MATCHUP STORYLINES

• Mojo Return to Championship Stage: San Diego is back in the postseason for the first time since the inaugural MLV Championship in 2024, once again entering as the No. 3 seed. The Mojo carry one of the league's strongest late-season surges into the semifinal after winning 14 of their final 20 matches following a 1-6 start.

• Dallas Reaches Championship in Inaugural Season: The Pulse have quickly established themselves as a contender, advancing to the MLV Championship in their first season of play. Dallas secured the No. 2 seed with a 20-8 record, combining a high-powered offense with a strong presence at the net.

• Championship Played on Dallas Home Floor: The MLV Championship will be held at Comerica Center, the home arena of the Pulse. Dallas posted a 9-5 record at home during the regular season and will look to leverage home-court advantage in the semifinal.

• Pulse Took Season Series: Dallas won the regular-season series 3-1, including victories in both matchups played in Frisco. The teams also met in San Diego, where the Mojo earned their lone win in a five-set match.

• Mojo Familiar With Road Championship Environment: This marks the second time San Diego will face the host team in the postseason, having squared off against Omaha at CHI Health Center during the 2024 Championship.

SAN DIEGO MOJO OUTLOOK

• Mojo Set for MLV Championship Semifinal Showdown With Dallas: San Diego enters Thursday's MLV Championship semifinal as the No. 3 seed following a four-set match at Indy in the regular-season finale. The Mojo will face No. 2 seed Dallas, with first serve set for following the conclusion of the Indy-Omaha match that begins at 4 p.m. PT. San Diego carries momentum into the postseason after winning 14 of its last 20 matches following a 1-6 start, marking one of the strongest second-half surges in the league.

• All-MLV Honors Highlight San Diego Core: Middle blocker Marin Grote was named All-MLV First Team and libero Shara Venegas earned All-MLV Second Team honors, marking the second time in franchise history San Diego has had multiple All-MLV selections in the same season. Grote became the first player in team history to earn First Team honors, while both players add the recognition to their 2026 MLV All-Star selections.

- League-Leading Defense Anchors Postseason Push: San Diego continues to define itself defensively, leading the league in both digs per set (17.51) and total digs (1,944), ahead of Grand Rapids (17.04, 1,909). The Mojo also rank third in aces (101) and aces per set (0.91), fourth in total blocks (267) and blocks per set (2.41) and third in opponent hitting efficiency (.218), showcasing balance across all defensive phases entering the postseason.

- Back-Row Trio Fuels Defensive Identity: San Diego is one of the only teams with three players ranked in the top 10 in both total digs and digs per set. Shara Venegas leads the way with 431 digs (second in the league) and 3.92 digs per set, while Marlie Monserez (334, 3.01) and Grace Loberg (321, 3.03) also rank among league leaders, anchoring a back row that drives the Mojo's transition game.

- Monserez Directs Efficient Offense: Monserez continues to orchestrate the offense at a high level, ranking second in total assists (1,131) and third in assists per set (10.19). She also ranks in the top 10 in digs and leads the league in hitting efficiency (.431), while ranking fourth in hitting percentage (46.6%), making her one of the most efficient setters in the league.

- Loberg Enters Semifinal With Weekly Honors: Grace Loberg was named the final MLV Player of the Week after leading San Diego across the last week of the regular season. She totaled 34 points and 29 kills across two matches, including a franchise-record 23-point performance in a sweep of Grand Rapids. Loberg finished the regular season ranked sixth in total points (377) and seventh in total kills (313), while adding top-10 marks in aces, blocks and digs, continuing to impact all six rotations.

- Grote Provides Balance at Net and Service Line: Marin Grote remains a key presence at the net, tying for third in the league with 51 blocks and ranking seventh in blocks per set (0.50). She also ranks in the top 10 in both total aces (17) and aces per set (0.17), providing an additional scoring threat from the service line while anchoring the Mojo block.

