News & Notes

- ⇒ Earlier this season, Major League Volleyball surpassed the 1-million mark for total attendance in its history. The league has averaged nearly 4,000 fans in 310 matches.
- ⇒ The 109 matches this season have showcased the even balance of MLV teams. A total of 174 sets (out of 440) have had margins of three points or less (39.5%). There are 402 of 440 sets overall that posted margins in single digits (91.4%).
- ⇒ Major League Volleyball has had some strong attendance numbers this season, with more than 392,000 fans attending the 109 matches.
- ⇒ Women hold 75 percent of the head coaching positions in MLV, where six of the eight head leaders are female.
- ⇒ Major League Volleyball (MLV) is the longest-running formal professional volleyball league in the United States, playing its third season in 2026.
- ⇒ MLV continues its growth – with Dallas taking the court for the first time this season and teams in Minnesota, Northern California and Washington DC confirmed for the 2027 campaign.
- ⇒ Major League Volleyball invests substantially in its players – scheduled to spend nearly $13 million as a league in total player salaries and benefits in 2026.
- ⇒ Each team has a $1.2 million salary pool for player compensation. In addition, there are further financial bonuses for postseason awards and championship competition.
- ⇒ MLV plays in some of the largest markets in the nation – with all eight teams in 2026 located in the top 45 DMAs in America. Four are in the top 25 and in 2027, Major League Volleyball will add three more ranked in the top 20.

DID YOU KNOW??

Against Omaha on April 10, Grand Rapids dug in to record a franchise-record 104 digs - the most in MLV history for a four-set match.

Orlando's Charitie Luper is the only player in MLV history to play in the All-Star Match in both seasons AND be on the winning team each time.

Elena Oglivie had 32 digs at Atlanta on April 2, setting a MLV four-set record and tying league's all-time single-match digs record.

Omaha's match versus Indy on March 14 announced a sellout crowd of 16,838 fans, setting a U.S. record for a professional volleyball match.

MLV Championship Tiebreaking Policy

If, following the completion of regular season play, there are ties among the teams in the standings, the following tiebreakers shall be used to determine playoff seeding and/or postseason participation. The teams with the highest winning percentages will be seeded one through four. If there are any ties among the teams with the four highest winning percentages, the following tiebreakers should be utilized to break all ties:

1. Match points totals. Teams will be assigned point totals during the regular season based on the scores of each match. Points are assigned as follows:
  - a. 3 points for winning a match by the score of 3-0 or 3-1
  - b. 2 points for winning a match by the score of 3-2
  - c. 1 point for losing a match by the score of 2-3
2. Head-to-head results for all matches played amongst the tied teams
3. Sets ratio (Sets won divided by sets lost) for regular season matches only
4. Points ratio (Points won divided by points lost) for regular season matches only
5. Coin toss

In the event the tiebreakers are reduced to a coin toss, each team involved would be permitted to have a representative as part of the coin toss process, which will be held in person with league representatives or via video meeting in a timely manner the same day as the last regular season match is final.

If more than two teams have the same exact winning percentage after the regular season, the tiebreakers shall be used until one team is eliminated, at which point the tiebreaker between the remaining teams reverts to the first tiebreaker and the process continues until one team remains. If one team wins a multiple-team tiebreaker and is seeded, the remaining teams with an identical winning percentage go through the tiebreakers in a similar fashion until there is a single winner among the tied teams.

Example:

- Three teams have the same winning percentage.
- Team A has 30 points with six wins at 3-0 or 3-1, two wins at 3-2 and eight losses at 2-3. Team B and Team C have 21 points with seven wins at 3-0 or 3-1, one win at 3-2 and one loss at 2-3.
- Team A is the highest seed and removed from the comparison
- Since Team B and Team C have the same point total (reverting back to step one after Team A is eliminated), the next step is head-to-head results. Team C defeated Team B in three of four matches, so Team C would be seeded next followed by Team B.

All-Stars Shine In Orlando

The stars were out at the Major League Volleyball All-Star Match, showcasing the elite talent from across this major league. In front of a national audience on CBS, the Team Meske All-Stars defeated the Team Launier All-Stars, 2-1 (24-25, 25-19, 25-22). A total of 5,380 fans – a sellout capacity in the lower bowl that spilled into the upper sections - witnessed the second annual gathering of MLV's top players.

Beyond the on-court competition, the match represented a significant milestone for the sport. As Major League Volleyball enters the final weeks of its third season, the success of the All-Star event reflects the league's increasing national attention and the continued rise in visibility for women's professional volleyball.

"This event represents something much bigger than a single match," said head coach Dan Meske. "To see this level of talent, paired with this kind of atmosphere and fan support, really speaks to where the game is heading. It's exciting to be part of something that continues to grow and build momentum across the country. And just as important, college aged players now have a real opportunity to compete in the MLV and represent their home country on a professional stage."

Aside from the final score, the energy throughout Addition Financial Arena and the visible joy from both players and fans defined the event. All-Star Charitie Luper credited her performance to the experience itself and the opportunity to compete alongside both familiar and new teammates.

"It was such an incredible experience," said Luper. "Being able to play with former teammates while also learning from players I've never shared the court with was really special. Seeing different styles of play and just enjoying the moment made it so much fun. It's a great reminder of why we all love this game."

MLV Announces Surge In All-Star Match Ratings

Major League Volleyball announced a significant increase in national viewership for its second annual MLV All-Star Match, signaling continued momentum for the league's rapid growth.

The 2026 AdventHealth MLV All-Star Match, which aired nationally on CBS, averaged 562,000 viewers, representing a 36% year-over-year increase.

The match reached a peak audience of 672,000 viewers - an increase of 227,000 versus last season's inaugural All-Star Match peak - reflecting growing national interest in professional women's volleyball and expanding visibility for MLV sports in the United States.
