MATCHUP STORYLINES

• Historic Comeback for San Diego: The Mojo made franchise history on Feb. 12 by completing their first-ever reverse-sweep win. Trailing 0-2 against Grand Rapids at Van Andel Arena, San Diego rallied to win the final three sets, snapping a 0-19 record when facing a two-set deficit. The series between the teams is now tied 5-5.

• Road Test for San Diego: The Mojo head back on the road aiming to build on that historic comeback. Under head coach Alisha Childress, the team has shown growth in close matches, with late-set execution becoming a signature strength.

• Defense vs. The Block: San Diego's backcourt defense, led by libero Shara Venegas, will be challenged by Grand Rapids' front-row presence, anchored by middle blocker Rhamat Alhassan, who ranks near the top of the league in blocks and efficiency.

• Offensive Balance on Both Sides: San Diego relies on a multi-player attack including Marlie Monserez and Grace Loberg, while Grand Rapids looks to consistent scoring from Carli Snyder and Paige Briggs-Romine. Serve-receive and limiting opponent runs will be key in a competitive rematch.

• Grand Rapids at Home: The Rise return to Van Andel Arena, where they are 2-3 this season and 15-16 all-time, looking to regain control in a tightly contested series.

SAN DIEGO MOJO OUTLOOK

• Building Momentum at Home: The San Diego Mojo improved to 5-7 overall and 4-2 at Viejas Arena following a five-set victory over Omaha. The win marked San Diego's third straight at home and third in its last four matches. The Mojo recorded 100 digs, the second-most in franchise history, and continued to show balance offensively despite a challenging night in serve receive.

• Monserez Earns Weekly Honor: Setter Marlie Monserez was named Major League Volleyball Player of the Week after posting 55 assists and 17 digs in the win over Omaha. She ranks fourth in total assists (501) and fifth in assists per set (10.02). Monserez also ranks seventh in total digs (145) and ninth in digs per set (2.90). She leads the league in hitting efficiency (46.8%) and kill percentage (48.1%).

• Mojo Lead the League on Defense: San Diego leads the league in total digs (857) and digs per set (17.14), more than a full dig per set ahead of the next team at 16.07. Three Mojo players rank among the league's top eight in total digs: Shara Venegas (1st, 189), Monserez (7th, 145) and Grace Loberg

Childress joined the Stanford coaching staff in 2019, spending two seasons on the Cardinal sideline and playing a pivotal role in helping guide the program to victory in the 2019 NCAA National Championship.

Before her time on The Farm, Childress served as an assistant coach with the U.S. National Team during the 2018 Pan American Cup, where the U.S. rallied to win gold over host Dominican Republic.

As a player, Childress is regarded as one of the top setters in the world. During her nine-year professional career, she played in the United States, Italy, Turkey, Poland, Puerto Rico and Brazil. Childress spent the 2024 and 2025 seasons with the Vegas Thrill, collecting All-League accolades in 2024 while also earning Most Inspirational Player honors from the league's coaches, and playing in the league's inaugural All-Star Match in 2025.

Childress directed U.S. National Team offensive attacks for six years, helping lead Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio, where she earned Best Setter honors. She was also selected Best Setter of the 2016 NORCECA Olympic Qualification Tournament, guiding the U.S. to gold and an automatic spot in the Rio Games.

A two-time USA Volleyball Indoor Athlete of the Year (2013, 2014), Childress earned gold medals in three consecutive FIVB World Grand Prix Finals (2010, 2011, 2012).

Childress played collegiately at Penn State from 2006–09 for legendary head coach Russ Rose, leading the Nittany Lions to three straight national titles from 2007–09 and posting a 110–2 record during the three-year run. She was a three-time AVCA All-American, three-time All-Big Ten Conference and three-time NCAA Championship All-Tournament selection, and a nominee for the 2009 Honda Volleyball Award.

A four-year starter for the Nittany Lions, she concluded her Penn State career ranked fourth in program history with 5,800 assists and 12.47 assists per set, 13th in hitting percentage at .336 and blocks with 448 and 15th with 465 sets played.

As a prep player, the Leland, Michigan native was a four-year letterwinner at Leland High, earning Michigan Gatorade Player of the Year and Miss Volleyball for the state of Michigan in 2006 after leading the Comets to the 2006 Class D state championship, producing a single-match record of 48 kills in the title match. She was a four-time first-team all-state, all-region and all-conference selection, concluding her high school career as the National and State High School record holder in season aces (296), career aces (937) and career kills (3,584).

A two-sport star, she earned first-team all-state accolades in basketball her junior and senior seasons. Raised in a coaching family, her mother, Laurie Glass, was her high school volleyball coach, and her grandfather, Larry Glass, was her high school basketball coach.
