UNLEASH THE FURY

The Columbus Fury return for their third season of Major League Volleyball.

- ⇒ The Fury are in the final stretch run, with three regular season matches remaining. Of the remaining three matches, two are at home.
- ⇒ Raina Terry has been outstanding this season, following up on her solid rookie year in 2025. The Marengo, Ohio native is third in MLV with 4.58 points per set and 449 points. Terry has had double-digit points in all but three matches and has eight double-doubles as well.
- ⇒ Regan Pittman-Nelson has been a force at the net for the Fury this season, leading the league with 65 total blocks and sitting second with 0.75 blocks per set. Pittman-Nelson has also been an offensive threat, scoring double-digit points in 11 matches this season.
- ⇒ Kamaile Hiapo stepped into the starting libero role in mid-February and has done a stellar job. She has posted six matches with 20+ digs and set a franchise record with 27 digs in the four-set win over the Orlando Valkyries on Feb. 22. In her 15 starts, Hiapo is averaging 3.88 digs per set.
- ⇒ The Fury are second in Major League Volleyball with 2.64 blocks per set and third with 259 total blocks. Columbus has had double-digit blocks in 16 matches, including a franchise record-tying 17 blocks on two occasions.
- ⇒ Rookie setter Audrey Pak followed up her Major League Volleyball Player of the Week award with a career match, posting 42 assists, 16 digs, and six points in the reverse sweep win over Grand Rapids. Pak set another career high with 48 assists in the five-set loss to Atlanta on April 10.
- ⇒ Raina Terry, Regan Pittman-Nelson and Abby Walker all competed in the 2026 AdventHealth MLV All-Star Match on Saturday, March 28 in Orlando. Terry and Walker picked up the win as part of Team Meske.
- ⇒ Columbus' roster features four Ohio natives, Megan Lush, Ashley Evans, Raina Terry and Abby Walker, who will once again be playing volleyball in the Buckeye State.

TERRY'S CAREER NIGHT

Raina Terry set new franchise records with 35 points and 30 kills in the thrilling five-set loss to the Atlanta Vibe on April 10. Terry also had a career-high 20 digs and 73 total attacks, while still hitting .301 for the match. In addition to the incredible match performance, Terry reached a career milestone with more than 500 kills in her two-year Major League Volleyball career. This season, Terry has six matches with 20-plus kills, double-digit kills in all but six matches and eight double-doubles. The Marengo, Ohio native and Illinois graduate also ranks third in the league with 50 total blocks.

FURY STARS SHINE AT MLV ALL-STAR MATCH

A trio of Columbus Fury stars made their All-Star debuts in the 2026 AdventHealth MLV All-Star Match on March 28 at Addition Financial Arena in Orlando, with Raina Terry and Abby Walker picking up the win as part of Team Meske. Walker had a tremendous match, recording three kills on just six swings, two blocks and two aces. Terry finished with three kills, two digs and one ace. Pittman-Nelson chipped in three kills, one block and one ace for Team Launiere.

BLOCK PARTY

The Columbus Fury's biggest strength this season has been the team's presence at the net, stuffing 2.64 blocks per set and 259 total blocks. The team has posted double-digit blocks in 16 of the 25 matches this season and have recorded a franchise record-tying 17 total blocks on two occasions. This has been a team effort by the Fury, as Regan Pittman-Nelson leads the team with 65 blocks while Raina Terry is right behind her with 50 blocks and six other players also have double-digit blocks.

PAK NAMED PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Columbus Fury rookie setter Audrey Pak was named the Major League Volleyball Player of the Week presented by Franklin Sports on March 31. She is the first Fury player this season to earn weekly honors. The native of Moraga, Calif. dished out 28 assists (9.33 per set) in a sweep of the defending champion Orlando Valkyries. She led the Fury to a season-high hitting percentage of .363 – the second-best single match hitting mark in team history. She also added six digs, two kills and one block in the match.

TWO NEW FACES FOR STRETCH RUN

The Fury announced the signings of Brianna Ford, who most recently played for USC Münster in the German Bundesliga, and Ryan White, a University of Kansas graduate who will make her professional debut with the Fury. A graduate of the University of Texas at Arlington, Ford signed with the Fury following her first professional season for USC Münster in the German Bundesliga. White, who started her collegiate career at Oregon State before playing her final season at Kansas in 2025, helped lead the Jayhawks to the program's fourth NCAA Sweet 16 last season.