DALLAS PULSE OUTLOOK

- Pulse Enter Semifinal as No. 2 Seed: Dallas enters the MLV Championship semifinal with a 20-8 record, securing the No. 2 seed behind one of the league's most complete seasons. The Pulse posted the league's best road record (11-3) and recorded nine sweeps.

- All-MLV Selections Highlight Star Power: Dallas placed four players on the All-MLV teams, with Mimi Colyer and Sofia Maldonado Diaz earning First Team honors and Natalia Valentin-Anderson and Layne Van Buskirk named to the Second Team. Valentin-Anderson earns her second consecutive All-MLV selection, while the other three collect their first career honors.

- Colyer Headlines League Honors: Mimi Colyer was named MLV Outside Hitter of the Year after a record-setting rookie season. She led the league with 523 points, 5.08 points per set, 466 kills and 4.52 kills per set, setting single-season records in each category. Colyer recorded double-digit kills in all but two matches and has established herself as one of the league's most dominant offensive players.

- Elite One-Two Offensive Punch: Colyer and Maldonado Diaz powered one of the most explosive offenses in the league, finishing first and second in multiple statistical categories. Maldonado Diaz ranked second in points (484), points per set (4.94), kills (420) and kills per set (4.29), while finishing third in aces (21), forming one of the league's most dynamic attacking duos.

- Valentin-Anderson Orchestrates Record-Setting Offense: Setter Natalia Valentin-Anderson directed the league's most efficient offense, leading the MLV with 1,221 assists and 11.85 assists per set, both single-season records. She also ranks fifth in total digs (357) and averages 3.47 digs per set, recording 21 double-doubles and providing all-around production.

- Elite at the Net and Efficient in Attack: Dallas paired its high-powered offense with a dominant presence at the net, leading the league in total blocks (290) and blocks per set (2.71). The Pulse also posted a league-best .264 hitting efficiency, setting a new single-season team record and underscoring their ability to score efficiently while controlling play at the net.

- Van Buskirk Anchors Front-Row Presence: Layne Van Buskirk provided a strong presence at the net despite limited matches, totaling 43 blocks and ranking among the league leaders. She led the league with a 50.4 kill percentage, the second-highest single-season mark in MLV history, and ranked fifth in hitting efficiency (.347), adding another layer to Dallas' front-row strength.

GROTE, VENEGAS EARN ALL-MLV HONORS

- Middle blocker Marin Grote was named All-MLV First Team, while libero Shara Venegas earned All-MLV Second Team honors, the league announced Tuesday.
- Marks the second time in franchise history San Diego has had multiple All-MLV selections in the same season and increases the total to four all-time honorees.
- Grote becomes the first player in franchise history to earn All-MLV First Team recognition.
- Both Grote and Venegas earn their first career All-MLV honors and were previously named 2026 MLV All-Stars.
- Grote tied for third in the league with 51 blocks and ranked seventh with 0.50 blocks per set.
- Also finished 10th in the league with 17 aces and 0.17 aces per set, both the second-best single-season marks in franchise history.
- Established career highs in points (260), kills (192), assists (10), digs (90), points per set (2.52) and kills per set (1.86) while appearing in 28 matches and 103 sets.
- Her 51 blocks tied for the fourth-most in a single season in franchise history, while her 192 kills rank as the second-most by a Mojo middle blocker.

- Four current teams are based in top-25 DMAs, and the addition of three new franchises in 2027 will bring Major League Volleyball into three more top-20 markets.

RECORD INVESTMENT IN PLAYER SALARIES AND BENEFITS

- Major League Volleyball invests substantially in its players – scheduled to spend more than $11 million as a league in total player salaries and benefits in 2026.
- Each team has a $1.2 million salary pool for player compensation. In addition, there are further financial bonuses for postseason awards and championship competition.

DELIVERING STRONG ATTENDANCE AND FULL BROADCAST COVERAGE

- Over the first two seasons, more than 828,000 fans have attended MLV matches, with an average of more than 4,100 fans over the 200 matches overall.
- In the first two campaigns, more than 23 percent of matches throughout the league have seen attendance figures over 5,000.
- Every match in the league has been broadcast the past two seasons and fans will be able to watch the full slate again in 2026.

