RISE-VIBE CONNECTIONS: Notable shared history between the two teams:

- » Rise libero Morgan Hentz played for the Vibe from 2024-25;
- » Atlanta middle blocker Raven Colvin, now on season-ending injured reserve, was selected seventh overall in the 2024 draft by the Rise. She played in 11 matches (22 sets) with the Rise during her rookie season;
- » Leah-squared reunion as Rise middle blocker Leah Meyer played one season in 2019 with former Kentucky teammate Leah Edmond;
- » Middle blocker Phoebe Awoleye played with Rise libero Camila Gómez with the Omaha Supernovas last season;
- » Vibe assistant coach Laura "Bird" Kuhn coached Paige Briggs-Romine, Gómez, and Allison Mayfield during her tenure (2024-25) as the head coach of the Supernovas.

GRAND RAPIDS RISE MATCH NOTES

WHIPLASH WEEKEND

The Rise played two high-profile matches last weekend in less than 22 hours. On Saturday, they faced the Omaha Supernovas for the first time since a Feb. 13 trade that sent libero Morgan Hentz to Grand Rapids. Hentz squared off against her former teammates, while Omaha's Elena Oglivie returned to play against the franchise where she played her first 37 pro matches. In front of 3,708 fans at Van Andel Arena, the Rise won 3-1 [25-17, 27-29, 25-22, 25-14], snapping a six-match losing streak to Omaha that dated back to May 12, 2024, and extending the Supernovas' current losing skid to six.

On short rest, Grand Rapids then traveled to face the league-leading Indy Ignite on Sunday. The Rise took the opening set but fell 3-1 [23-25, 25-18, 25-22, 25-20], ending their two-match winning streak and dropping to 5-10 overall [2-6 on the road]. Indy extended its win streak to seven and improved to 13-2 overall.

FIRST START FOR ALONSO-CORCELLES

Rookie outside hitter Candela Alonso-Corcelles made her first professional start at opposite hitter on Sunday in Indy, opening the match with a kill for the game's first point. She finished with a season-high seven kills, two aces, two blocks, and a team-high 12 digs. A Madrid, Spain, native, Alonso-Corcelles starred at Indiana University and was selected 11th overall in the second round of the 2025 MLV Draft by the Rise.

BLOCK CENTURY MARK

With two blocks on Sunday, middle blocker Alyssa Jensen became the first player to record 100 career blocks in a Rise uniform. She also added a season-high seven kills (.211) and three digs against the Ignite. The all-time Rise leaderboard for blocks:

- » 1. Alyssa Jensen [2024-26], 100 in 44 matches.
- » 2. Marin Grote [2024-25], 95 in 44 matches.
- » 3. Ali Bastianelli [2025], 89 in 28 matches.

MIDDLES MISSING

Rise middle blocker Rhamat Alhassan, who had started the first 11 matches of the season, has been inactive the last four matches due to an injury. Alhassan leads the Rise with a .339 hitting percentage and averages 7.2 kills per match.

Grand Rapids also lost middle blocker Leah Meyer to injury early in the third set against Indy on Sunday. On Thursday, Meyer was added to the season-ending injury reserve list, further thinning the Rise's depth in the middle.

TURNER'S TURN

Rise second-year setter Camryn Turner has started the last four matches for Grand Rapids and has recorded three straight double-doubles. She is averaged 10.8 assists (162 total) and 3.1 digs (47 total) per set. Turner, at 5-foot-8, has also contributed eight blocks across the four matches. Turner has moved into second place in franchise history with 759 career assists, passing August Raskie (660) and now chasing Ashley Evans (1,074).

100-POINT GANG

Five Rise players have now crossed over 100 points scored for this season: Paige Briggs-Romine (202), Carli Snyder (182), Alhassan (111), Elizabeth Inneh (108), and Meyer (103). Other 100-point scorers from across the league include:

- » Atlanta [2]: Leah Edmond [270] and Aiko Jones [139];
- » Columbus [3]: Raina Terry [272], Regan Pittman-Nelson [136], and Megan Lush [131];
- » Dallas [4]: Mimi Colyer [273], Sofia Maldonado Diaz [250], Layne Van Buskirk [141], and Kaylee Cox [103];
- » Indy [6]: Leketor Member-Meneh [198], Azhani Tealer [168], Anna DeBeer [164], Lydia Martyn [128], Blake Mohler [107], and Camryn Hannah [102];
- » Omaha [5]: Brooke Nuneviller [232], Emily Londot [173], Reagan Cooper [163], Sarah Parsons [147], and Kiara Reinhardt [126];
- » Orlando [7]: Charitie Luper [175], Kaz Brown [143], Naya Shime [139], Hannah Maddux [135], Brittany Abercrombie [129], Natalie Foster [111], and Courtney Schwan [109].
- » San Diego [4]: Grace Loberg [203], Jovana Brakočević [155], Marin Grote [138], and Maya Tabron [133].