RECORD BREAKING PERFORMANCE

Kamaile Hiapo was forced into the starting libero role in mid-March and has done an impressive job serving as the Fury's defensive leader. In her first start, against Dallas on Feb. 14, Hiapo led the team with 10 digs while adding three assists. Hiapo doubled that output in her second start, with 20 digs and six assists in the four-set loss to the Atlanta Vibe on Feb. 19. In her third start of the season, the Gilbert, Arizona native set a franchise record with 27 digs to help the Fury beat the defending champion Orlando Valkyries. Hiapo started strong with eight digs in the first set, before posting five in the second set and four in the third. She saved her best for last though, registering 10 digs in the decisive fourth set to secure the win.

THE RETURNERS

Megan Lush, Raina Terry and Abby Walker – all Ohio natives – return for another season with the Columbus Fury in 2026. The duo of Terry and Walker were drafted in 2024 and played big roles for the Fury as rookies last season. Terry made an immediate impact, finishing second on the team with 2.55 kills per set (194 kills) and 3.11 points per set (236) after being selected with the 11th overall pick. Walker led the team in blocks and hitting percentage after being taken with the 32nd overall pick. Lush, the two-time team captain and 2025 MLV All-Star, had another great all-around season for the Fury in 2025, finishing with 163 kills, 220 digs, 22 blocks and nine service aces.

THE NEWCOMERS

The Columbus Fury signed several high-impact free agents in August, adding more experience and size to the roster. Among those free agents is setter Ashley Evans – an Ohio native – who played last season for Bergamo in the Italian league after being the MLV assists leader during the league's inaugural season in 2024. Additionally, the Fury added middle blocker Rachel Gomez, setter Audrey Pak and middle blocker Regan Pittman in August. Columbus later signed middle blocker Rainelle Jones, an MLV veteran and Fury fan favorite from the 2024 season, outside hitter Jaelyn Hodge, libero Kamaile Hiapo and opposite Kashauna Williams.

THE ROOKIES

With a plan of adding "point scorers" to the roster during the 2025 MLV Draft, the Columbus Fury did just that by adding Flormarie Heredia Colon (Miami), Maya Winterhoff (App State) and free agent Akasha Anderson (Purdue). Heredia Colon, an outside hitter from Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, led the NCAA in kills as a senior in 2025 and set the Miami record for career kills. Winterhoff, a middle blocker, led the Sun Belt in hitting percentage for a third-consecutive season in 2025, while Anderson, an outside hitter, was named All-Big Ten Second Team in her final collegiate season.

NEW TRAINING FACILITIES FOR 2026 SEASON

The Columbus Fury announced the brand new, state-of-the-art Bob Crane Community Center in Upper Arlington as the team's main training facility for the 2026 season. Located approximately six miles from Nationwide Arena and opened in April 2025, the Bob Crane Community Center was designed with athletes in mind—featuring high-performance training spaces, expansive gymnasiums, and modern amenities that make it an ideal environment for a professional team preparing for a demanding season. Last season's primary practice location, Columbus School for Girls, will still be utilized as the visiting team's practice location during the 2026 season. The Fury will also make some appearances at CSG throughout the season.

BIG TEN COUNTRY

Columbus lies in the heart of Big Ten country and is home to the Ohio State Buckeyes. The team roster features eight players who spent at least one season at a Big Ten school.

- ⇒ Penn State alumna Megan Lush won two national titles with the Nittany Lions. Kashauna Williams finished her collegiate career with one season at Penn State in 2022.
- ⇒ Raina Terry finished third in the NCAA in attacks per set, fourth in total attacks, eighth in kills per set and ninth in total kills during her senior season with Illinois.
- ⇒ Rainelle Jones set career records for total blocks (718) and block assists (654), as well as leading the NCAA in blocks per set in 2021 and 2022 at Maryland.
- ⇒ Ashley Evans became the first Purdue Boilermaker in history to record 4,000 assists and 1,000 digs in a career.
- ⇒ Regan Pittman-Nelson earned three All-America honors while at Minnesota, including being named an AVCA First Team All-American in 2019.
- ⇒ Audrey Pak played one season in the Big Ten for UCLA and received the 2024 Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.
- ⇒ Akasha Anderson completed her collegiate career at Purdue in 2025 and received All-Big Ten Second Team honors.