ORLANDO TO HOST ANNUAL ALL-STAR MATCH

- The 2026 Major League Volleyball All-Star Match will be played Saturday, March 28 at noon ET at Addition Financial Arena, home of the Orlando Valkyries, and will air live on CBS and Paramount+.
- Orlando hosts the league's marquee event for the first time, as the defending champion Valkyries welcome the league's top stars to one of the nation's premier sports and entertainment destinations.

- The All-Star Match returns to CBS network television for the second straight season after last year's broadcast peaked at 445,000 viewers, underscoring the league's continued national growth.

MLV UNVEILS RECORD 50-MATCH NATIONAL BROADCAST SCHEDULE

- Major League Volleyball announced a landmark 50-match national broadcast schedule, the most expansive media rollout in league history, highlighted by the MLV Championship airing on ION and the All-Star Match on CBS and Paramount+.
- The season will feature coverage across CBS Sports, Roku Sports Channel, ION, VICE and MLV digital platforms, with opening weekend, weekly marquee matchups, and postseason action showcased on national television.
- For the third consecutive season, every remaining match will also be available on the MLV YouTube Channel and through local broadcast agreements, providing nationwide access and continued growth for professional volleyball in the U.S.

2026 SAN DIEGO MOJO MATCH NOTES | VIEJAS ARENA

VIEJAS ARENA – HOME OF THE SAN DIEGO MOJO

Viejas Arena at Aztec Bowl
5500 Canyon Crest Drive
San Diego, CA 92182

MOJO RECORD AT VIEJAS ARENA

OVERALL: 23-17 (.575)

2026: 9-5

2025: 7-7

VIEJAS ARENA: WHERE THE ACTION HAPPENS

- Opened in 1997, Viejas Arena provides a 12,414-seat, state-of-the-art venue while keeping fans close to the court for an intimate, high-energy volleyball experience.
- Built directly into a canyon hillside, the arena preserves elements of the original Aztec Bowl, including two sections of concrete bleachers and historic cobblestone walls. The site also features a 10-ton granite boulder commemorating President John F. Kennedy's 1963 commencement address at Aztec Bowl.
- The arena features modern amenities including a $2.3 million Daktronics center-hung scoreboard with live stats, six locker rooms, two team rooms, a green room with three individual dressing rooms, a training room, and a workroom.
- Flexible seating configurations allow the venue to host anywhere from 3,000 to 13,500 fans depending on the event, including 240 ADA-accessible seats and form-fitted bench seating in key sections. A premier on-campus indoor arena, Viejas Arena provides a 12,414-seat, state-of-the-art venue, keeping fans close to the floor for an electric game-day atmosphere.

A PREMIER VENUE FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS AND MAJOR EVENTS

- NCAA Championships: Viejas Arena has hosted multiple marquee collegiate events, including Men's Basketball first and second rounds (2001, 2006, 2014, 2018, 2022, and upcoming 2026), the 2001 Women's Volleyball National Championship, and Women's Basketball first and second rounds (2009).

- Concerts & Entertainment: The arena has welcomed world-class performers, including Cher, Eric Clapton, Britney Spears, John Mayer, The Chainsmokers, Black Eyed Peas, Aerosmith, Billy Joel, and Elton John, offering unforgettable experiences for fans beyond sports.
- Versatile Event Space: From championship matchups to top-tier concerts, Viejas Arena seamlessly blends athletic competition with cultural and entertainment programming, making it one of San Diego's most iconic venues.

FAN & GAME-DAY EXPERIENCE

- Known for its intimate and energetic environment, Viejas Arena brings fans close to the action for unforgettable volleyball experiences.
- Designed to maximize athlete performance and fan engagement, the arena combines modern amenities, flexible seating, and high-end facilities.
- Continues the tradition of being one of San Diego's most historic and unique event spaces, blending athletic excellence with cultural and entertainment programming.

