grote at 154.

DIGGING UP 500

Rise libero Elena Oglivie recorded a season-high 20 digs on Sunday against the Dallas Pulse, surpassing 500 for her Rise career with a total of 513. The Stanford product from Honolulu, Hawaii, became the first player in franchise history to reach the 500-dig milestone entirely in a Rise uniform. Oglivie has 121 digs this season, ranking fifth in the league.

The Rise recorded a season-high 25 digs in the third set Sunday against Dallas, paced by eight from Oglivie. She also added four assists in the match on out-of-system balls, bringing her career total with the Rise to 99 assists.

PRO DEBUT

Rise second-round draft pick Candela Alonso-Corcelles from Madrid, Spain, made her professional debut Sunday, Feb. 8, against the Dallas Pulse, entering late in the fourth set as a serving substitute. With her appearance, every player on the Rise roster has now played a set this season.

JARDINE-CLARK PLACED ON IR

On Wednesday, Feb. 11, Rise opposite hitter Lauren Jardine-Clark was placed on season-ending injured reserve. She suffered the injury in the Feb. 6 match at Indy after contributing five of the Rise's 13 blocks and adding nine kills (.240) in the contest. This season, she appeared in six matches (10 sets), totaling 10 kills, seven blocks, four digs and two assists.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE COUNTER

The Rise have two players closing in on the franchise record for most double-doubles in team history: Chaussee (16), Dimitrova (15), Snyder (15), Ashley Evans (13), and Briggs-Romine (13). Setter Saige Ka'aha'aina-Torres leads the Rise with four double-doubles in the first eight matches this season.

CATHY GEORGE

RISE HEAD COACH & VP OF VOLLEYBALL OPERATIONS

The Grand Rapids Rise on March 13, 2023 introduced Cathy George as the team's head coach and director of volleyball operations. Prior to the start of the inaugural 2024 Major League Volleyball season, George was named VP of Volleyball Operations.

George took the Rise to the MLV championship match in her first season at the helm. In the playoff semifinals, the No. 4-seeded Rise upset the top-seeded Atlanta Vibe in five sets. Grand Rapids then lost to the No. 2-seeded Omaha Supernovas in the title match at the CHI Health Center in Omaha, Neb. The Rise finished the 2024 season with a 13-13 record, with a 7-5 record at home inside Van Andel Arena.

The winningest coach in the history of Michigan State University's volleyball program, George led the Spartans for 17 seasons (2005-21) and totaled 35 years as a collegiate head coach, including 11 seasons (1994-2004) at Western Michigan University.

At Michigan State, George amassed a 302-233 (.564) record, qualified for the NCAA tournament 10 times, and reached the Elite Eight in 2017, when her team's final ranking of No. 8 in the AVCA national poll was the program's highest since the 1996 season. The Spartans made seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments from 2011-17 – the second-longest streak in school history – winning at least one game in each tournament and earning the second and third NCAA Sweet 16 berths of George's tenure.

George became the first woman to coach in the NCAA DI Final Four when she took her University of Texas-Arlington program to the national semifinals in 1989. She has made 15 NCAA tournament appearances, coached 26 AVCA All-Americans, and garnered a slew of coaching honors. George was a three-time Southland Conference Coach of the Year recipient (1989, 1990, 1992), the 2000 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year, and the 1988 NCAA DII National Coach of the Year.

Prior to her time at MSU, George spent 11 seasons at Western Michigan University from 1994-2004, highlighted by a 2000 campaign in which she earned MAC Coach of the Year honors as the Broncos captured the MAC title and made the NCAA Tournament. WMU made back-to-back MAC Tournament title match appearances in 1999 and 2000, and she concluded her Broncos tenure with a 185-139 mark (.571).

Throughout her time in the state of Michigan, George's teams have garnered strong fan support. Michigan State ranked in the top 25 in Division I attendance during each of her 17 seasons at the helm (excluding COVID restrictions during spring 2021), while Western Michigan led the MAC in total attendance in eight of her 11 seasons.

George began her DI coaching career at UT-Arlington in 1989, reaching the Final Four in her first season at the helm and winning three Southland Conference titles (1989, 1990 and 1992) in five years. She finished with an overall ledger of 93-74 (.557), including 37-4 (.902) in conference play.

George got her start as a collegiate head coach at the NCAA DII level at North Dakota State University, serving from 1987-88. She won the NCAA DII Coach of the Year award in her second and final season with the Bison after going 43-3 (.935), and she finished her two seasons with an 87-11 (.888) mark.

George began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan University in 1986. In addition to her collegiate experience, she enjoyed two stints with USA Volleyball, leading the USA A2 Red team to the USA Adult Open Championship in 2008 and serving as an assistant coach at the 1999 World University Games.

A native of the Chicago suburb of Oak Lawn, Ill., and a 1985 graduate of Illinois State University, George was a four-year letterwinner in volleyball and helped the Redbirds claim three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances.

Since opening its doors on October 8, 1996, this state-of-the-art arena has become a cornerstone of West Michigan's cultural and sports landscape. With a seating capacity of up to 12,000, it has consistently attracted major events and world-renowned performers.

The arena is home to the Grand Rapids Griffins of the American Hockey League (AHL), the Grand Rapids Gold of the NBA G League, and the Grand Rapids Rise of Major League Volleyball. Its diverse programming includes a variety of sports events, family-friendly shows, concerts, and comedy performances. Van Andel Arena has hosted an impressive lineup of events, from NCAA hockey regionals and the AFL Arena Bowl XV to iconic performances by Neil Diamond, Elton John, and Justin Timberlake. The arena is also a regular venue for Disney on Ice, drawing families from across the region.