Andrea Mitchell and Andy Sandler Announced as New Owners of the Columbus Fury, Ushering in the Next Era of Major League Volleyball

COLUMBUS, OH — March 25, 2026 — Major League Volleyball and the Columbus Fury are proud to announce that the married co-owners, Andrea Mitchell and Andy Sandler, have acquired the Columbus Fury. This transaction marks a powerful new chapter for professional volleyball in Central Ohio and signals continued national growth for Major League Volleyball.

Andrea is a nationally recognized financial services attorney and managing partner of Mitchell Sandler PLLC, one of the nation's leading majority women-owned and women-managed financial services law firms. She is also a member of the Board of Directors of Dave Inc., a publicly traded financial technology company. Andy is an entrepreneur and lawyer. He is part of the new ownership group of the Tampa Bay Rays and owns the Greensboro Grasshoppers, Kannapolis Cannon Ballers, and Lexington Legends minor league baseball teams. He co-founded the Mitchell Sandler law firm with Andrea and leads Temerity Capital Partners, which owns and operates financial services compliance technology and professional services companies.

As the only active professional women's sports franchise in Ohio, the Columbus Fury represents both a cultural pillar and an economic driver for the region. Under Andrea and Andy's leadership, the organization is poised to build on that foundation through professionalized operations, strategic recruitment of elite global talent, and expanded partnerships throughout the community.

"When I think about leading the Columbus Fury, I start with purpose," said Andrea. "Like any great organization, success begins with a clear sense of 'why.' For me, that means using this platform to advance women's professional sports, to put the health and wellness of our players first, and to ensure the long-term sustainability of volleyball in America. Our vision is to make the Fury a permanent and respected fixture in professional sports—a team that stands for excellence, inclusion, and the power of women leading at every level."

Established in 2023 as a founding member of Major League Volleyball, the Columbus Fury has rapidly become a cornerstone of women's athletics in Ohio. Backed by strong civic leadership and support from the Mayor's office, the franchise continues to build momentum both on and off the court. Central to that growth is a defining purpose: elevating the visibility, fandom, and respect for women's professional volleyball to secure its place as a permanent fixture in American sports.

"The future of women's sports in our city is bright, and today it was made even brighter by the addition of Andrea Mitchell as the new owner of the Columbus Fury," said First Lady Shannon Ginther alongside Mayor Andrew J. Ginther. "As we continue building on the vision of becoming the nation's capital for women's sports, Andrea's arrival signals that momentum is not just growing; it's igniting! Andrea embodies the mission of IgniteHER, and we are excited to support her as she inspires the next generation and helps shape a bold, winning future for our Fury and for our city."

With new ownership in place, the Columbus Fury are positioned to build on their early success and expand their impact both on and off the court. The organization is expected to continue exploring key partnerships, including its relationship with Nationwide Arena, as part of its long-term growth strategy.

HEAD COACH ÁNGEL PÉREZ

Ángel Pérez enters his third season as head coach of the Fury in 2026, after signing a multi-year contract extension.

Pérez helped bring professional volleyball to Columbus as the Fury’s first head coach, leading the team during the inaugural season in 2024. The Río Piedras, Puerto Rico native, returned for a second season in 2025 and will continue to build on the foundation he helped create.

“I’m super excited and thrilled to continue on this journey with the Columbus Fury,” Perez said. “I am grateful that the franchise has put its trust in me to continue to build on the foundation we have started.

We are hoping to build a franchise that the city of Columbus is proud of and to continue to provide opportunities for women in professional sports. Again, I am grateful for the trust the organization has put in me and I’m excited to get back in the gym and continue to build.”

An accomplished coach and player, Pérez came to Columbus after leading Las Pinkin de Corozal in Puerto Rico’s Women’s Superior Volleyball League. He led the team to back-to-back championships in 2022 and 2023 and was named the league’s Manager of the Year both seasons.

Pérez is a distinguished former international player and one of the best-ever male players in Puerto Rico history, having played professionally in France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Romania, and Slovenia.

He also represented the Puerto Rico national team beginning in 2006 and later served as team captain from 2013 to 2018. During his time with the national team, he helped lead the team to a sixth-place finish at the 2007 FIVB World Cup, a silver medal at the 2007 NORCECA Championship and bronze at the 2010 Pan-American Cup.

Pérez played one season of college volleyball in the United States at BYU before returning home to play at Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico from 2002-06.

Pérez is married to Zuania Fernandez and the couple have two daughters, Gabriela and Bella.