- Concessions and catering are provided by Aztec Shops, offering both classic sports fare and specialty options. The Mezzanine Level includes a VIP Room for banquets, pre- and post-game functions, and interviews, totaling 2,200 square feet of flexible space.

HISTORY & NAMING RIGHTS

- Constructed on the site of the historic Aztec Bowl (1936–1967), which hosted SDSU football and cultural events.
- Originally known as Cox Arena until 2009, when the Viejas Band of Kumeyaay Indians secured a 10-year naming rights agreement.

QUICK FACTS

- Capacity: 12,414 for volleyball and basketball, expandable to 13,500 for concerts.
- VIP & Hospitality: 2,200 sq. ft. Mezzanine VIP Room, adaptable for events or media use.
- Technology: Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, full broadcast capabilities, and live stats.
- Notable Features: Built into canyon hillside, incorporates historic Aztec Bowl elements, commemorative Kennedy boulder.

ALISHA CHILDRESS

HEAD COACH

The San Diego Mojo tabbed U.S. Olympic bronze medalist and four-time NCAA champion Alisha Glass Childress as the second head coach in franchise history on August 10, 2025. Childress previously served as an assistant coach at Stanford University and with the U.S. Women's National Team. She also served as a coach during the 2025 season with Athletes Unlimited.

Childress joined the Stanford coaching staff in 2019, spending two seasons on the Cardinal sideline and playing a pivotal role in helping guide the program to victory in the 2019 NCAA National Championship.

Before her time on The Farm, Childress served as an assistant coach with the U.S. National Team during the 2018 Pan American Cup, where the U.S. rallied to win gold over host Dominican Republic.

As a player, Childress is regarded as one of the top setters in the world. During her nine-year professional career, she played in the United States, Italy, Turkey, Poland, Puerto Rico and Brazil. Childress spent the 2024 and 2025 seasons with the Vegas Thrill, collecting All-League accolades in 2024 while also earning Most Inspirational Player honors from the league's coaches, and playing in the league's inaugural All-Star Match in 2025.

Childress directed U.S. National Team offensive attacks for six years, helping lead Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio, where she earned Best Setter honors. She was also selected Best Setter of the 2016 NORCECA Olympic Qualification Tournament, guiding the U.S. to gold and an automatic spot in the Rio Games.

A two-time USA Volleyball Indoor Athlete of the Year (2013, 2014), Childress earned gold medals in three consecutive FIVB World Grand Prix Finals (2010, 2011, 2012).

Childress played collegiately at Penn State from 2006–09 for legendary head coach Russ Rose, leading the Nittany Lions to three straight national titles from 2007–09 and posting a 110–2 record during the three-year run. She was a three-time AVCA All-American, three-time All-Big Ten Conference and three-time NCAA Championship All-Tournament selection, and a nominee for the 2009 Honda Volleyball Award.

A four-year starter for the Nittany Lions, she concluded her Penn State career ranked fourth in program history with 5,800 assists and 12.47 assists per set, 13th in hitting percentage at .336 and blocks with 448 and 15th with 465 sets played.

As a prep player, the Leland, Michigan native was a four-year letterwinner at Leland High, earning Michigan Gatorade Player of the Year and Miss Volleyball for the state of Michigan in 2006 after leading the Comets to the 2006 Class D state championship, producing a single-match record of 48 kills in the title match. She was a four-time first-team all-state, all-region and all-conference selection, concluding her high school career as the National and State High School record holder in season aces (296), career aces (937) and career kills (3,584).

A two-sport star, she earned first-team all-state accolades in basketball her junior and senior seasons. Raised in a coaching family, her mother, Laurie Glass, was her high school volleyball coach, and her grandfather, Larry Glass, was her high school basketball coach.

Childress is married to eight-year NBA basketball veteran and Stanford All-American Josh Childress. They have three daughters, Maya, Mina and Amara.