MLV ALL-STAR VOTING

The second MLV All-Star Match is set for Saturday, March 28, at Addition Financial Arena in Orlando and will air on CBS at Noon ET. Fans can vote daily (once every 24 hours) over the next three weeks at ProVolleyball.com/vote. All players on team rosters are eligible, with the top vote-getters earning automatic spots on the 12-player All-Star teams. Additional selections will be made by coaches and the league office.

CHAMPIONSHIP VENUE

Major League Volleyball announced on Feb. 19 that Comerica Center, home of the league's newest team, the Dallas Pulse, will host the 2026 Major League Volleyball Championship. The event is scheduled for Thursday, May 7, and Saturday, May 9.

CATHY GEORGE

RISE HEAD COACH & VP OF VOLLEYBALL OPERATIONS

The Grand Rapids Rise on March 13, 2023 introduced Cathy George as the team's head coach and director of volleyball operations. Prior to the start of the inaugural 2024 Major League Volleyball season, George was named VP of Volleyball Operations.

George took the Rise to the MLV championship match in her first season at the helm. In the playoff semifinals, the No. 4-seeded Rise upset the top-seeded Atlanta Vibe in five sets. Grand Rapids then lost to the No. 2-seeded Omaha Supernovas in the title match at the CHI Health Center in Omaha, Neb. The Rise finished the 2024 season with a 13-13 record, with a 7-5 record at home inside Van Andel Arena.

The winningest coach in the history of Michigan State University's volleyball program, George led the Spartans for 17 seasons (2005-21) and totaled 35 years as a collegiate head coach, including 11 seasons (1994-2004) at Western Michigan University.

At Michigan State, George amassed a 302-233 (.564) record, qualified for the NCAA tournament 10 times, and reached the Elite Eight in 2017, when her team's final ranking of No. 8 in the AVCA national poll was the program's highest since the 1996 season. The Spartans made seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments from 2011-17 – the second-longest streak in school history – winning at least one game in each tournament and earning the second and third NCAA Sweet 16 berths of George's tenure.

George became the first woman to coach in the NCAA DI Final Four when she took her University of Texas-Arlington program to the national semifinals in 1989. She has made 15 NCAA tournament appearances, coached 26 AVCA All-Americans, and garnered a slew of coaching honors. George was a three-time Southland Conference Coach of the Year recipient (1989, 1990, 1992), the 2000 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year, and the 1988 NCAA DII National Coach of the Year.

Prior to her time at MSU, George spent 11 seasons at Western Michigan University from 1994-2004, highlighted by a 2000 campaign in which she earned MAC Coach of the Year honors as the Broncos captured the MAC title and made the NCAA Tournament. WMU made back-to-back MAC Tournament title match appearances in 1999 and 2000, and she concluded her Broncos tenure with a 185-139 mark (.571).

Throughout her time in the state of Michigan, George's teams have garnered strong fan support. Michigan State ranked in the top 25 in Division I attendance during each of her 17 seasons at the helm (excluding COVID restrictions during spring 2021), while Western Michigan led the MAC in total attendance in eight of her 11 seasons.

George began her DI coaching career at UT-Arlington in 1989, reaching the Final Four in her first season at the helm and winning three Southland Conference titles (1989, 1990 and 1992) in five years. She finished with an overall ledger of 93-74 (.557), including 37-4 (.902) in conference play.

George got her start as a collegiate head coach at the NCAA DII level at North Dakota State University, serving from 1987-88. She won the NCAA DII Coach of the Year award in her second and final season with the Bison after going 43-3 (.935), and she finished her two seasons with an 87-11 (.888) mark.

George began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan University in 1986. In addition to her collegiate experience, she enjoyed two stints with USA Volleyball, leading the USA A2 Red team to the USA Adult Open Championship in 2008 and serving as an assistant coach at the 1999 World University Games.

A native of the Chicago suburb of Oak Lawn, Ill., and a 1985 graduate of Illinois State University, George was a four-year letterwinner in volleyball and helped the Redbirds claim three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances.

VAN ANDEL ARENA

130 Fulton St. W
Grand Rapids, MI 49503
(616) 742-6600

Van Andel Arena, situated in the vibrant heart of downtown Grand Rapids, Michigan, stands as the region's premier venue for a wide array of entertainment. Since opening its doors on October 8, 1996, this state-of-the-art arena has become a cornerstone of West Michigan's cultural and sports landscape. With a seating capacity of up to 12,000, it has consistently attracted major events and world-renowned performers.

The arena is home to the Grand Rapids Griffins of the American Hockey League (AHL), the Grand Rapids Gold of the NBA G League, and the Grand Rapids Rise of Major League Volleyball. Its diverse programming includes a variety of sports events, family-friendly shows, concerts, and comedy performances. Van Andel Arena has hosted an impressive lineup of events, from NCAA hockey regionals and the AFL Arena Bowl XV to iconic performances by Neil Diamond, Elton John, and Justin Timberlake. The arena is also a regular venue for Disney on Ice, drawing families from across the region.