NATIONWIDE ARENA

200 W Nationwide Blvd
Columbus, OH 43215
614.380.3879

Located on the corner of Nationwide Boulevard and Front Street in downtown Columbus, Nationwide Arena was built on a piece of property that was the site of the historic Ohio State Penitentiary. The support of naming rights partner Nationwide Insurance paved the way for the city to acquire an NHL expansion team, the Columbus Blue Jackets.

Nationwide Arena opened with back to back SOLD OUT Soul 2 Soul concerts featuring Tim McGraw and Faith Hill. Named one of the best arenas in the NHL, the facility opened to great fanfare in September of 2000 and has since hosted the NHL All-Star Game, regular season and playoff hockey, NCAA championships, local, regional and national conferences and a multitude of concerts and touring events.

MAJOR LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL

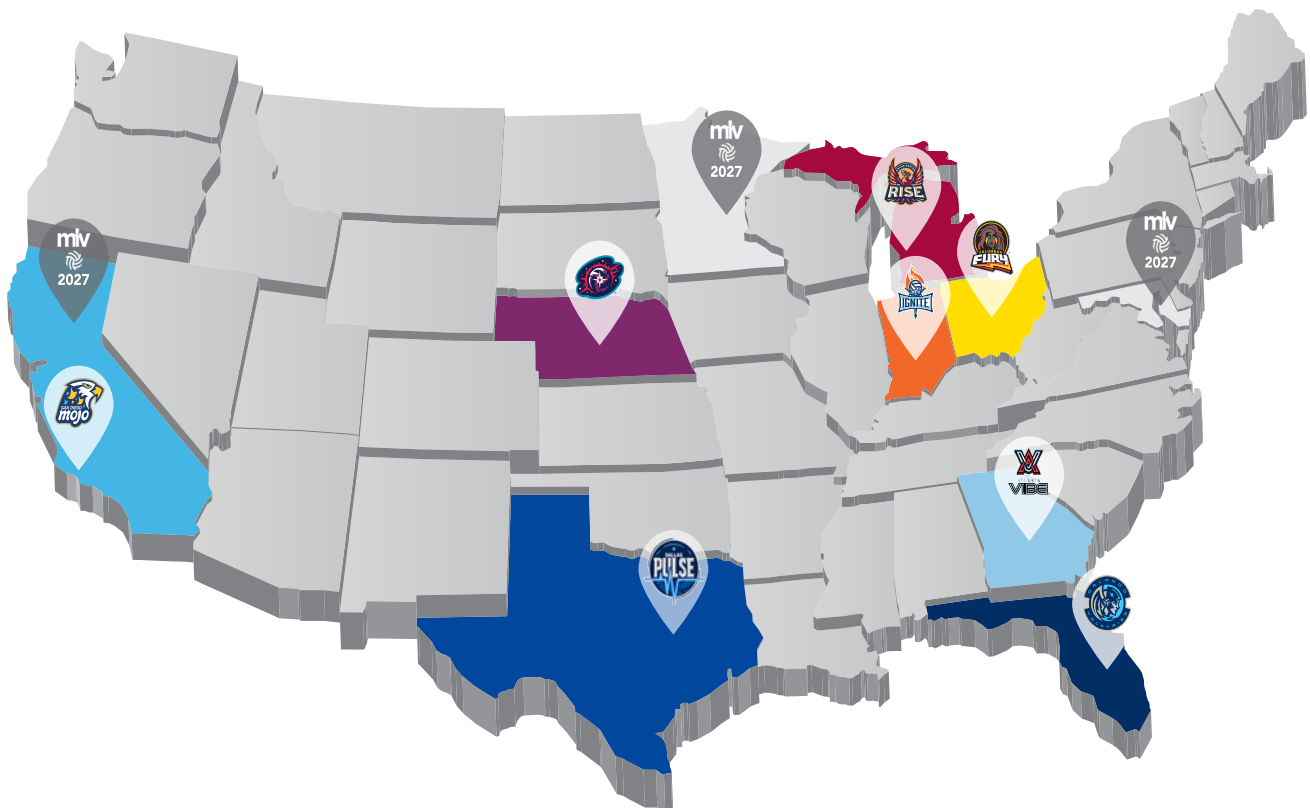

In a landmark move for the sport, Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) and Major League Volleyball announced plans for a single, united league poised to elevate professional women's volleyball in the United States. The unified league will be branded as MLV.

This is an exciting moment for professional women's volleyball.

The unification and modernization of the business model brings in new team owners, league governance, ownership standards and an innovative approach to off-court player opportunities and fan engagement.
